GOSPEL REFLECTION

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Robbing a Bank

The second reading from the Letter to the Colossians goes well with the first reading and the Gospel. Those passages warn how useless material wealth will be when we die. St. Paul continues this warning by reminding us that we have already died with Christ in baptism and risen to new life. To live this new life we must put to death whatever tendencies keep us from Christ.

Wealth can be a gift from God. The abuse is not necessarily in the possession of wealth. More likely, we abuse wealth either in the ways we attain it or use it—or both. How do we abuse the attainment of wealth? I can give an obvious answer, such as robbing a bank, but this makes it too easy to justify myself. Do I work a full day for my pay, or do I spend a lot of time visiting with other employees, surfing the Web, taking extra-long breaks, or texting my friends? Am I honest with my customers, charging only for work I have done?

As for using our wealth, we usually think of family first. Do we spoil our kids, so they can "have the things I couldn't afford when I was young"? Or do we teach them to work for what they get? Do we also think of the poor and homeless? Do we teach our children to be generous to others?

Notice that Paul does not mention wealth. Instead he goes deeper, pointing out the thoughts and desires that lead to a life centered in wealth. In baptism, we put to death passion and greed, tendencies that push us to own more or to control another person. Paul uses the image of taking off these vices as if they were clothing and putting on a new self that shows Christ in us. When we have been renewed that way, then Christ becomes visible in all people. We no longer have reason to look down on anyone for being poor or sickly or of another race. We begin to see Christ in them, for as Paul says, "Christ is all and in all"

IMPORTANT UPDATE:

Please note that our prayer list for the sick was growing very lengthy, and some names have been on the list for a significant amount of time. As a result, any names that have been on the list for more than a year have now been removed. If any families would like any of the names reinstated, please contact the Parish Office via phone or e-mail. Parishioners are kindly asked to help us keep this list up-to-date by notifying the Office in timely fashion if any names need to be added or removed.

Please pray that the Healing Hand of the Lord touches all our sick, bringing consolation to the aged, peace of soul to the terminally ill, and strength to those who are young and all those in our Parish and families who are suffering. May all of them know God's healing love. We pray for all the sick not listed and those in hospitals.

Please contact the office to add/remove names.

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

4 Carmelite Saints Draw Us to the Eucharist

These four Carmelite nuns give us words to contemplate as we prepare to receive Jesus and give thanks for the gift of his Presence.

The feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel on July 16 is held as the day Our Lady gave the Carmelite Brown Scapular to St. Simon Stock. It is a wonderful day to go to Mass and receive the Eucharist in honor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. We can also celebrate this beautiful feast day by looking to the wisdom of great Carmelite saints who each have something to teach about love of the Eucharist.

1. Teresa of Avila

The great Carmelite Reformer, St. Teresa of Avila, brought a new infusion of holiness into the Carmelite order through her ardent prayers and brilliant writings.

This Doctor of the Church spoke these great words of wisdom on the power of the Eucharist:

“Be with Him willingly; don’t lose so good an occasion for conversing with Him as is the hour after having received Communion ... If you immediately turn your thoughts to other things, if you pay no attention and take no account of the fact that He is within you, how will He be able to reveal Himself to you? This, then, is a good time for our Master to teach us, and for us to listen to Him.” What a great reminder to spend time in prayer with our Eucharistic Lord even after Mass has ended.

St. Teresa of Avila also said:

“Why doubt, if we have faith, that miracles will be worked while He is within us and that He will give what we ask of Him, since He is in our house? His Majesty is not accustomed to paying poorly for His lodging if the hospitality is good.”

2. Teresa of Jesus of the Andes

St. Teresa of Jesus of the Andes was a Chilean Carmelite nun who died at only 20 years old just a few days after she was given permission to make her final vows. Her writings are filled with wisdom and holiness. She spoke these words about the Eucharist:

“... receive Communion with fervour. May Jesus find in your souls a haven where He may rest. Prepare yourselves well by considering Who it is that you are about to receive. It is God Himself ... How I’d love to help you understand ... what it is like to receive Communion here in Carmel! For a Carmelite, Communion is heaven; and Communion should be the same for every believing soul.”

St. Theresa of the Andes also taught:

“Try every morning, when you have the joy of receiving Communion, to ask Our Lord to remain with you all day in your soul. In this way you will live with, and immersed in, God.”

3. St. Mary Magdalene of the Incarnate Word de Pazzi

St. Mary Magdalene of the Incarnate Word de Pazzi was an Italian Carmelite nun and mystic who led a hidden life of prayer and self-denial, praying particularly for the renewal of the Church and encouraging the sisters in holiness. She often went into ecstasy after receiving the Eucharist. Her life was marked by many extraordinary graces.

She teaches how we ought to pray upon receiving the Eucharist:

“Prayer ought to be humble, fervent, resigned, persevering, and accompanied with great reverence. One should consider that he stands in the presence of God, and speaks with the Lord before whom the angels tremble from awe and fear.”

St. Mary Magdalene de Pazzi also taught:

“What scant respect we have for the One before Whom the seraphim cover themselves with their wings, prostrating themselves before Him. And He bears it all in silence, remaining without splendor, hidden beneath the bread, that He may live in the midst of those He created. Oh, how good He is! What infinite love He has! Why aren’t we crazy with love for Him?”

How do we show we are crazy in love with Him? Each of us is called to discern how to better show God more perfect love ... beyond what is casual, comfortable, and easy.

