"Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed;
let us then feast with joy in the Lord."

(1 Corinthians 5:7b-8a)

A Good Day to Die

Do you remember your own baptism? I wish I could; I was baptized as an infant, just a few days old. I envy the adults I have seen baptized at the Easter Vigil. Hopefully, they experience what St. Paul says in the epistle we hear at the Vigil. For Paul, Baptism is a sign of dying and rising to new life. Sounds like Easter to me. So when Jesus died, he rose from the dead. Is Paul telling us that we will rise from the dead, too?

Yes, but that is not his main point. If all we think about is our physical death, and hope we go to heaven afterwards, we're missing the point. The new life starts with our baptism, not just our physical death. That's why Paul says things like, "our old self was crucified" or "sinful body done away with...." (Rom 6:6) Baptism gives us a new life NOW. The water is both cleansing and a sign of dying (symbolic drowning) that help us see we are free from sin. We are dead to sin when we begin to live in Christ. The fictional Klingons have a saying "today is a good day to die" to express courage in battle. But real Christians might say that Easter is a good day to die: we have died to sin and begun a new life in Christ.

How do we experience this dying to sin? First, we identify the sinful areas of our life. Do I watch movies, video games, or TV shows that encourage promiscuity, lying, revenge, hatred or selfishness? What sins do I confess repeatedly and what can I do to avoid them?

Next we look for ways to act differently: Can I spend more time with friends/relatives who are examples of love? Can I spend less time entertaining myself and more time in prayer? Instead of complaining about what is wrong with the world, can I find ways to make it better? (If not the world, then my community or family.) These are a few of the ways we begin our new life in Christ.

*Diocesan.comCONGRATULATIONS TO THE NEW CONVERTS AND CONFIRMANDI!

PARISH YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Easter is the Feast of the Eucharist

Easter is a Eucharistic feast. It is THE Eucharistic feast. The Eucharist has no meaning apart from Easter, and Easter is only understood in the Eucharist.

One of the most important stories about the Resurrection of Christ is Luke's recollection of the events on the Road to Emmaus. It is also the most explicit passage in Scripture linking Easter with the Eucharist: "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread." We had hints about this on Holy Thursday, when the Eucharist was instituted as a new Passover celebration. In the mind of the Church, the Easter Triduum is one continuous liturgy that must be read backwards to ascertain its meaning. The fear and confusion of Holy Saturday have meaning only in Easter. The trial, scourging, and crucifixion of Jesus only have meaning in Easter. Likewise, the Last Supper has meaning only in Easter. Everything in the Christian life—every last detail of ritual, Scripture, ethics, faith, and tradition—finds its meaning in Easter, or not at all. History itself exists only for Easter! The Resurrection of Christ is what God had in mind from the beginning. In the words of St. Augustine, "The resurrection of Christ was God's supreme and wholly marvelous work." And it can only be comprehended, to the degree we can comprehend it at all, in light of the Eucharist.

Sometimes, we make the mistake of thinking that God's plan was the perfection of the Garden of Eden—walking with God, no sickness or death—and that we messed it up with sin, forcing God, in mercy, to devise an alternate plan, a plan of salvation. How wrong we are! "God has no second thoughts," the theologian Bernard Lonergan teaches us. Christ is the reason for creation from the start! Christ was not a Plan B! In other words, the Eucharist is the very reason for all of creation. It is THE perfect gift. Eden, despite how wonderful it was, lacked this gift and fell short of the fullness that God intended to offer. Although it was Paradise, although our first parents shared the life of God through sanctifying grace, God had something better still in mind. From all eternity, God had Christ in mind. God had Easter in mind. God had the Eucharist in mind.

In the Eucharist, we receive Christ; but Christ also receives us! Everything we are is received by Christ and transformed through the Paschal Mystery into a pure offering of love to the Father in the Spirit. All of our good works are received. All our prayers are received. All our brokenness is received. All our suffering is received. All of our sin is received. Nothing is left behind. As we carefully clean up every last crumb of Eucharistic bread and every last drop of the Precious Blood, recognizing even the smallest iota as the fullness of Christ, so too does Christ leave nothing of us behind. He receives us in our entirety, putting to death on the cross that which must die, and bringing us ever more fully into the new life of grace, life in the Spirit.

