From the Pastor's Pen ~

End of Christmas Season

With the celebration of the Baptism of the Lord last weekend the Christmas Season came to an end. I always find it a little sad looking at the church with all the decorations taken down as we enter into Ordinary Time. I want to thank all of those who gave cards or gifts to me or to any of our Pastoral Team or Pastoral Staff. Your kindness was appreciated.

Sunday Reflection

The 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time invites believers to reflect on who Jesus is and what his mission means. The readings show that Jesus is the Lamb of God, chosen by God and filled with the Spirit. They also remind people that God has a plan for each person from the very beginning. These themes encourage believers to trust in God's call and to follow Jesus more closely.

This Sunday continues the story of Jesus after his baptism. John the Baptist sees Jesus and tells the people that he is the Lamb of God. He also explains that he saw the Spirit come down on Jesus and remain with him. This was a sign that Jesus was the one sent by God.

De la plume du curé ~

Fin de la saison de Noël

Avec la célébration du baptême du Seigneur la fin de semaine dernière, la saison de Noël a pris fin. Je trouve toujours un peu triste de voir l'église sans ses décorations alors que nous entrons dans le temps ordinaire. Je tiens à remercier tous ceux qui m'ont offert des cartes ou des cadeaux, à moi ou à l'équipe pastorale ou au personnel pastoral. Votre gentillesse a été très appréciée.

Réflexion du dimanche

Le deuxième dimanche du temps ordinaire invite les croyants à réfléchir à qui est Jésus et à la signification de sa mission. Les lectures montrent que Jésus est l'Agneau de Dieu, choisi par Dieu et rempli de l'Esprit. Elles rappellent également aux gens que Dieu a un plan pour chaque personne depuis le tout début. Ces thèmes encouragent les croyants à faire confiance à l'appel de Dieu et à suivre Jésus de plus près.

Ce dimanche poursuit l'histoire de Jésus après son baptême. Jean-Baptiste voit Jésus et dit au peuple qu'il est l'Agneau de Dieu. Il explique également qu'il a vu l'Esprit descendre sur Jésus et rester avec lui. C'était le signe que Jésus était celui qui avait été envoyé par Dieu.

The Spirit resting on Jesus shows that he is chosen for a special mission. He has come to bring people back to God. John was sent to prepare the way, but now his role is to point people to Jesus. He tells them that Jesus is greater than him because Jesus is the one who will save them.

This Sunday includes a reading from Isaiah about God's servant. The passage says that the servant was called from the womb. This means God had a plan for him before he was even born. The same idea is found in the reading from Paul. We were all chosen by God before birth to do his work. This reminds people that life has meaning from the very beginning. Each person is known and loved by God before they are even born. No life is an accident. Everyone is part of God's plan. Each is invited to think about their own call. God calls people in different ways, but he calls everyone to follow him. Like the servant in Isaiah, each person is meant to bring God's light to the world. (insights drawn from young-catholics.com)

Beginning a New Year

As we begin a new year, many of us create new year's resolutions. Perhaps one resolution we may consider is to "commit" to something to enhance our faith life. Each week in the bulletin are different opportunities to grow in the faith. Maybe join a group gathering or attend an event that you have not done previously and see where the Spirit may lead you.

Fr. Matt ~ Pastor

L'Esprit reposant sur Jésus montre qu'il a été choisi pour une mission spéciale. Il est venu pour ramener les gens vers Dieu. Jean a été envoyé pour préparer le chemin, mais son rôle est désormais de diriger les gens vers Jésus. Il leur dit que Jésus est plus grand que lui, car c'est Jésus qui les sauvera.

Ce dimanche, on lit un passage d'Isaïe sur le serviteur de Dieu. Le passage dit que le serviteur a été appelé du sein de sa mère. Cela signifie que Dieu avait un plan pour lui avant même sa naissance. On retrouve la même idée dans la lecture de Paul. Nous avons tous été choisis par Dieu avant notre naissance pour accomplir son œuvre. Cela rappelle aux gens que la vie a un sens dès le tout début. Chaque personne est connue et aimée de Dieu avant même sa naissance. Aucune vie n'est le fruit du hasard. Chacun fait partie du plan de Dieu. Chacun est invité à réfléchir à sa propre vocation. Dieu appelle les gens de différentes manières, mais il appelle tout le monde à le suivre. Comme le serviteur d'Isaïe, chaque personne est destinée à apporter la lumière de Dieu au monde. (idées tirées de young-catholics.com)

Commencer une nouvelle année

Au début d'une nouvelle année, beaucoup d'entre nous prennent des résolutions. Une résolution que nous pourrions envisager est peut-être de nous « engager » dans quelque chose qui enrichira notre vie spirituelle. Chaque semaine, le bulletin propose différentes occasions de grandir dans la foi. Pourquoi ne pas rejoindre un groupe ou participer à un événement auquel vous n'avez jamais pris part auparavant, et voir où l'Esprit vous mènera ?
