February 18th, 2024 - 1st Sunday in LentThis Weekend's Readings*TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Exodus 20:1-17

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 11

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:22-25

Gospel: John 2:13-25

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life." (John 3:16)

He Understands Us Well

Jesus came to save. From what? From sin, yes. From death, yes. But he goes to the very root cause of those things in every word and action of his life – and the root is hypocrisy and egoism, which is pride. In order to restore and defend man's authentic relationship with God, Jesus must cleanse us from everything that gets in the way of that relationship, particularly whatever detracts from authentic faith and sincere worship. He came to save us from ourselves and our own contradictions.

The Temple officials directed their fellow Jews in the proper rituals, but had allowed the provision for that worship to gradually become adulterated with unholy practices. So when Jesus sees how the Temple has become a place of buying and selling, greed and worldly ambition (the businesses that provided proper sacrifices and the currency exchange making a lot of money for themselves), he cannot bear the hypocrisy that is detracting from true worship and sacrifice.

In his righteous anger, Jesus demonstrates uncharacteristic outrage. The very few times in the Gospel that we see Christ angry, it is to condemn hypocrisy. Hypocrites are holding themselves outside of the Kingdom, even as they claim to be at the pinnacle of it. We are all prone to this, due to the effects of Original Sin; by thinking of ourselves as exemplary citizens of God's Kingdom, we are subtly seeking to be rulers of our own kingdom.

We are created to be Temples of the Lord's Presence, but too often we allow lesser things to gradually occupy us and obscure the One Thing That Matters. Even if we are doing all the proper things on the outside, our hearts can become distracted and filled with lesser things.

Jesus understands us well. He knows the needs and desires and contradictions of our hearts and the many ways we fall as we try to walk in His ways. While our failures may surprise us, they do not surprise him. While we may forget we need to be saved and cannot save ourselves, he is ever our strong Savior, redeeming and refreshing and reminding us that we need to get up and look anew in the right direction.

And he delights to come to our aid! Lent is a time when we repent and ask the Lord to dust us off and clean our glasses so that we can see aright who we are and who He calls us to be, and adjust our course. We do not need to be perfect before we place all our confidence in Him – it is in placing all our confidence in Him that we grow in the way of perfection. He allows us to see our need so that we can entrust ourselves completely to His Heart, aching and beating and burning and pouring Himself out completely for love of us. This Lent, we can open ourselves anew to His Presence within us and entrust all our needs to Him.

Please note that our prayer list for the sick was growing very lengthy, and some names have been on the list for a significant amount of time. As a result, any names that have been on the list for more than a year have now been removed. If any families would like any of the names reinstated, please contact the Parish Office via phone or e-mail. Parishioners are kindly asked to help us keep this list up-to-date by notifying the Office in timely fashion if any names need to be added or removed.

Please pray that the Healing Hand of the Lord touches all our sick, bringing consolation to the aged, peace of soul to the terminally ill, and strength to those who are young and all those in our Parish and families who are suffering. May all of them know God's healing love. We pray for all the sick not listed and those in hospitals. Please contact the office to add/remove names.

PARISH YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Eucharistic REVIVAL

Three Ways to Live Lent in a Eucharistic way

Philip Kosloski

Lent is a time when we can not only focus on the Eucharist, but also live in a more Eucharistic way.

While the conclusion of Lent is clearly focused on the Eucharist, specifically the Last Supper and the institution of the sacrament, the entire season is also Eucharistic.

1. MAKING SACRIFICES

Lent is a season that is typically focused on sacrifices, in imitation of Jesus' own sacrifices and his supreme sacrifice on the cross. We can choose to embrace this spiritual dimension of Lent and to unite our personal sacrifices to Jesus.

2. ATTENDING MASS

Furthermore, whenever we think of sacrifices during Lent, we often associate Jesus' sacrifices with the Mass. Many people try to attend Mass more often during the penitential 40 days of Lent, attending daily Mass in addition to Sunday Mass.

3. LOVING OTHERS

Pope Benedict XVI offers another way to live a Eucharistic Lent in his 2007 message:

Let us live Lent, then, as a "Eucharistic" time in which, welcoming the love of Jesus, we learn to spread it around us with every word and deed. Contemplating "him whom they have pierced" moves us in this way to open our hearts to others, recognizing the wounds inflicted upon the dignity of the human person.

The Eucharist reminds us of Jesus' love for us, which in turn should motivate us to love others in a similar way. As we progress through the season of Lent, may we not forget these three ways to live Eucharistically.

LENTEN PRAYER

Almighty and Everlasting God,
You have given the human race
Jesus Christ our Savior as a model of humility.

He fulfilled Your Will by becoming Man
And giving His life on the Cross.
Help us to bear witness to You
By following His example of suffering
And make us worthy to share in His Resurrection.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
Your Son.

Amen.

The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away;
blessed be the name of the Lord.
Job 1:21

Our sweet angel Caleb was called to the heavenly arms of Jesus.
He is survived by his parents Joel Ganeshan and Sayuri Fonseka and an extended family of grand parents, aunts, uncles and cousins.

A memorial service will be held at St. Ignatius Catholic Church on Walkers Road on 9 March 2024 at 10 am.

Please sign the guest book at the entrance of the Church.
