December 8th Prayer for the Immaculate Conception

Mary our Mother, today the People of God celebrate you and venerate you as Immaculate, preserved forever from the stain of sin. Accept the homage I offer you in the name of the Church in Rome and throughout the world.

Knowing that you, who are our Mother, are totally free from sin, is of great comfort to us.

Knowing that evil has no power over you, fills us with hope and strength in the daily struggle we have to face against the threats of the evil one.

But we are not alone in this struggle, we are not orphans because Jesus, before dying on the Cross, gave you to us as our Mother.

Even though we are sinners, we are still your children, children of the Immaculate, called to that holiness that shines in you by the grace of God since the beginning.

Inspired by this hope, today we invoke your maternal protection for us, our families, this city and the whole world.

Through your intercession, may the power of God's love that preserved you from original sin, free humanity from every form of spiritual and material slavery and make God's plan of salvation be victorious in both hearts and in history.

May grace prevail over pride in us too, your children.

May we become merciful as our heavenly Father is merciful.

During this time leading to the celebration of Jesus' birth, teach us to go against the flow: to strip ourselves, to be humble and giving, to listen and be silent, to go out of ourselves, giving space to the beauty of God, source of true joy.

Pray for us, our Immaculate Mother!

Prière à l'Immaculée Conception

8 décembre

Ô Marie, notre Mère, aujourd'hui, ton peuple en fête Te vénère, Immaculée, préservée depuis toujours de la contamination du péché. Accueille l'hommage que je T'offre au nom de l'Eglise qui est à Rome et dans le monde entier. Savoir que Toi, qui es notre Mère, Tu es totalement exempte du péché, nous apporte un grand réconfort. Savoir que sur Toi le mal n'a aucun pouvoir, nous emplit d'espérance et de force dans la lutte quotidienne que nous devons soutenir contre les menaces du malin. Mais, dans cette lutte, nous ne sommes pas seuls, nous ne sommes pas orphelins, parce que Jésus, avant de mourir sur la Croix, T'as donnée à nous comme notre Mère. Bien que pécheurs, nous sommes donc tes enfants, les enfants de l'Immaculée, appelés à cette sainteté qui resplendit en Toi, par la grâce de Dieu depuis le commencement. Animés de cette espérance, nous invoquons aujourd'hui Ta protection maternelle pour nous, pour nos familles, pour cette ville, pour le monde entier. Que la puissance de l'amour de Dieu, qui T'a préservée du péché originel, par Ton intercession libère l'humanité de tout esclavage spirituel et matériel, et fasse vaincre, dans les cœurs et dans les événements, le dessein de Salut de Dieu. Fais qu'en nous aussi, tes enfants, la grâce l'emporte sur l'orgueil, et que nous puissions devenir miséricordieux comme notre Père céleste est miséricordieux. En ce temps qui nous conduit à la fête de la Nativité de Jésus, enseigne-nous à aller à contre-courant : à nous dépouiller, à nous abaisser, à nous donner, à écouter, à faire silence, à nous décentrer de nous-mêmes, pour laisser un espace à la beauté de Dieu, source de la vraie joie. Ô notre Mère Immaculée, prie pour nous ! Amen.

ASPIRE FOR OUR FUTURE

The Finance and Building Committees are working on the next big part of the Phase 3 Aspire Restoration Project started in 2016.

Your faithful support to date has contributed $1,630,189 with additional $140,109 in pledges expected during the next two years. YES! The debt to the Diocese loan Committee has now been paid in full. This means we are now able to plan for the regrading and paving of the parking lot. Improved outdoor lighting is part of the project to allow for safer use of Ste Anne's property in the evenings.

To all Parishioners: we invite you to start or restart your pledge to the Aspire Capital Campaign over the next two years. Before we are able to contract for work to begin during 2022, we need your financial commitment as soon as possible. More details to follow in 2022. To pledge, contact Cheryl at the office, (519) 735-2182 ext 243.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF RETIREMENT

After a period of discernment, dialogue and lots of prayer, Marguerite Hewer has made the decision to retire from Pastoral Ministry, as of this month.

We appreciate Marguerite for her dedication and devotion over the years and all that she did for our parish and our Family of Parishes. Also, we recognize her excellent work in preparing our young people for First Reconciliation and First Communion. Her zeal for sharing and teaching about God's love is inspiring and is evident in all that she does.

Please join us in thanking Marguerite for her many years of ministry; we want to bless her with our prayers for a grace-filled retirement with family, faith and friends.

MASS TIMES

Just a reminder, the 6:30pm mass on Sunday evenings has been cancelled. Fr. Patrick will have a 12:15pm Sunday mass once a month in French. Once Fr. Rob returns from his French studies in Québec, the times can be reviewed once again. For now, the dates are as follows: Sunday December 19th, Sunday January 23rd and Sunday, February 27th. Please invite those from the Francophone community to join us.

TEMPORARY CARETAKER NEEDED

Josh Steinberg, our current caretaker, was recently injured in a non-work related incident. We are looking for a temporary caretaker, one day a week to do a general church cleaning, for the next 2-3 months, until Josh heals and is ready to return.
