PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

A Saint for All Souls in Purgatory

It is surprising that St. Nicholas of Tolentino is not more prominent, and more frequently called upon.

Some saints have patronages that are not especially relevant to most people (for example, there is a patron saint of chimney sweeps).

Then there's St. Nicholas of Tolentino, a 13th-century Italian mystic and Augustinian priest, whose patronage is about as relevant as it gets: He is the patron saint of souls in purgatory. And September 10 is his feast day.

Nicholas was born in 1245 in the central Italian region of Marche. He came from a family of humble financial means, and The Catholic Encyclopedia describes his parents as "pious folk ... living content with a small substance."

Inspired by the preaching of a local Augustinian, Nicholas joined the order as a novice when he was a teenager. After seven years with the Augustinians, he was ordained a priest.

Soon into his priesthood, he acquired a reputation as a highly effective speaker. This talent, combined with a gentle disposition, saw him entrusted with the role of peacemaker in regional political disputes.

Around age 30, Nicholas had visions of angels telling him to go to Tolentino, a community about 15 miles away from his hometown.

He would spend the remaining 30 years of his life at Tolentino, where he preached almost every day.

Visions of purgatory

Along with his preaching, Nicholas received many visions of purgatory, which tended to come during periods of fasting. After having these visions, much of his spiritual focus turned to the welfare of souls in purgatory. As for the living, much of his ministerial focus was devoted to persons who had drifted away from the Church, many of whom lived on the fringes of society.

Rendered very weak after one particularly long period of fasting, he regained his strength by eating bread marked with a cross and dunked in water. This recovery launched the Augustinian tradition of St. Nicholas Bread.

Eventually, though, he was suffering a prolonged illness, from which no amount of bread could beget a recovery. He died on September 10, 1305, at age 60.

His remains are interred in the Shrine of St. Nicholas in the Basilica di San Nicola of Tolentino.

1st canonized Augustinian

Almost immediately after his death, clamors for his canonization arose, and he received credit for a series of miracles.

Canonized by Pope Eugene IV on June 5, 1446, Nicholas became the first member of the Augustinian order to receive formal canonization.

An altarpiece designed in 1501 by the Renaissance master Raphael depicts Nicholas with the devil beneath his feet. Above Nicholas are St. Augustine, the Virgin Mary, and God.

In 1884, Pope Leo XIII proclaimed Nicholas the patron of souls in purgatory.

In the current day, churches dedicated to St. Nicholas of Tolentino stand at locations ranging from Venice to the Bronx. He is the patron of several cities in his Italian homeland. And there are even cities as far away as the Philippines that also regard him as their patron.

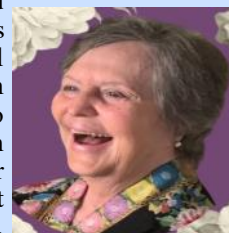

In some ways, though, it is surprising that he is not more prominent. After all, this is clearly a saint with universal appeal. There's a very good chance that most, if not all, of us have known someone who currently inhabits the purgatorial realm. What's more, there's a very high chance that we ourselves might eventually have a profound personal need for St. Nicholas of Tolentino.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Despite the fact that the feast of Christ the King was established less than a century ago, it has already undergone a shift in focus. When Pope Pius XI established this feast in 1925, nationalism and fascism were on the rise. The pope intended that it be a "vehicle for spiritual teaching," one that would recognize the ultimate authority of Christ over all political and social scheming. The last Sunday of October was chosen as the date for the feast because of its proximity to the feast of All Saints, those men and women who bore witness to Christ's reign in so many different ways.

The calendar reforms of 1969 moved the feast to the last Sunday of the liturgical year. There, in the context of November's focus on the end times, Christ's second coming at the end of all time is highlighted. The threefold cycle of readings also expands our imaginations in regard to this feast. In this year's Gospel, Christ stands before Pilate, whose own power blinds him to the truth of the Lord's kingdom. In a world where oppression still holds sway over too many people, this feast is somehow still as timely as when Pope Pius XI first established it.

Solemnity of Christ the King

"Jesus answered, 'My kingdom does not belong to this world.'" (John 18:36)

Life is short. How much time, energy and money do you put into building "your" kingdom here on earth? We all know we can't take it with us. The real kingdom is in the next life. Yet, how much time, energy and money do you invest in working for that eternal kingdom? Ask God for His guidance. Detach from earthly possessions. Generously share your material goods with others for the greater glory of God.

Titles of Mary

OUR LADY OF THE MIRACULOUS
MEDAL
November 27

In 1830 the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to 24-year-old Catherine Labouré in Paris, France. She commissioned Catherine to have copies of what came to be known as the "Miraculous Medal" produced and distributed for the benefit of the faithful. The medal includes the prayer, "O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee."

PUNCTUALITY TO MASS

"Get to Mass early — not late — because it is during the introductory rites that we begin to adore

God in community and to prepare the heart for this celebration with the community." - Pope Francis

We encourage all Parishioners to arrive early, in plenty of time before Mass starts. Many times we see the same persons coming in late, week after week. This is disrespectful to the Priest, your fellow parishioners, and most of all... The Lord! We understand that sometimes unforeseen delays may occur, but not every week! Please set a goal to arrive several minutes before the Mass begins so that you can give prayerful attention. If you do genuinely arrive late, please enter through the main entrance only, so as not to distract others. Please wait at the back until the prayers or readings are completed before quietly moving to a seat. Also, at the end of Mass there are some who leave early. Remember that Mass is not over until the final hymn is completed. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

CHRISTMAS OFFERTORY COLLECTION

The Christmas offertory collection is part of our annual Parish budget. The entire Christmas collection stays right here in the Parish. All other collections and donations during the year are assessed 7% by the Archdiocese, whereas the Christmas collection is exempt from such assessment. You can make your Christmas donation to the Parish anytime over the month of December and into January, just so long as you indicate in the cheques, envelopes, or online deposits that it is your "Christmas 2024 Offering". If you are going away during the holidays, please consider making your Christmas offering to St. Ignatius Parish before you leave. Thank you!

Christ the King What is Truth?

When we celebrate Christ the King, we are not talking about political power. That is the only kind of king that Pilate recognized. Our first two readings describe in poetic terms what Christ's kingdom is like: a priestly kingdom of glory and power that will never end. Pilate was judging the One who would one day judge him. He wanted to know if Jesus claimed to be a king, or if the Jews who wanted Jesus destroyed were behind the rumors of kingship. Jesus does not deny his kingship; after all, he says his purpose in life is the Truth. If you were reading this in the Bible, you would see Pilate's response, "What is truth?"

For Jesus (and for us), truth is the relationship between God and God's people. God is the source of the universe, the source of all life. Jesus came to show us the truth of God's love for all people. The divine kingdom is simply the way that we relate to God and each other. We join that kingdom, not by signing a membership list, but by living a life of love: Love for God and for each other.

So why doesn't Jesus use all that power and glory to make everyone follow him? Because God asks us to be humble like Jesus. God doesn't force people to believe. That is another side of Truth: who God is and who we are. If you believe in God, you begin to see God in people whom you love, people who need our help, even people who don't like us. We even see God in the beauty and majesty of creation. A few years ago, when I heard that scientists were coming to accept that the universe was infinite, I was afraid that that would make people reject the idea of God. But then it occurred to me that an all-powerful God would make an infinite universe to show the divine glory.

Today Jesus invites us to accept the truth and become members of his kingdom. The tax is what we freely choose to give; the army are those who freely give themselves in service to the poor, the sick, and those who are seeking God. And the laws of this Kingdom are simple—Love God with all your being and love your neighbor as yourself. And that's the Truth.