I am still failing to capture the power and majesty of all this! It is impossible to describe or fully comprehend! When we receive Christ in the Eucharist, we are fulfilling the deepest desires of Love itself. We are brought into union with our beloved God, who desires, even at the cost of suffering and death, to be united with His Beloved. Holy Communion is exactly that: it is the way in which we are swept up into the Divine Love, in communion with our God and with one another. United with Christ, we enter into the very heart of the Trinity. We enter into the Love Affair that is the Divine Life without end. We find the very meaning and fulfillment of our existence, and of existence itself. We were created for Communion! We are in Heaven when we are in Love!

If we think the Eucharist is a memorial meal, we are right. But it is more. If we think it is nourishment for the journey, we are right. But it is more. If we think it is Christ's presence among us for all time, we are right. But it is more. If we think it is Christ's way of dwelling in us and, through us, in the world, we are right. But it is still more. If we think it is Christ's way of working through us for the salvation of the world, we are right. But it is still more. If we think it is the sacrifice that washes us free from sin, we are right. But it is still even more. If we think it is the promise of eternal life, we are right. But it is still even more than that. The Eucharist is the consummation of God's love for humanity! It is our participation in the Easter Mystery! It is already our being swept up into the heart of the Trinity, where our every desire to love and to be loved is satisfied without being satiated! Like the burning bush, we are on fire with an ecstasy that does not burn out! We forget about ourselves and we fall, and keep falling, deeper and deeper into an infinite Heart that continues to give and receive Love, revealing mysteries of Its infinite Self to us without end; and with each beautiful revelation, a deeper falling into Love. We are caught up in the dynamism of Divine Romance. We can think of nothing except our Beloved, and time ceases to exist. We are in eternity. In Communion, Love has defeated death forever! Christ is Risen!

Happy Easter, Beloved of God!! Alleluia!! Alleluia!! Alleluia!!

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Easter Octave and Divine Mercy Sunday

THE EASTER OCTAVE

Easter Sunday – The First Sunday of Easter

Eastertime lasts fifty days: seven weeks of seven days (seven equals Biblical perfection) plus one day: perfection plus! Like an eight-day Jewish wedding, or a child who can't bear to let go of Christmas, birthdays, and school vacation, the Church celebrates the Easter Octave: "the marriage of heaven and earth," as the Vigil calls Jesus' resurrection; our new members' baptismal rebirth; our renewal of baptismal vows; our hearts' "divine vacation" (Latin vacare, "to be empty"), newfound time and space for love of God and neighbor. Make home an Easter garden! Adorn the dining table with a pillar candle (your "paschal candle"), a bowl full of water (ideally, from the parish's baptismal font), a vase of flowers or bowl of sprouting grain with Easter eggs. Even non-singers can handle the three-fold Gospel Alleluia! Let that be your grace before meals, perhaps with a prayer recalling Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35): "Be known to us, Risen Lord Jesus, as you were to the first disciples, in your word, in the breaking of bread, and in everyone we meet."

POPE FRANCIS' EASTER MESSAGE TO CATHOLICS IN THE HOLY LAND (Excerpt)

"Easter, the heart of our faith, is all the more significant for you who celebrate this feast in the very places where our Lord lived, died and rose again. The history of salvation, and indeed its geography, would not exist apart from the land in which you have dwelt for centuries. There you want to remain, and there it is good that you should remain. Thank you for your testimony of faith, thank you for the charity that exists among you, thank you for your ability to hope against all hope."

