SECOND COLLECTION - STELLA MARIS CAYMAN BRAC

Next weekend, November 23 & 24, at all Masses we will have our monthly second collection. The collection is for our sister Church, Stella Maris, in Cayman Brac. Thank you for your generosity.

PARISH RETREAT WITH FR. JOSEPH EDATTU

The Parish will be hosting a retreat led by Fr. Joseph Edattu, from November 21 - 24, 2024 at the St. Ignatius Church. Fr. Joseph is the Director of the Divine Retreat Centre in the UK and we are grateful to him for accepting a request to minister in our community. See the schedule on page 10 of today's bulletin.

ALL SOULS MONTH - MEMORIAL COLLAGE OF LOVED ONES

Parishioners are invited to add a picture of their loved ones who have died to our Memorial Collage that is on display for the month of November. Remember to also add the names of your loved ones to the Book of Life that will be opened next to the display.

YOUTH ALPHA

Youth Alpha continues next Friday, November 22 from 7-9pm in the Msgr. Meaney Sports Hall.

FAITH FORMATION

Faith Formation Classes continue next week Sunday, November 24 at the regular times.

CHRIST THE REDEEMER CHURCH - FACILITIES UPGRADE

We are replacing all the windows at Christ the Redeemer Church in West Bay which is projected to be a very costly undertaking for the Parish. We are asking Parishioners to prayerfully consider donating to the cost of the windows. An individual, a family or a group of friends can come together to donate the cost of one of the 14 smaller winders or one of the 6 larger windows. Donors will be recognized with a plaque next to the window you donate. See 9 for more information.

CHRISTMAS FUNDRAISER

We have 5 weeks to go! Reminder to collect your Christmas Fundraiser tickets books after Mass from one of the team members under the Cabana. Thank you so much for your assistance and support.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION NOVENA & MASSES

Our Annual Novena to the Immaculate Conception this year will be nightly at 7pm from November 30 to December 08. This year we are blessed to have Sr. Joseph Andrew, OP, give a talk each night from December 05 to 07. The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception this year will be celebrated on December 09. At St. Ignatius, we will have two Masses at 7am and 6pm.

Wishing you all a wonderful week. - Fr. Naveen

STEWARDSHIP: TIME TALENT TREASURE

IMPORTANT UPDATE:

Please note that our prayer list for the sick was growing very lengthy, and some names have been on the list for a significant amount of time. As a result, any names that have been on the list for more than a year have now been removed. If any families would like any of the names reinstated, please contact the Parish Office via phone or e-mail. Parishioners are kindly asked to help us keep this list up-to-date by notifying the Office in timely fashion if any names need to be added or removed.

Please pray that the Healing Hand of the Lord touches all our sick, bringing consolation to the aged, peace of soul to the terminally ill, and strength to those who are young and all those in our Parish and families who are suffering. May all of them know God's healing love. We pray for all the sick not listed and those in hospitals.

Please contact the office to add/remove names.

MASS ATTIRE

Sacred Scripture — in Psalm 29, Psalm 96, and 1 Chronicles — calls us to “worship the Lord in holy attire and splendid in holiness”, and all parishioners are asked to reflect on the way that we dress as we prepare to attend Mass.

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

What is the Apostolic Pardon and Why is it Important?

Reserved for those on their deathbed, the Apostolic Pardon is a true gift of grace for the dying.

As a person draws closer to the doors of death, there is one blessing in particular that the Church reserves for this most sacred moment: the Apostolic Pardon. It is a pardon that can be given by any priest and has the special power of removing all temporal punishment due to sin.

The Catholic Encyclopedia explains exactly what the Apostolic Pardon is and the requirements to perform it.

"The anointing [of the sick] is ordinarily succeeded by the conferring of the Apostolic benediction, or 'last blessing,' as it is commonly called. To this blessing a plenary indulgence is attached, to be gained, however, only at the hour of death, i.e. it is given nunc pro tunc. It is conferred in virtue of a special faculty granted to the bishops and by them delegated quite generally to their priests. The conditions requisite for gaining it are the invocation of the Holy Name of Jesus at least mentally, acts of resignation by which the dying person professes his willingness to accept all his sufferings in reparation for his sins and submits himself entirely to the will of God.... The words of St. Augustine are in point: 'However innocent your life may have been, no Christian ought to venture to die in any other state than that of the penitent.'"

The Apostolic Pardon is typically preceded by the Sacrament of Confession, to the extent that the dying person is able to participate in the sacrament. The priest then prays the "last blessing."

Through the holy mysteries of our redemption, may almighty God release you from all punishments in this life and in the life to come.

