April 21st, Fourth Sunday of EasterThis Weekend's Readings*TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 4:8-12

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 118:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-2

Gospel: John 10:11-18

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

"I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and mine know me. ."
(John 10:14)

The Rejected Savior

In the reading of Acts, Peter explains to the leaders of Israel how they cured a crippled man. They probably expected Peter to take credit for the cure, so they were waiting for him to hang himself by his words. Peter, of course, gives the credit to Jesus and then makes two important points.

First he calls Jesus the "stone you builders rejected, which has become the cornerstone." This quote from Psalm 118 was used often by the early Christians to show the Jesus was rejected by fellow Jews when he was crucified, but was actually doing God's will when he gave his life on the cross. Thus he became not just a martyr, but the savior of the world. This gave comfort to those who had expected the leaders of Israel to follow Jesus and recognize him as the Messiah. It also told those leaders that they could be forgiven for crucifying Jesus if they would simply repent.

The second point made by Peter was that Jesus is the one and only savior of the world. In those days, the Roman emperor was considered to be a god and was called a savior. Peter says this to the leaders because they had to obey the emperor and his appointed rulers over Israel. While we no longer look to politicians to be saviors, we need to remember that Jesus is the Savior: he forgives our sins, shows us how to love God and our neighbors, and hears our prayers. He lives in us to support us when the answer to our prayer is "no." And in the end, he is with us when we die to bring us to eternal life. When we love others (and are loved by others) we experience a taste of God's love. Now the Choice is yours: to reject the Savior or make Him the cornerstone of your life.

If any families would like any of the names reinstated, please contact the Parish Office via phone or e-mail. Parishioners are kindly asked to help us keep this list up-to-date by notifying the Office in timely fashion if any names need to be added or removed.

May all of them know God's healing love. We pray for all the sick not listed and those in hospitals.

Please contact the office to add/remove names.

PARISH YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Can the Eucharist help prevent us from committing future sin?

St. Thomas Aquinas explains that receiving the Eucharist can spiritually strengthen us, as long as we are open to God's grace.

There are many spiritual benefits from receiving the Eucharist on a regular basis, and one of those benefits is the strengthening of our soul, that we may more easily resist the allure of future sins. St. Thomas Aquinas explains this effect of the sacrament in his Summa Theologiae by first framing the objection.

It seems that man is not preserved by this sacrament from future sins. For there are many that receive this sacrament worthily, who afterwards fall into sin. Now this would not happen if this sacrament were to preserve them from future sins. Consequently, it is not an effect of this sacrament to preserve from future sins. This is a very rational argument, as we experience this ourselves whenever we receive Holy Communion and then continue on our life of sin.

However, St. Thomas Aquinas explains why we this reality shouldn't distract us from the reality of God's grace given to us. [T]his sacrament preserves man from sin ... For, first of all, by uniting man with Christ through grace, it strengthens his spiritual life, as spiritual food and spiritual medicine, according to Psalm 103:5: "(That) bread strengthens [Vulgate: 'may strengthen'] man's heart." Augustine likewise says (Tract. xxvi in Joan.): "Approach without fear; it is bread, not poison." Secondly, inasmuch as it is a sign of Christ's Passion, whereby the devils are conquered, it repels all the assaults of demons. Hence Chrysostom says (Hom. xlvi in Joan.): "Like lions breathing forth fire, thus do we depart from that table, being made terrible to the devil."

At the same time, the key to preventing future sins is contingent on the person's openness to God's grace.

The effect of this sacrament is received according to man's condition: such is the case with every active cause in that its effect is received in matter according to the condition of the matter. But such is the condition of man on earth that his free-will can be bent to good or evil. Hence, although this sacrament of itself has the power of preserving from sin, yet it does not take away from man the possibility of sinning.

If we receive the Eucharist in a state of sin, closed-off from God's grace, then we will likely continue sinning for the foreseeable future.

However, if we are open and receive God's grace with our whole heart, God will help us in our time of need, protecting us from future temptations.

Pray for our 1st Communicants and their families!

PUNCTUALITY TO MASS

"Get to Mass early — not late — because it is during the introductory rites that we begin to adore God in community and to prepare the heart for this celebration with the community." -

Pope Francis

We encourage all Parishioners to arrive early, in plenty of time before Mass starts. Many times we see the same persons coming in late, week after week. This is disrespectful to the Priest, your fellow parishioners, and most of all... The Lord! We understand that sometimes unforeseen delays may occur, but not every week! Please set a goal to arrive several minutes before the Mass begins so that you can give prayerful attention. If you do genuinely arrive late, please enter through the main entrance only, so as not to distract others. Please wait at the back until the prayers or readings are completed before quietly moving to a seat. Also, at the end of Mass there are some who leave early. Remember that Mass is not over until the final hymn is completed. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.