MEET OUR CONVERTS

Terrence Caudeiron

I had spent many hours at Mass in worship with my Catholic family and had known instinctively that something profound was taking place during the Mass. However, I did not understand the different parts of the Mass and what each part represented nor, most importantly, that each part was firmly grounded in the Bible. Then I attended a Bible study called "A Biblical Walk through the Mass" by Edward Sri. This study gave me a deeper understanding of the Mass and especially the Eucharist as the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord. The words "THIS IS MY BODY" (emphasis added) became my transformational moment and led me to OCIA.

Many thanks to Mr. O'Neil Miller for being so patient, kind and generous with our OCIA class and living his Christian faith, providing us with an example which we can emulate. These classes have been a really uplifting and educational experience. I would also like to thank my daughter and sponsor, Renée, for keeping me engaged in further learning, including my daily reflections, discussing matters of mutual interest, and attending Mass every week. I am excited about participating fully in the work of this faith community. I look forward with great anticipation and humility to my First Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil.

Mayte Hernandez Morell

My name is Mayte, and I am a wife and mother of two beautiful children. Since childhood, I have felt a lot of inclination towards the Catholic faith. I saw my maternal grandmother pray the rosary, and she told me about the greatness of G_d, our Lord and his son Jesus Christ and tried to teach me the prayers and rituals of the Catholic Church; that's how I learned my first prayers, "Our Father" and the "Hail Maria".

I was born in Cuba, where the government censored the Catholic religion and the profession of any faith; the simple fact of attending Mass on Sunday could cost anyone their job, which is why many people left the church. Children like me did not grow up with the religious education that their parents wanted to give them; however, in a very subtle way, my parents fed my faith and reinforced the idea of the existence of a superior being, which they called G_d!

In 1998, Pope John Paul II visited Cuba. It was the first time a supreme pontiff visited the island, and thanks to that, the relationship between the church and the government improved. At that time, I was a young teenager who, despite feeling faith and believing in Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church, had grown up with many fears towards the institution, which lasted with me until I left Cuba in 2010 and came to the Cayman Islands with my husband.

I have lived since then on this beautiful island; I fell in love with its people, beaches and sunsets, but more than anything, I discovered that it was a country where I could practice my faith, that of my parents and grandparents without fear. However, my faith continued to encounter challenges; I did not master the language, and I thought it was no longer possible to follow the path of the sacraments due to my age.

Then, I decided the same thing would not happen to my children. While baptizing my children and preparing them to receive Holy Communion, I discovered that I could, too, which made me very happy.

I'm receiving a Catholic formation at OCIA Saint Ignatius that brings me closer and closer to G_d our Lord and Jesus Christ, his son. I feel G_d's grace and multiple blessings when I look at my children and hold my husband's hand. I firmly believe that my life has been guided by the hand of Jesus Christ, our Lord, and I am grateful to him and to the Catholic Church that helps and welcomes me.

As I look to the future, I do so with hope and trust, knowing that whatever challenges may lie ahead, I walk this path not alone but hand in hand with the God who has called me by name. And so, with faith as my guide, I embrace each new day, ready to embrace the adventure that lies ahead.

Nyadradzo Mabika

I am Nyaradzo Mabika. I was born and raised as a non-Catholic. Growing up in a Christian household, I had always known Jesus as our Redeemer, but I had not intimately asked him into my heart. In my quest of improving my spirituality, I decided to join the 2023-2024 OCIA Class and that was the best decision I have ever made. I have since realised that everything I can ever search for on this earth is in Jesus. The OCIA Faith Formation journey has instilled in me a sense of belonging, self-control, spiritual growth as well as an in-depth understanding of the Roman Catholic Church. I am thereby earnestly waiting to partake in the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist on the Easter Vigil.

Agne Miller

I'm Agne Miller, originally from Lithuania. Though brought up in the Protestant faith, my teenage years found me attending Catholic church services from time to time, but I do not think that I have ever truly understood what it meant to have God in one's life. The journey of starting a family stirred a realization that something essential was missing in my life. This realization prompted a quest for God, not only for myself but also for my little ones, as we seek to establish strong values for life. I'm grateful for the warmth of this community and look forward to sharing and growing in faith together.

