From the Pastor's Pen ~

Whether it was the 200th anniversary of one of our cemeteries or our Family Picnic – this Family of Parishes knows how to celebrate! I was impressed by all the volunteers who helped make these events so successful and enjoyable. I was also impressed by all those who came out to participate in these Family happenings. I found an amazing spirit among our people and a joy of being together. If you chose not to attend, you missed out on something special! Our strength as a community is found in our gathering together to celebrate our faith and the presence of Christ in each one of us. Way to go WLSC parishioners...the Spirit is alive in you!

During this Jubilee Year of Hope, Bishop Fabbro has asked us to re-examine the way we celebrate Mass. Last weekend, we reflected upon silence in the liturgy, and it is good to be reminded of the highlights. The Council Fathers' teach, "Sacred silence is not seen as empty, or an absence of noise, but is an active and integral part of the liturgy." Silence as a "ritual moment" has its own "content". It is a time for active internal reflection that complements vocal prayer, music, and gestures.

Silence isn't easy for any of us in our time. The Church gives us silence in liturgy to train our hearts and minds in silent prayer. As we work at cultivating silence, we will begin to better hear the voice of the Lord.

We are invited to silence several times during the Mass. We are first of all called to be silent before Mass begins to allow us to prepare for the sacred action by focusing on God's presence and reflecting on our personal prayer intentions. In the penitential act, there should be a brief pause to allow us to recall the attitudes, actions, and omissions that separate us from God and our dependence on God's mercy.

In the opening Collect, which is the prayer right after the Gloria, a period of silence follows the invitation, "Let us pray", to offer our silent intentions that we have discerned in the silence before Mass began. The Collect actually collects all of our prayers into one and offers them to God in the verbal prayer offered by the priest. Another time for silence is after the readings from scripture and the homily. This allows for reflection on the Word of God, proclaimed and preached.

The Church says that sacred silence be observed for some time after all have received communion, to reflect on the precious gift we have just received. Sacred silence is an opportunity for greater participation for all of us to actively offer our prayers and more deeply absorb the word of God.
