June 01, 2025 - Solemnity - Ascension of Our Lord

This Weekend's Readings

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Acts 1:1-11

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:17-23

Gospel: Luke 24:46-53

Gospel Acclamation

"Go and teach all nations, says the Lord; I am with you always, until the end of the world. ." (Matthew 28:19a, 20b)

GOSPEL REFLECTION

The Ascension of the Lord Coming or Going?

One way of looking at the Ascension is that Jesus can do much more for us in his glory than he could while on earth. How does this work? It happens in two steps. First, he sends the Holy Spirit to the disciples. Second, the disciples become his witnesses to all the nations. So let's look at the first step.

The Gospel of John that is read on the Vigil of Pentecost says that "there was . . . no Spirit yet, because Jesus had not yet been glorified" (John 7:39). Obviously the Spirit is co-eternal with the Father and the Son, so John is trying to get our attention. He means that we could not experience the gifts of the Spirit until Jesus had died and risen from the dead. While Jesus walked the earth, he chose to be limited in time and space, so that a few people could get to know and love him. But after his resurrection, he could be more effective by sending his Spirit to all believers. Because he is ascended into glory, he can live in all of us. Just as the power of the Holy Spirit caused Mary to be the mother of Jesus, so that same power enables Jesus to live in us. And that leads to the second step.

Before his death, Jesus began to collect a group of followers. Some got to know him more deeply and became disciples. The rest of the followers were merely curious or attracted by stories of miracles he had performed. They did not have the faith and courage to bring others to Jesus; some only stayed with him a short time. But after his ascension the disciples began to experience Jesus in each other. They could not help but be excited about that and spread that excitement to others. From the time of Jesus' ascension to our own time, people have boldly proclaimed the gospel. So Jesus' ascension actually makes him present to more people, not fewer. May we all experience that presence in the Spirit, seeing Jesus in ourselves and others.

FIRST COMMUNION 2025

*"The Eucharist is the Sacrament of love; it signifies love, it produces love."
— Pope Leo XIII*

Dear First Communicants, Families, Catechists, and Parishioners,

This weekend, we joyfully celebrate a very special day in the lives of our children as they receive the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist for the first time. It is a moment of great grace and blessing, not just for the children, but for all of us as a parish family. We gather to rejoice, to pray, and to give thanks for this sacred gift that deepens our connection to Christ and to one another.

To Our First Communicants: Congratulations on receiving Jesus in the Eucharist for the first time! This is a special and holy moment in your life, and we pray that this encounter with Christ will continue to nourish you, strengthen your faith, and guide you on your journey of discipleship. Remember, Jesus is always with you, and He will walk with you every step of the way.

To the Families of the First Communicants: Your love, support, and guidance have been essential in preparing your children for this important moment. We thank you for your dedication to nurturing their faith and helping them grow in the love of Christ. Today is a reflection of your commitment to living out the Gospel and passing them on to the next generation. We are grateful for the role you play in fostering a vibrant faith life in our parish.

To the Catechists: A heartfelt thank you to our wonderful catechists who have shared their time, knowledge, and love with our First Communicants. Your dedication to teaching the faith and preparing these children to receive the Eucharist is a beautiful ministry. May God bless you for your tireless efforts in forming and inspiring the hearts of our young ones.

To the Parish Community: As a parish family, we celebrate with and support the children and their parents with our prayers. We are all called to walk alongside these children and their families, encouraging them in their faith journey. Let this moment remind us of the importance of nurturing a loving and supportive community that helps each person grow in their relationship with Christ.

Let us continue to pray for our First Communicants, their families, and their catechists, that they may always remain close to Jesus, our Eucharistic Lord, and be strengthened by His grace.

SAINT CHARLES LWANGA AND HIS COMPANIONS
(martyred 1886-87)
June 3

"Master of Pages," reputedly the handsomest man in all Uganda, Charles Lwanga, lay catechist, courageously led about forty teenaged boys, Catholics and Anglicans, on a forty-mile forced march to martyrdom for their common Christian faith. Teaching each other the hymns of their different churches, they strengthened one another for the ordeal ahead. King Mwanga, himself barely twenty, had ordered them executed for being "those who pray." But these royal pages were the king's male harem, who, now Christians, refused what pious accounts demurely describe as his "unreasonable demands." Some were clubbed to death, most burned alive; the youngest, thirteen-year old Saint Kizito, whom Charles had often shielded from the King's lust; the most tragic, Saint Mbagwa, whose father was his executioner! In 1964, Paul VI canonized the young Catholics and praised their Anglican companions, recalling the heroism of early Christianity's African martyrs, which we modern Christians of far less faith never expected to see repeated. Forty years after the pope's words, what does our faith cost us? Heroism aside, how generous is our response?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The paschal candle, blessed at the Easter Vigil, carried in procession into the darkened church, and aflame with the light of Christ to be passed hand to hand to renew our baptism, burns for the fifty days of Easter whenever we gather as Christ's risen body. In the last fifty years, we have grown to see this candle as the sign of Christ's enduring presence with us. Before then, it was often seen more as a kind of signpost pointing backwards to events in Christ's life. Therefore, in some places, on the fortieth day after Easter, in order to portray the disappearance of Jesus at the Ascension, the candle was hidden.

Now we see the paschal candle as a sign of the great baptismal season of grace and it remains in a prominent place throughout the entire fifty days. We do know of some churches that did not hide the candle after the Ascension. In England before the Reformation, the candle was left in place for fifty days, since on Pentecost Eve there was a vigil, and the candle was used to consecrate the waters of the font. In Salisbury cathedral, the candle was thirty-six feet high, and in Westminster Abbey weighed over three hundred pounds. On Pentecost, the candles were melted to make tapers for the funerals of the poor.