Shay Miller

My name is Shay Miller and I am thrilled to share a bit about my journey to Catholicism with you.

I grew up attending the St. Ignatius Catholic school from kindergarten right through to 6th form. Whilst Catholicism as a religion had been known to me all my life, I must admit that I was not drawn to it in my early years. It was not until the birth of my first child in 2021 that my wife and I began to get the feeling that our family needed to be grounded in God. We wanted to be not only in a relationship with God but also in a community which shared and practiced values and teachings which have stood the test of time. I knew not where to begin and at first felt a bit overwhelmed. With so many questions and no idea where to begin, I took to google to find out what the first step should be and came across the RCIA course. My next step was taking the plunge and reaching out to the Church office to see if it was in fact something which could be done here on Island. To my surprise, not only was it possible but the programme was led by none other than Mr. O'Neil Miller – my very first Religious Education teacher from my days attending St. Ignatius High School – talk about a blast from the past.

The RCIA has been a life altering experience. Each time we meet I come away thirsting to know more and I'm often left wondering how I hadn't seen what has been around me all this time. It's as if I'd been wandering around in the dark and someone has come along and turned on a light switch and now I am finally starting to see the beauty in everything as it already is. As time passes, my desire to know and do more in the faith is intensifying and that makes me excited about becoming a fully initiated and practicing Catholic.

Lenie Quiambao

My name is Lenie and I am from the Philippines. I'm a mother of four lovely children. I grew up believing that there is only one God and that there is no Trinity. I also believed there was no purgatory, and Jesus was only a man based on the teachings of the church I attended. When a friend invited me to attend a Catholic mass, I became interested because of the big difference between Catholic teachings and the teachings of the church I had attended in the Philippines. In September of last year I decided to join the OCIA class at Saint Ignatius to explore Catholic teachings and traditions. I found out its values of compassion, social justice, and human dignity. My decision to embrace Catholicism has enriched my life in ways I never imagined, and I remain grateful for the support of my new found spiritual community. Thank you to the Lord, and to the people who tirelessly supported us as new members of the Catholic Church. God bless us all.

Shennique Seales

Having been exposed to the Catholic faith since attending St. Ignatius from Kindergarten through Year 11, I actively engaged in religious studies and attended mass, although I was never formally baptized or confirmed I have always been drawn to Catholicism.

Later, after meeting my fiancé, Robert, I was reintroduced to the Catholic faith, and for many years strongly played with the idea of becoming Catholic. In 2023, we reached out to Mr. Miller to discuss baptizing our son, which led to an invitation to join the RCIA program. Through this program, I've deepened my understanding of the Church's catechism and faith. I eagerly anticipate receiving the sacraments of baptism and confirmation at the Easter Vigil, and I'm excited to continue nurturing my faith within the Catholic community.

Gareth Cleavy Scott

I was born and raised in a Protestant church and was taught Christian-based education in a Protestant school. I learned the Scriptures and felt that I have a truly sound foundation in Christianity. Until recently, I had been challenged and felt that something was missing from my faith. Then I see examples around me who seem to be leading hypocritical lives. Then I began to do some more research into my faith and going in deeper into the history of the Church. I have also looked into other examples in the faith who are Catholic friends. These same friends show a more Christ-like example and they invited me to mass. I accepted the invitation and I continue my research into the Catholic Church. Eventually, I believe that the Catholic faith is the genuine faith and I began to seek a way into the Catholic Church despite my strange work schedule.

After meeting with Mr. Miller and continue conversation with those same friends, I have found my way to get closer to the Church and continue to be faithful to her. Now I feel that I can continue my Christian journey with my life in the Catholic Church.

Susan (Sue) Wessels

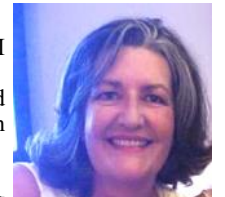

I am Sue Wessels, I am a South African and I have spent most of my adult life working as an OR Nurse around 30 years. I am currently working as a Relocation Coordinator where I assist people who are moving to the island.