*May he open to you the gates of paradise and welcome you to everlasting joy.
R. Amen.*

It was traditionally prayed in years past, adding some additional context and noting where this prayer comes from in the Bible:

May our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave to His blessed apostle Peter the power of binding and loosing, mercifully accept your confession and restore your baptismal innocence. And I, by the power given to me by the Holy See, grant you a plenary indulgence and remission of all sins; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

By the sacred mysteries of mankind's restoration may almighty God remit for you the punishment of the present life and of the life to come, and may He open to you the gates of Paradise and admit you to everlasting happiness.

It is a beautiful prayer and is meant to speed the penitent soul to the gates of Heaven, removing the punishment due to sin that they have already confessed, or at the very least, have fully repented from in their hearts. It does not guarantee someone will go straight to Heaven, but it clears everything off the road, so to speak, so that the soul can freely choose to run toward the arms of Jesus.

The prayer is a supreme act of mercy and has great power, drawing on the authority given to Saint Peter to "bind and loose" (Matthew 16:19). It is a gift to a soul on their deathbed and has the added benefit of giving peace to family and friends, assuring them that they have done all they could do to bring a soul closer to the gates of Paradise.

LEARN MORE

The Apostolic Pardon is generally given with the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. In part, the Catechism of the Catholic Church says this about the sacrament of Anointing.

1511 The Church believes and confesses that among the seven sacraments there is one especially intended to strengthen those who are being tried by illness, the Anointing of the Sick:

This sacred anointing of the sick was instituted by Christ our Lord as a true and proper sacrament of the New Testament. It is alluded to indeed by Mark, but is recommended to the faithful and promulgated by James the apostle and brother of the Lord.

1512 From ancient times in the liturgical traditions of both East and West, we have testimonies to the practice of anointings of the sick with blessed oil. Over the centuries the Anointing of the Sick was conferred more and more exclusively on those at the point of death. Because of this it received the name "Extreme Unction." Notwithstanding this evolution the liturgy has never failed to beg the Lord that the sick person may recover his health if it would be conducive to his salvation.

1514 The Anointing of the Sick "is not a sacrament for those only who are at the point of death. Hence, as soon as anyone of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived."

1515 If a sick person who received this anointing recovers his health, he can in the case of another grave illness receive this sacrament again. If during the same illness the person's condition becomes more serious, the sacrament may be repeated. It is fitting to receive the Anointing of the Sick just prior to a serious operation. The same holds for the elderly whose frailty becomes more pronounced.

Building Upgrade

Sponsors for New Hurricane Proof Windows

Following a series of consultations, it has been agreed that all the windows at Christ the Redeemer Church must be replaced with modern, hurricane proof windows. This much needed upgrade will come at a premium cost to all of us. The project must be completed as soon as possible.

Parishioners are asked to prayerfully consider donating to the upgrading project.

Sponsorship is being sought for the following:

- 6 large windows - $3,950 (CI) each
- 14 smaller windows - $1,595 (CI) each

All sponsors will be recognized with a plaque placed by the window you have sponsored.

Contact the Parish office if you would love to sponsor a window in your family's name or in memory of a loved one.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Holy Time Warp!

This week is the last we will hear from the letter to the Hebrews. It makes the point that when Jesus allowed himself to be crucified, he was actually being a priest, offering himself for the sins of the world. Jesus replaces the high priests of Israel, whose offerings had no power to forgive sins. After giving his life for us, he takes his place as God's equal. He is now the eternal Priest, so all clergy since the time of Jesus are visible signs of that priesthood.

When we celebrate the Eucharist, Jesus' sacrifice is there: The bread that is his Body is broken; the wine that is his Blood is poured out. We are present at his death and resurrection, without needing a flux capacitor or a time warp. Instead of taking us back in time, he brings his saving death and resurrection to us now. His sacrifice is an eternal one, redeeming all past and future sins. So if you have come back to church after being absent for years, you don't have to hide behind the hymnal. If you have sins weighing on your conscience, God has already offered you forgiveness. He knows all our weaknesses and lets us learn from our mistakes.

The Eucharist also reminds us that Jesus is present in glory, with us always, sharing his priesthood with all the baptized. We too are called to forgive, starting with ourselves. We can show God's mercy by forgiving each other. Since Jesus lives in us, we offer our lives as sacrifice for sins, as St. Paul said, "I fill up in my flesh what is still lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions." (Col 1:24) Does that mean we are supposed to seek ways to suffer? No, it means the suffering we cannot avoid can become our offering to God, a way to take up our cross as Jesus did, and a way to experience God's power in our weakness.

