June 23rd, 2024 - 12th Sunday in Ordinary TimeThis Weekend's Readings*TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Job 38:1, 8-11

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 107:23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

"A great prophet has risen in our midst, God has visited his people." (Luke 7:16)

Giving Thanks to Our Loving God

It is so easy to complain when things don't go our way. We don't understand why certain situations have to be so hard or why family members have to suffer. We get down about things like the weather, the outcome of a sporting event or the food we ordered being cooked incorrectly. If anyone ever had anything to complain about it was certainly Job, but in today's first reading God called him out on it rather strongly.

God himself teaches us with this passage just how much he dislikes complaining. Because, if we think about it, do we really have anything to be unhappy about? Our Psalm proclaims: "Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting." And that sums it up right there. Period. There is not much else to say. We have the love of God, what more do we need? Thanks be to God!

Our second reading only confirms this thought. "The love of Christ impels us... whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come." Everything on this earth will pass away. Every possession, every created thing, every person and every moment of suffering will all pass away. Even the second that you took to read this line has already passed, never to return. Yet no part of this rather stark reality should cause us fear, because we are a new creation in Christ and his love impels us forward. In today's Gospel, the disciples fell into fear, and Jesus reminded them of his great power and love by calming the storm with just three words: "Quiet! Be Still!" When we call on him in faith, he can calm our storms as well. No matter how strong the winds or how tall the waves, Jesus can help us both physically and spiritually. And just like the disciples, we are once again filled with awe.

So whenever life's many trials and tribulations get you down, remember that complaining won't get you anywhere. Instead, lift your heart and mind to our all-powerful God and give thanks to him, whose love is everlasting.

*Diocesan.comTHANK YOU BISHOP MONFORTON

PARISH YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

EUCHRIST AND REMEMBRANCE: AS IF WE HAD LIVED THROUGH IT

It took a sci-fi writer, Philip K. Dick, to perfectly summarize where we are when we are within the Mass.

There are some people living in Sharpsburg, Maryland, who “can tell you everything about the battle as if it happened to them,” says a resident. He was referring to the descendants of those who —eight generations previously, in 1862 this month — were swept up in the great Battle of Antietam Creek (or the Battle of Sharpsburg as Southerners called it). It’s been called “a gash in history that is still healing.”

As if it happened to them — an arresting phrase, that. The memory of events long removed from personal experience that become indelible, a living and seemingly personal memory that persists as people tell and retell it.

According to the town website, Sharpsburg is 702 people; not any larger than it was in 1862. Anybody growing up there would have heard the stories passed along. Those tales would in some degree become like real memories.

I had the same fierce experience with a tour guide while on a walking tour of Charleston, South Carolina. Charleston isn’t merely a historic city; in our guide’s telling, Charleston is history.

Our guide tied her story of Charleston’s story to “us,” “we,” and “ours,” linking herself to events that happened a century or two or three before. The history of her Charleston wasn’t something that happened to somebody else some other time. It was “our” history she recited as we walked; “my” memory of “Charleston natives” (Palmetto bugs, if you must know) and boiled peanuts and the earthquake of 1886. Charleston’s history was, like the man said, as if it had happened to her. Our little tour guide, hardly in her mid-twenties, lived all that history.

This description is more than a variety of remembering. I think it is more like the Greek word anamnesis (literally, “against forgetting”), where the telling of a past event makes it present now.

Philip K. Dick was a science fiction writer who died in 1982. He was a relentlessly idiosyncratic novelist and an Episcopalian Christian. He not infrequently used Christian imagery and Christian themes. For his science fiction, forget the Buck Rogers-style space ships and bug-eyed aliens. His stories looked at the interior soul coping with exterior stresses. He chose themes of paranoia, political repression, the decay of society, and the plastic, tenuous nature of reality. For Dick, human living was a life of loss, fear, regret — yet all that was strangely intermingled with the hope there is a deeper reality behind or above or under or within the reality we experience; and it is something we once knew.

