January 14th, 2024 - 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Weekend's Readings

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: 1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 40:2, 4, 7-8, 8-9, 10

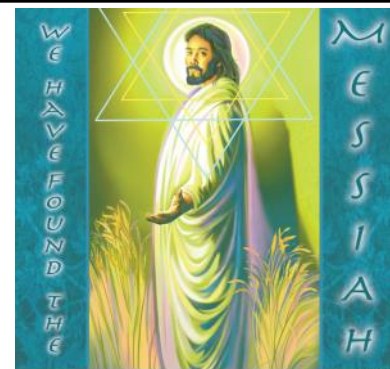

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20

Gospel: John 1:35-42

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

"We have found the Messiah: Jesus Christ, who brings us truth and grace."

(John 1:41, 17b)

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - HELLO GOD!

Just before our first reading it says that "the word of the Lord was rare; there were not many visions." (1Sam 3:1) I imagine most people today would think that was true. Haven't you ever wished you lived in biblical times, to see some of the miracles you read about? Wouldn't it be cool to hear the Lord speaking in a vision? Do you think God has stopped talking? People apparently felt that way in Samuel's time. Let's look at the reading to see what Samuel's experience can teach us.

At first Samuel thinks it is Eli calling him. It is not unusual for people to miss a sign from God. If you have a talent that you are proud of, perhaps it is a sign that God wants you to use that talent to help others. Or if a friend tells you she is concerned about your health, it could be God's way of telling you to get help. Try to see God speaking in whatever happens to you and you may hear a lot more than you think. Samuel also gets help from Eli. Eli began to recognize that the Lord was speaking to Samuel. Sometimes we need help discerning what the Lord is telling us. A good spiritual director can lead you to understand what God is saying to you. Your pastor may be able to do that, or at least able to refer you to someone.

Warning: A spiritual director will probably ask how often you pray. In our reading Samuel finally speaks directly to God, instead of going back to Eli. Then God tells him what God's plan was. So if you wonder what God plans for your life, try spending more time in prayer with him. Don't be like the man who complains he never know what his wife wants from him. When asked what she tells him, he says, "I don't know; we never talk." I bet we have all had times where we didn't know if we are doing God's will because we didn't take time to pray. But don't do all the talking. Give God some quiet time to hear his response. For God hasn't stopped talking; we just stopped listening.

CONDOLENCES

Our sincerest condolences to the members of the Belizean Community in the Cayman Islands on the passing of Bishop Lawrence Nicasio, the late Bishop of Belize City-Belmopan. Bishop Larry was a friend of St. Ignatius Parish. As a priest he visited his relatives and friends in Cayman regularly. He last visited our community in January 2020, just before the pandemic. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in eternal peace.

SECOND COLLECTION FOR JANUARY

There will be a second collection taken up at all the weekend Masses January 27/28 to support the work and ministries of the Pallottine Community, the Religious Order of Frs. Naveen and Anthony. Parishioners are encouraged to give generously to support the community of Fathers that provide selfless spiritual leadership to our Parish. St. Vincent Pallotti, pray for us.

IMPORTANT UPDATE:

Please note that our prayer list for the sick was growing very lengthy, and some names have been on the list for a significant amount of time. As a result, any names that have been on the list for more than a year have now been removed. If any families would like any of the names reinstated, please contact the Parish Office via phone or e-mail. Parishioners are kindly asked to help us keep this list up-to-date by notifying the Office in timely fashion if any names need to be added or removed. Please pray that the Healing Hand of the Lord touches all our sick, bringing consolation to the aged, peace of soul to the terminally ill, and strength to those who are young and all those in our Parish and families who are suffering. May all of them know God's healing love. We pray for all the sick not listed and those in hospitals. Please contact the office to add/remove names.

PARISH YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

They died for the Eucharist. Would you? (Part II)

Many of our brothers and sisters, from our own day to the beginnings of the Church, have given their lives for Jesus hidden in the Host.

St. Pedro Maldonado' Last Communion, 1937

Be thankful for the privilege of receiving Communion. St. Pedro de Jesus Maldonado was a priest during the anti-Catholic rule of Mexican President Plutarco Calles. Fr. Pedro Maldonado was a great priest in Chihuahua during the anti-Catholic persecution, helping prepare children for their First Communion and serving the poor. On February 10, 1937 – Ash Wednesday – drunken men with guns came into his church, threatening to arrest him. The priest quickly grabbed the church's pyx of consecrated hosts before the thugs pushed him into the street. He was dragged by the hair to the region's political leader, Andres Rivera, who hit the priest so hard on the head with his pistol that he damaged his skull and eye. The gang began beating Fr. Pedro, but the priest held his pyx tightly – until a direct blow knocked it loose. The host spilled on the ground, and one of the thugs shoved them into the priest's mouth, sneering, "Eat This! Your last Communion." The priest did just that; and he stayed alive until the following day, when died in a hospital.