At the Eucharist, we pray with the priest, "that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God..." All the sacrifices we make, from accepting serious illness, to giving up something for Lent, are ways we take part in the priesthood of Christ.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This week might be a good time to stock our spiritual cupboard along with our kitchen cupboard in preparation for our celebration of Thanksgiving. Before there was a Thanksgiving Day, even before there were Pilgrims, the Roman Catholic Church celebrated Ember Days ("change-of-season days") as periods of thanksgiving for seasonal harvests. This means it is a customary Catholic way to give thanks to God through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. In the 1969 reformed calendar it was left up to the national conferences of bishops to set dates for

Ember Days. (The ones on the old calendar fit a Mediterranean climate, and on the new calendar it was imagined that each nation knew best when to schedule such seasonally oriented days.)

The United States bishops have not yet resurrected Ember Days, Rogations Days, and other national days of prayer. However, tucked within Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers (a book published by the U. S. bishops) is a chapter on Ember Days that proposes, among others, the three days before Thanksgiving as days of prayer, charity, and fasting. Why wait for an official proclamation? Why not undertake to observe those three days in that way in your parish, or even in your family? What could be more natural at this time of year?

OCIA is for adults who:

- Are interested in learning about the Catholic Faith
- Have never been baptized
- Have been baptized in another Christian faith and are interested in the Catholic Faith
- Are baptized Catholics who have not yet received the Sacraments of First Communion or Confirmation
- Are married to a Catholic and attend Mass and would like to take the next step to become a member of the Catholic Church
- Are Catholic but want to learn more about their Faith

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory." (Mark 13:26)

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie.

When this happens and God asks each of us, "What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?" How will you respond? The good news – it's never too late to start living a grateful and generous lifestyle.

PRAYER FOR LIFE

Lord Jesus Christ,
You are the Author of Life,
Who died and now lives forevermore
May we who work and pray
That children in the womb may be protected
Always draw strength, confidence, and joy
From Your victory over death,
For you are Lord forever and ever.
Amen.

BAPTISMS

Baptisms will now be scheduled on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month.

Parents and Godparents MUST do the online course AND attend the Pre-Baptismal classes prior to the Baptism. The next Baptisms are on November 24, after the 11:30 am Mass.

Baptisms normally take place on the second and fourth Sundays of each month after the 11:30 am Mass.

Contact the Parish Office well in advance for full details, to sign up for classes, and to book a date for the Baptism.

Dates will only be confirmed after all documents are

PARKING SAFETY

When you attend Mass on Sundays or visit the Church/Chapel or Parish offices during the week, be mindful of all parking lot safety precautions that you would take in other parking spaces on island.

- Be mindful of how you're parking your car, using the spaces as you should.
- Only park in designated parking spaces at all times.
- Do not block the areas that are coned off as they are for everyone's safety.
- Do not leave handbags, electronics and other valuables in your car. In case your car is broken into, your possessions will be secure with you.
- Lock all your car doors as you leave the car.

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PUNCTUALITY TO MASS

"Get to Mass early — not late — because it is during the introductory rites that we begin to adore

God in community and to prepare the heart for this celebration with the community." - Pope Francis

We encourage all Parishioners to arrive early, in plenty of time before Mass starts. Many times we see the same persons coming in late, week after week. This is disrespectful to the Priest, your fellow parishioners, and most of all... The Lord! We understand that sometimes unforeseen delays may occur, but not every week! Please set a goal to arrive several minutes before the Mass begins so that you can give prayerful attention. If you do genuinely arrive late, please enter through the main entrance only, so as not to distract others. Please wait at the back until the prayers or readings are completed before quietly moving to a seat. Also, at the end of Mass there are some who leave early. Remember that Mass is not over until the final hymn is completed. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Titles of Mary

PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY November 21

This feast is associated with an event recounted not in the New Testament, but in the apocryphal Infancy Narrative of James. According to that text, Mary's parents, Joachim and Anne, who had been childless, received a heavenly message that they would have a child. In thanksgiving for the gift of their daughter, they brought her, when still a child, to the temple in Jerusalem to consecrate her to God.

OUR LADY OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE November 19

Devotion to Our Lady of Divine Providence originated in Italy in the thirteenth century, and was carried to Puerto Rico in the 1850s by Bishop Gil Esteve Tomás. The original statue at the cathedral there was eventually replaced by a wooden carving in 1920 that has become the most familiar image of the patroness of Puerto Rico.

ST.FRANCIS XAVIER

Goan's Cayman community will have their annual St. Francis Xavier feast on 8th December 2024 and will be hosting a special Mass in native language Konkani at 1pm. The celebrant of the Mass is Rev. Fr. Pinto Emidio Manuel Inacino followed by lunch and entertainment at St. Ignatius School Courtyard. Goan's Cayman cordially invites all for Eucharistic celebration and for lunch.
