This Weekend's Readings

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

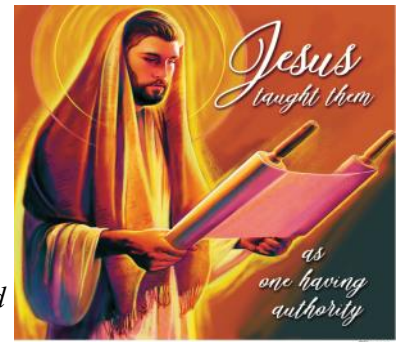

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 95:1-2, 6-7, 7-9

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

"The People who sit in darkness have seen a great light; on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death, light has risen." (Mark 1:15)

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME- THUNDERBOLTS AND LIGHTNING

One of the most difficult duties of a disciple is to follow the command of Jesus to spread the gospel to all nations. (Lk 24:47, Mk 116:15, Mt 28:19) I think one reason may be that we don't feel we have the authority to tell someone else what to believe. Most of us don't think we know the gospel well enough to preach it. Or we are so afraid of offending atheists, that we use that fear as an excuse to say nothing. But being a disciple means following Jesus. The gospel this Sunday mentions twice that Jesus taught with more authority than any of religious leaders of Israel. So how can we get such authority?

First, Jesus didn't get his authority from winning a Messiah election. And he didn't threaten people with thunderbolts and lightning. He certainly didn't impress people by saying what they wanted to hear. He spoke the truth that he heard from his Father. His two main actions in his ministry were curing and forgiving people. Since the Jews thought sickness was a punishment for sins, by curing the sick and forgiving sins, Jesus showed that God loves even sinners. And those actions showed that Jesus got authority from his Father.

"But you still haven't answered the question: How do we get that authority?" We get it from the Holy Spirit, in Baptism and Confirmation. And like an athlete, who may be born with strength and abilities, yet has to work-out and practice to be any good, we still need to grow in that authority. One way is to read the scriptures and pray with them, so that we get to know God through his Word and begin to listen to him in our prayers. We can consciously decide to see God in other people, not just those we love, but everyone, even the ones who annoy us. (And especially the ones who challenge us to be more loving, patient and forgiving.) Most parishes have programs that encourage sharing your faith, such as RCIA, Christ Renews his Parish, etc. And of course, the Eucharist and other sacraments strengthen God's life in us. You'll know you have that authority when you can talk about your faith with confidence instead of hesitation, because you will be speaking from experience, not second hand knowledge.

IMPORTANT UPDATE:

Please note that our prayer list for the sick was growing very lengthy, and some names have been on the list for a significant amount of time. As a result, any names that have been on the list for more than a year have now been removed. If any families would like any of the names reinstated, please contact the Parish Office via phone or e-mail. Parishioners are kindly asked to help us keep this list up-to-date by notifying the Office in timely fashion if any names need to be added or removed.

Please pray that the Healing Hand of the Lord touches all our sick, bringing consolation to the aged, peace of soul to the terminally ill, and strength to those who are young and all those in our Parish and families who are suffering. May all of them know God's healing love. We pray for all the sick not listed and those in hospitals. Please contact the office to add/remove names.

PARISH YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Prayer is response. But if I can't hear him?The one who has loved us into being wants to dialogue with us.

Where does prayer begin? Not in us. Prayer begins in God. "The living and true God tirelessly calls each person to that mysterious encounter known as prayer. In prayer, the faithful God's initiative of love always comes first; our own first step is always a response" (Catechism 2467).

The One who has loved us into being wants to dialogue with us. The One who created us continues that creative act of love through a gift of unceasing communication by which he woos us to deeper intimacy with him.

One outstanding contemporary master of prayer, Ruth Burrows (Carmelite Sister Rachel) has written: "Prayer is essentially what God does. And what God is doing for us is giving us the divine Self in love. Christian prayer is nothing other than being present to God so that God can give himself to us. The essence of prayer must always lie with God's Self-communication to us; our part is merely a response."

In this respect, all prayer is Eucharistic: It is a way of being given over to God so that God can give his very self to us. This is God's chief desire. And we thrive on this communion. Without such supernatural give-and-take, we begin to wither. Our life loses its lustre. As a friend of mine expresses it, every moment that I am not begging for the Infinite is in some way a moment of despair. That is how crucial the response to God known as prayer truly is.

We do well to heed the words of one of the most ancient spiritual treatises in the English language, The Cloud of Unknowing: "You must nourish in your heart the lively longing for God. This loving desire is certainly God's gift; it is up to you to nurture it." And we do so very simply. "I keep myself in the Lord's presence by simple attentiveness and a loving gaze upon God" (Brother Lawrence of the Resurrection).

Prayer is response. But if I can't hear him? (aleteia.org)

FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD - FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2

According to the Mosaic Law, the firstborn male child belonged to God, and the parents had to "buy him back" on the 40th day after his birth, by offering a sacrifice of "a pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons" (Luke 2:24) in the temple (thus the "presentation" of the child). On that same day, the mother would be ritually purified (thus the "purification"). Mary and Joseph in obedience to the Jewish Laws brought the Infant Jesus to the Temple and redeemed him, and Mary, although she remained a virgin after Christ's birth, submitted herself for the ritual purification as dictated in the Book of Leviticus. While in Jerusalem, they encountered Simeon, "a righteous and devout man, awaiting the consolation of Israel", (Luke 2:25). He took the Infant Jesus in his arms, blessed God and prayed the Canticle of Simeon: "Now Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." (Luke 2:29-32). Inspired by the words of the Canticle of Simeon ("a light to for revelation to the Gentiles"), the tradition of blessing candles on the Feast of the Presentation was thus established.

Parishioners are invited to bring candles from home to be blessed after the Friday 7:00 am Mass for use for devotional purpose. Examples: candles for the family altar, during communion services for the sick, and during storms and times of trouble, etc.

ST. BLAISE - THE BLESSING OF THROATS - SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3

The Feast of St. Blaise is associated with the custom of blessing throats. St. Blaise was the bishop of Sebaste in Armenia during the fourth century. Very little is known about his life, but the use of candles for the blessing of throats stems from the candles that St. Blaise used while in prison. After an old woman's pig had been miraculously rescued from a wolf by St. Blaise, she would visit him in prison, bringing him food and candles to bring him light in his dark cell.

The Blessing of Throats is a sacramental. The words of the blessing are:

"Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness;
in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

Blessing of throats will take place after the 8:30 am Mass this Saturday, February 3rd.