I grew up going to the Anglican church and have spent much of my adult life avoiding going to church, it was not that I did not have faith, it was because I need the church to teach me how to be a better Christian and did not seem to find a church where this resonated with me.

I have been searching for wisdom for many years and have realized that wisdom is found in service and love.

I have been attending the Catholic Church in the Cayman Islands in the last year and found that I am learning and feeling supported in my faith. My sponsor suggested that if I would like to join the Catholic Church, she would sponsor me.

I am hoping that I am able to find a deeper relationship with Jesus and find a way to be a better person.

Brittany Wight

My name is Brittany Wight, and I am thrilled to introduce myself to you all. Originally from the beautiful province of New Brunswick, Canada, I now find myself residing in the serene shores of Grand Cayman alongside my loving husband Taylor, our dog Miller, and our soon-to-arrive baby boy.

I come to you with a heart full of joy and anticipation as I embark on a journey to convert to Catholicism. While I may be a newcomer to the faith, the influence of my husband and family has steadily introduced me to the profound beauty and depth of Catholic teachings and traditions. It is with great eagerness that I embrace this new chapter in my spiritual life, eagerly anticipating the blessings that lie ahead.

As I look forward to becoming a fully initiated and practicing Catholic, there are several aspects of the faith that resonate deeply with me. Firstly, the sense of community and fellowship within the Catholic Church is something that truly speaks to my soul. The opportunity to come together with fellow believers to worship, pray, and support one another on our journey of faith is a profound gift that I eagerly anticipate embracing.

Secondly, the sacraments hold a special significance for me. The sacraments serve as tangible expressions of God's grace and love, providing moments of profound encounter with the divine. I look forward to partaking in the sacraments, particularly the Eucharist, which holds the promise of spiritual nourishment and communion with Christ himself.

Lastly, I am drawn to the rich tradition of prayer and contemplation within the Catholic faith. The liturgical seasons, prayers, and devotions offer a framework for deepening my relationship with God and nurturing my spiritual growth. I eagerly anticipate immersing myself in the rhythms of Catholic prayer, finding solace and guidance in moments of quiet reflection and communion with the divine.

In closing, I am deeply grateful for the warm welcome and support of this parish community as I embark on this journey of faith. I am excited to walk alongside each of you, learning and growing together as we seek to live out the Gospel message in our lives.

LAUREN WILLIAMS

I was looking for something that was out of the ordinary in comparison to what I have been used to. I always hoped that there would be more to the Christian faith. Actually, entering the church was a miracle in itself. I was looking for more meaning to life and depth to the understanding of God, and something more than what the world had to offer. I was not ready to receive this grace, but I believe God is perfect in his plans and when he knocks, you just have to let him in and listen. After attending some masses, it was at my friend Aaron's baptism when I had a strong inclination to be up there with him and the others. I finally realized that I was in the right place! So, I signed up for OCIA to get ready for the sacrament of baptism! Lastly, thank you to my dear ones who have helped guide me and prayed for me so far in this journey. I am overjoyed and filled with great zeal to be coming home!

MEET OUR CONFIRMANDI

Sharra Bernardo

"I am truly blessed and proud to be part of the RCIA class. My heart is full of happiness that I finally converted to Catholicism and my faith has become stronger and helped me getting closer to God. My Journey has also shown me how to become a better person, how to be positive and to feel that God is always with me. I will never feel alone again. Mr. O'Neil contributed greatly towards experiencing and understanding the importance of Catholicism in our daily lives. Being Catholic, I am very excited to the next chapter in my life"

Monette de Luna

My name is Monette, I was born and baptized Catholic. My family are practicing Catholics. My primary, secondary and tertiary education were spent in Catholic schools. My upbringing, education and environment helped a lot with building my faith in Christ, however admittedly I still have a lot to learn and appreciate about the church and Catholicism. After moving to Cayman Islands from the Philippines, I was exposed to more people who are very centered in their faith. This gave me inspiration to proceed with receiving the sacrament of confirmation this year. I hope to become an inspiration to others as well that it is up to us to create the timing to strengthen our faith with God.