There was a Truth that was true, but it was almost always shrouded, somehow just beyond reach. His characters possessed the visionary sense of being in touch with some vast, benevolent reality. They were reaching for it, and it was calling to them.

In his implausibly titled novel Radio Free Albemuth, published after his death, he has a dead-on portrayal of Christian memory:

“Anamnesis, it was called: abolishment of amnesia, the block that keeps us from remembering. We all have that block. There’s a Christian anamnesis, too: memory of Christ, of the Last Supper and the Crucifixion. In Christian anamnesis those events are remembered in the same way, as a real memory. It’s the sacred inner miracle of Christian worship; it’s what the bread and wine cause. ‘Do this in remembrance of me,’ and you do it, and you remember Jesus all at once. As if you had known him but had forgotten. The bread and wine, partaking of them brings it back.”

I have hardly ever found a better liturgical description of what is going on in the Eucharist. The Lord’s Last Supper becomes “a real memory” for us, a real event we live through and remember as vividly as yesterday. It isn’t something Jesus did with his disciples in Jerusalem once upon a time. It is something he does with us, his disciples in these times.

We join him in the upper room. It is we to whom he speaks when he says he has longed to eat this Passover with us. He speaks to us when he says one of us will betray him, and it is to us he says he will not drink again from the cup until he drinks it anew in the kingdom, ushered in for us. We hear the whole story, beginning to end, and it unexpectedly becomes our story, as if it had happened to us. It sneaks up on us but we find it is we, ourselves, now who are under discussion. No wonder we remember it so clearly.

And suddenly I remember another phrase. Maybe it’s from the 1960s macrobiotic whole food diet thing, or the earlier catabolic diet craze, or maybe it was Grandma who said it first: “Remember, you are what you eat.”

MASS ATTIRE

Sacred Scripture — in Psalm 29, Psalm 96, and 1 Chronicles — calls us to “worship the Lord in holy attire and splendid in holiness”, and all parishioners are asked to reflect on the way that we dress as we prepare to attend Mass.

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

What is Peter's Pence?

It is an offering that may be small, but is of great symbolic value:

It expresses the sense of belonging to the Church and love and trust for the Holy Father. It is a tangible sign of communion with Him, as Peter's Successor, and also of attention to the needs of the most disadvantaged, for whom the Pope always cares.

The Aims of Peter's Pence

- To support the Holy Father's mission, which extends throughout the entire world, from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human development, education, peace, and brotherhood among peoples: thanks also to the many activities of service carried out by the dicasteries, bodies and organs of the Holy See who assist him every day.
- To support the numerous charitable works in aid of people and families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters and wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development.

The Collection will be taken up next weekend, June 29/30 at all Masses.

PLEASE KEEP OUR CHURCH TIDY!

Thank you for helping to keep our church tidy! Please take a moment after Mass to ensure that all hymnbooks and United in Christ Missals are neatly placed in the racks so that the church is ready for the next Mass.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please notify the Parish Office of any births, deaths, weddings, milestone anniversaries, or baptisms.

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM HURRICANES

Father, all the elements of nature obey your command. Calm the storms and hurricanes that threaten us and turn our fear of your power into praise of your goodness. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

BAPTISMS

Baptisms will now be scheduled on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month.

Parents and Godparents MUST do the online course AND attend the Pre-Baptismal classes prior to the Baptism.

The next Baptisms are on June 23 after the 11:30 am Masses.

Baptisms normally take place on the second and fourth Sundays of each month after the 11:30 am Mass.

Contact the Parish Office well in advance for full details, to sign up for classes, and to book a date for the Baptism.

Dates will only be confirmed after all documents are submitted.

