This Weekend's Readings

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 98:1, 2-3, 3-4

Second Reading: 1 John 4:7-10

Gospel: John 15:9-17

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

"Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him."
(John 14:23)

Who Needs Love?

Part of the first reading from Acts that we don't hear is a vision Peter has, in which God tells him that all foods are OK to eat; no longer are some unclean. He later realizes that the vision was a symbol that all people are "clean," Gentiles as well as Jews. All are called to have faith in Jesus. Not all of the early Christians understood. The Jewish Christians were shocked that the Holy Spirit would give gifts, such as speaking in tongues, to Gentiles. Especially Gentiles who had not been baptized.

Now the distinction between Gentile and Jewish Christians doesn't seem very important today. But we still need to follow St. Peter's example of sharing our faith in Jesus. We seem to be more interested in converting other Christians than in bringing non-Christians to the faith. Does that mean we should drag any non-believers we meet to church on Sunday? Should we brag about how much we love God?

Today's gospel gives us a hint at what we can do to bring others to Christ. Jesus makes it sound simple: Love one another as I love you. (Jn 15:12) Remember that God's love for us comes first. That's why the Gentiles in the first reading received the gifts of the Spirit before they were baptized. The second reading from John tells us that love is not people loving God; it's that God loved us first, enough to send his Son to die for us. We may think that we have chosen to love and follow Jesus, but as the gospel tells us, Jesus chose us before we ever chose him. So maybe that part about loving others as Jesus loves us is not so much about being willing to die for those you love. It may just be our willingness to love others without requiring that they love us first.

How can we do that? I can introduce myself to someone new to the parish that I see in church. I can offer to help the poor without waiting for the pastor to beg. I can be courteous to other drivers, letting them go in front of me in heavy traffic. I can make a priority of seeing what I can do for others, instead of what they can do for me. Perhaps part of our daily prayer can be asking God to show us who needs our love today.

PARISH YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Why St. Gerard spent hours in Eucharistic Adoration

St. Gerard Majella took every opportunity to spend hours in front of the Blessed Sacrament in silent adoration.

While many are familiar with St. Gerard Majella his heavenly intercession for pregnant mothers, few are aware of his deep devotion to the Holy Eucharist during his life.

According to the early-20th-century biography The Life of Saint Gerard Majella, he would take every opportunity he had to spend time before Jesus in the Eucharist.

Father Margatto said Mass every day in the Church of the Oratorian Fathers. After Mass Gerard used to spend the whole morning hidden away in a corner, generally stretched as though lifeless on the pavement. He also visited with great assiduity any church in which the Blessed Sacrament was exposed for the Forty Hours Adoration.

He did this because of his great love of Jesus, knowing that he was truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.

For this reason, St. Gerard is great patron of the Eucharistic adoration and we can pray for his intercession, asking God to increase in us a similar love and devotion.

St. Gerard true lover of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar, do thou who didst kneel long hours before the Tabernacle, and there didst taste the joys of Paradise, obtain for us we pray thee, the spirit of prayer and an undying love for this Most Holy Sacrament, that receiving frequently the Body and Blood of Jesus, we may grow daily in His holy love and merit the priceless grace of loving Him even to the end.

ANNIVERSARIES OF PRIESTLY ORDINATION

We extend our best wishes to Fr. Anthony and Fr. Naveen who are celebrating anniversaries of Ordination to the Sacred Priesthood.

Fr. Anthony celebrated his 11th Anniversary of Ordination on April 24th.

Fr. Naveen celebrates his 13th Anniversary of Ordination on May 05.

Thank you Fathers for your selfless vocation to the priesthood.

Prayer for Peace in the Middle East

Lord God, we turn to you in these trying hours when conflict is a daily reality for our sisters and brothers in Israel and Palestine. We promise you to work to our utmost for peace and reconciliation in the region. But we know we cannot do it alone. We very much need the strength of your presence in our midst if we are to overcome the obstacles before us. So our prayer at this moment is that you add your support to our efforts, that you show yourself as a tower of strength in those moments when the barriers seem impassable. Together we can become beacons of hope for just and peaceful societies in the land so very dear to the peoples of your covenant.
Amen.

MAY, THE MONTH OF MARY... PRAY THE ROSARY

May is the month of Mary, our Blessed Mother.

This devotion to Mary arose among Jesuits in Rome in the late 18th century and quickly spread throughout the Western Church. By the time of Pope Pius IX's declaration of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception in 1854, it had become universal.

May crownings and other special May events in honour of Mary, such as public recitation of the rosary, stem from this time. During the month of May, remember to pray the Rosary every day.

Sundays: 7:20 am

10:50 am

5:20 pm