Chinese Girl Inspires World, 1900

Many of us do Holy Hours because of an anonymous Chinese Girl. The Boxer Rebellion in China sought to expel all Western influence from the country, including Catholicism. A parish priest told the tale of what happened when his church was attacked. A girl hid in the back when he was arrested, and she watched soldiers pull out the church's tabernacle, dropping 32 consecrated hosts onto the ground. That night, she sneaked into the church, spent time in silent adoration, and then bowed down to the ground and took one of the hosts onto her tongue. She did the same thing 32 nights in a row, until the hosts were all consumed. After she received the last one, she was caught by a soldier and beaten to death. Archbishop Fulton Sheen said that hearing her story convinced him to do a daily Holy Hour. Many people were inspired by Fulton Sheen's talk to do the same – including Bishop James Conley, in Lincoln, Nebraska, and (many, many others) me.

St. Nicholas Pick, Eucharistic Preacher, 1572

Would you defend the doctrine of the Real Presence if doing so would get you killed? In 1572, as Calvinist Protestantism rose in his native Holland, the Franciscan priest Fr. Nicholas Pick preached against the Protestant rejection of important ancient Christian doctrine. In particular, he defended the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, which he called an extension of the Incarnation into time. When his religious home was taken by Calvinists, attackers targeted Fr. Nicholas. They hanged him with the cord from his habit. When the cord broke, they put a burning torch to his head and mouth until he was dead.

St. Hermengild Refused to Worship Bread, 585

Catholics only recognize consecrated Hosts as the Body and Blood of Christ. This means not receiving communion at a non-Catholic church. And for one saint, that meant death. Visigoth King Leovigild had two sons, Hermengild and Recared. They were all Arians, who didn't believe in the Divinity of Jesus Christ. Hermengild married a Catholic, the daughter of France's King Sigebert, and her faith converted him. The prince's father was so enraged, he imprisoned his son to try to force his conversion. He sent an Arian bishop to administer communion to the prince, but the prince refused what St. Gregory later called "the Communion of a sacrilegious consecration". While any priest, even a priest who is in a state of sin, can consecrate the Eucharist, he is only successful if he intends to do what the Church does. His father had his son killed in his cell in punishment.

St. Tarcisus, Brave Altar Boy, 575

Last comes the patron saint of altar servers who defended the host with his life. Pope Benedict XVI told his story in the Vatican. Under the persecution of the Emperor Valerian, Christians had to meet in secret to celebrate Mass, and it became dangerous to take Communion to Christian prisoners who were plentiful. One day, the boy Tarcisus, an altar server, stood up and said: "Send me! My youth will be the best shield for the Eucharist." The priest allowed it saying, "Tarcisus, remember that a heavenly treasure has been entrusted to your weak hands. Avoid crowded streets and do not forget that holy things must never be thrown to dogs". "I would rather die than let go of them." said Tarcisus. Along his way, pagan kids from his neighbourhood saw him and invited him to play. When he refused, they grew suspicious. When they realized he was trying to keep something away from them, they tried to get it from him. The fierceness with which he guarded the Eucharist enraged them. They began kicking him and pummeling him with stones, but he didn't surrender. He died still clutching the Sacrament to his breast.

No Greater Love: A Biblical Walk Through Christ's Passion

Will You Follow Jesus to Calvary?

Filmed on location in the Holy Land, No Greater Love is a biblical pilgrimage that reveals Christ's amazing love for us. Best-selling author Edward Sri guides you through the last hours of Christ's life. You will walk step-by-step with Jesus from the garden of Gethsemane to Mount Calvary. Every step of the way, Old Testament prophecies, messianic expectations, biblical symbolism, and historical context shed light on the mystery of Christ's suffering and death. Experience a deeper understanding and appreciation of God's immeasurable and unconditional love for you—grow closer to Jesus than you ever have before.

Authored and presented by Edward Sri, No Greater Love also features Fr. Mike Schmitz, Jeff Cavins, Jennifer Fulwiler, Curtis Martin, Teresa Tomeo, Fr. Josh Johnson, and Elizabeth Sri.

The study is 5 weeks long. It will be held on Mondays at 6:15pm each evening.

Dates: February 19, 26; March 4, 11 & 18

Cost: $35 (include resources and weekly refreshment)

As soon as you have registered, please pay the $35 to the parish or using online transfer to the Church's Butterfieldbank Account: 02-101-031260.