Fabricio Molinari de Miranda

"I, Fabricio, was raised in a religious family and having received the sacraments of Baptism and the Eucharist, I always embraced the teachings of the Church. My preparation to receive the sacrament of Confirmation and complete my initiation into the church has been a journey of enhancing my faith, deepening my connection to God and our community. I am excited for this opportunity to strengthen my faith, contribute to the vibrant tapestry of our parish, and continuing to grow in spiritual wisdom and love."

Diana Dilbert

My name is Diana Dilbert, I was born and raised in Lithuanian where I was baptized and had a first communion. Both of my grandmothers would take me to church with them, however one of them was an orthodox and the other Catholic. I attended a school where Ethic Lessons were a part of weekly curriculum, where we would study bible, so I grew up as a Catholic at heart.

During my twenties and early thirties I have not been actively participating in religious activities, and only when Alex and I decided to marry, we addressed the need of spiritual growth as individuals and as a couple. We attended a pre marriage course at St Ignatius Church, which was a big eye opener and the love and grace that we received from the community at church was a true blessing.

Now we continue our journey into deepening the understanding and relationship with God and the Church community through active participation in a Catholic Church.

Wilmer Gonzalez

My name is Wilmer Gonzalez, I am grateful to St. Ignatius Catholic Church OCIA class and my wife who have helped me so much in my spiritual and personal life. I am also grateful to Mr. Miller who have dedicated his time and patience with all of us. Big Thank you to Mr. Miller.

For the past months by going to this program I have learned so much about our Catholic faith and i am looking forward to continue to learn more and pray to God to give me the wisdom and understanding as I continue in this spiritual journey.

Karlo Sedano-Barredo

My name is Karlo. I am originally from Cuba but have lived in the Cayman Islands for 30 years. Even though people with the Catholic faith surrounded my childhood and adolescence, it was not until the age of 24 that I was baptized in Saint Ignatius Catholic Church. From that moment, I began to learn the rituals, traditions and teachings of the Catholic Church. However, a few months after starting my journey in faith, I moved to Spain to study medicine, and my desire for professional growth and my youth separated me from the path of Jesus Christ, our Lord. During that time, I obtained many recognitions as a student and then as a worker in the Healthcare industry, but I felt that something was missing from my life.

A few months ago, I met up with a friend from adolescence who has been a faithful devotee of the Catholic faith since childhood. We also share the same profession, and while talking to my friend, I told him that even though I lead a whole life, I have a beautiful family, I like my profession, and I enjoy being able to help people and provide solutions to their ailments and illnesses, I felt a void that I didn't know how to fill. When I expressed my feelings to my friend, he replied: "You lack G_d", and thus began a long conversation that has brought me back to the ways of the Lord.

Today, I am a member of OCIA at Saint Ignatius Catholic Church, where I remember how great and benevolent our Lord and his Son Jesus Christ were. I faithfully believe and love Jesus Christ, and I thank the Catholic Church for taking my hand and guiding me along the paths of G_d our Lord.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be prayed at 3:00 pm at St. Ignatius daily this week, in preparation for Divine Mercy Sunday on April 16th.

Jesus asked St. Faustina to pray the Chaplets of Mercy and told her that "On each day of the novena you will bring to My Heart a different group of souls and you will immerse them in this ocean of My mercy... On each day you will beg My Father, on the strength of My passion, for the graces for these souls. By this novena I will grant every possible grace to souls." (Diary 1209, 796)

Jesus also said to Sister Faustina: "Say unceasingly this chaplet that I have taught you. Whoever will recite it will receive great Mercy at the hour of death. Priests will recommend it to sinners as their last hope of salvation. Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this Chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My Infinite Mercy. I desire that the whole world know My Infinite Mercy. I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those who trust in My Mercy...." (Diary 687)