4. St. Elizabeth of the Trinity

St. Elizabeth of the Trinity was a French Carmelite mystic and spiritual writer who was recently canonized in 2016. Her words of welcome to God are abundantly fitting to pray upon receiving the Eucharist:

“Make my soul ... Your cherished dwelling place, Your home of rest. Let me never leave You there alone, but keep me there all absorbed in You, in living faith, adoring You.”

All Carmelite saints, pray for us!

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Celebrating 75 Years of Faith and Community – We Need Your Help!

Dear Parishioners,

As we prepare to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Catholic Church in the Cayman Islands, we invite you to participate actively in marking this special milestone for St. Ignatius Parish.

Over the decades, our parish has grown from humble beginnings into a vibrant and diverse faith community, now comprising the Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel, Christ the Redeemer Church in West Bay, and Stella Maris Church in Cayman Brac. This journey is one we've all been part of — and now, we want to share that story.

We are putting together a commemorative booklet (both printed and digital), filled with photos, memories, and highlights of our parish's rich history. We would love for you to contribute:

- Photos from past parish events, ministries, sacraments, or community activities — recent or historic.
- Short reflections on what St. Ignatius Parish has meant to you and how it has shaped your faith and life.

Your contributions will help capture the spirit and legacy of our parish for generations to come.

If you own a business or would like to support this project by sponsoring an ad or providing a congratulatory message in the booklet, we would be grateful for your partnership. For details on sponsorship opportunities, don't hesitate to get in touch with Wil Pineau directly at 925-8980 or email wilpineau@yahoo.com

If you're interested in helping with the anniversary planning, don't hesitate to get in touch with the Parish Office at 949-6797 or email ignatius@candw.ky

Let's celebrate 75 years of faith, fellowship, and growth — together.

With gratitude,
St. Ignatius Parish Council
 Cayman Islands

JESUS

THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE

Presented by MARCELLINO D'AMBROSIO,
JEFF CAVINS, and EDWARD SRI

THE DEFINITIVE STUDY OF JESUS CHRIST

The marvelous treasures of the Catholic Faith—the Eucharist, Mary, the saints, and the Creed—are all centered on a single figure: Jesus Christ. Jesus is more than a historical or theological figure. He is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord, and our God. While many of us know a lot about him already, how well can we say that we really know him?

JESUS: THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE is a new and fresh look at Jesus—who he is, what he is really like, what he taught, and what he did for our salvation. This encounter with Christ will inspire and empower you to center your entire life around him as you come to know and love him in an ever deeper and more intimate way.

PARKING SAFETY

When you attend Mass on Sundays or visit the Church/Chapel or Parish offices during the week, be mindful of all parking lot safety precautions that you would take in other parking spaces on island.

- Be mindful of how you're parking your car, using the spaces as you should.
- Only park in designated parking spaces at all times.
- Do not block the areas that are coned off as they are for everyone's safety.
- Do not leave handbags, electronics and other valuables in your car. In case your car is broken into, your possessions will be securely with you.
- Lock all your car doors as you leave the car.

PLEASE KEEP OUR CHURCH TIDY!

Thank you for helping to keep our church tidy! Please take a moment after Mass to ensure that all hymnbooks and United in Christ Missals are neatly placed in the racks so that the church is ready for the next Mass.

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY (1786-1859)

August 4

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of John Vianney's holiness: "He died seventeen years before telephones!" Call they didn't, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney's first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector's apology to the bishop, "So far to ordain just one, especially this one!" The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, "No burden to ordain one good priest!" In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, "praying," one told Vianney, "for a priest with brains." But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: "Show me the way to Ars," he tells a boy, "and I'll show you the way to heaven." To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, "My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus' disciple on earth."

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM HURRICANES

Father, all the elements of nature obey your command. Calm the storms and hurricanes that threaten us and turn our fear of your power into praise of your goodness.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.
Amen.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The reign of God comes about because people commit to reversing their lives completely, to embracing new vision, new values.

Many popular television shows exploit an unattractive side of human nature by pitting contestants against one another, even to the point of performing dangerous stunts or devious schemes, to gain money or favor.

At the liturgy, we counter that impulse by committing ourselves to live generously. In response to Christ's total gift, we offer bread and wine as the emblems of our lives, our hopes, our joys and sorrows. The bread and wine carried to the altar contain our lives, and by offering our lives to God, we prepare to receive the gift of God's own life. We are to become what we receive: the body of Christ.

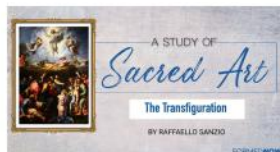

On Sundays, this self-giving is often accompanied by a collection and procession of gifts for the poor and money for the upkeep of the parish. There are certainly other methods of collecting money, some perhaps more efficient. Yet the act of giving from our abundance, and attending to the needs of the poor, opens us up to participation in the changes the Reign of God requires.

Week of August 03, 2025

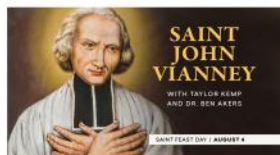

The Transfiguration | Sacred Art

Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp sit down with Raffaello Sanzio's painting, "The Transfiguration," to discuss its theological meaning and how it can speak to us today.

Edith Stein: The Seventh Chamber

This film is a moving, artistic portrayal of the life of Jewish philosopher, Catholic convert, and Carmelite martyr, Edith Stein. It powerfully captures the interior struggles of this extraordinary woman and her journey toward the Lord.