PARKING SAFETY

CONFESSIONS

SATURDAYS - 5:00-5:45 pm at St. Ignatius

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

According to Saint Matthew, one night while the disciples were in Peter's boat, Jesus came toward them walking on the sea. They were scared, believing that he was the ghost of some fisherman, but he calmed them down by saying, "Cheer up! It's me; Do not be afraid." It must have been shocking to see the Lord walk on the waters, especially at a time when the waters were considered chaos.

In various parts of Latin America, the faithful celebrate different saints with boat processions on rivers or seas. In the Port of Paita, Peru, Saints Peter and Paul are carried in a water procession. Saint Peter, who was a fisherman, is at home on the boat, since normally it is fishermen's boats that form the procession. This procession recognizes the chaos of the sea by recognizing the fishermen, who during the year lost their lives at sea, with garlands thrown into the bay. But, this procession is not due to a fear of the sea. It is a festival in honor of two servants of the one who walks on the waters, dominating the sea.

PRAYER FOR LIFE

Lord Jesus Christ,
You are the Author of Life,
Who died and now lives forevermore.
May we who work and pray
That children in the womb may be protected
Always draw strength, confidence, and joy
From Your victory over death,
For you are Lord forever and ever. Amen.

TITLES OF MARY June 27: MOTHER OF PERPETUAL HELP

This image of Mary seems to tell a story: Jesus has run (see that one of his sandals is dangling from his foot) to Mary for protection from the vision of the angels holding symbols of his passion. As Mary comforted him then, so she looks out to us now to help us in our times of need.

A GRADUATION PRAYER

Heavenly Father,

I have knowledge, so will You show me now,
How to use it wisely and find a way somehow
To make the world I live in a little better place,
And make life with its problems a little bit easier to face.

Grant me faith and courage and put purpose in my days,

And show me how to serve You in effective ways.

So my education, my knowledge and my skill
May find their true fulfilment as I learn to do Your will.

And may I ever be aware in everything I do,
That knowledge comes from learning, and wisdom comes from You.
Amen.

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

ST. IGNATIUS/DOROTHY RICE SCHOLARSHIP FUND — FINISHING OUR 27TH YEAR ASSISTING FAMILIES WITH SCHOOL TUITION! Give the gift of EDUCATION!

The St. Ignatius/Dorothy Rice Memorial Scholarship Fund assists families who are not able to afford the full tuition at St. Ignatius School. Each year we help to keep children in our school who otherwise couldn't afford a Catholic Education.

The average child in this programme receives about $200-$300 per month off the fees, paid by the scholarship fund (directly to the school bursar), while the child's family pays the rest.

In return for the help, the families actively contribute to the school and parish in a variety of ways (helping out with fundraisers, chaperoning school trips, cleaning the grounds, assisting at sports days, serving on committees, etc.). Please consider the Scholarship Fund from time to time when doing your charitable work throughout the year! Many thanks to all those who have contributed to the fund during recent months and during the past several years!

For further information, please contact Fr. Naveen at the Parish Office.

THE ST. IGNATIUS FOOD PANTRY

There are many different ways that Parishioners may help!

1. Donations of non-perishable food items or toiletries are welcome!
2. Supermarket gift cards are welcome (Foster's, Kirk Market, Hurley's, Cost-U-Less)!
3. Plastic and/or reusable shopping bags are always much appreciated!
4. If you prefer to make monetary donations our volunteers can purchase items needed!

Food Pantry donations may be brought to the PARISH OFFICE or dropped off after weekend Masses. Please ensure that items have at least six months left before expiry date!

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink." - Matthew 25:35

Together, as a community, let us continue making a difference in the lives of others!

Items Needed!

- Canned Milk
- Cooking Oil (24 oz)
- Corned Beef
- Spaghetti
- Canned Soup
- Shampoo
- Coconut Milk
- Bar Soap
- Ramen Noodles

When donating items, please bring smaller sizes (bottles, cans, packs) whenever possible! This gives us much more flexibility when distributing the items to individuals or families. For example, 6 small bags of Rice is much better than 1 large one! Thank you!

PLEASE SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS!!!
