GOSPEL REFLECTION

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Are You Talking to Me?

In today's Gospel Jesus talks about being prepared, using the parable of the servants waiting for their master's return from a wedding. Parables usually have a surprise twist and this one is no exception. Jesus pictures the master coming back at a late hour and finding the servants ready for him. The master is so pleased that he begins to wait on the servants—he serves them a meal. (I can almost hear the disciples saying, "No way!")

Peter is a man who is not afraid to speak up or ask a question. That may be one of the reasons Jesus made him the head of the apostles. Perhaps Peter was thinking, "Surely we will be prepared when Jesus comes again. He must be talking about the rest of the people." When he asks Jesus whom the parable is meant for, Jesus ignores him! At least it seems that way at first. Jesus expands on the theme of readiness by describing the servant who took advantage of the master's absence—he will be punished severely. To answer Peter's question, Jesus warns that the servant who knew his duties would be punished more than one who was ignorant of those expectations. Peter and the disciples should have seen themselves as the servants who knew what was expected.

That warning is one for us to hear also. We may look down on non-Christians or wonder if they will get to heaven. But the Lord doesn't expect as much from those who don't know God. Instead of judging them, we would be better off looking at ourselves. Am I serious about my faith, serious enough to show it in my actions? Has my good example ever brought a non-believer to the Church? If I can see Jesus in someone who doesn't know the Lord, the respect I show that person could draw them to believe.

There are examples of this even in your own parish. If you have been in the parish for many years, you could be expected to notice a newcomer more readily. How do you welcome them? Do you get so comfortable with your friends that you don't think about reaching out to a visitor? I think Jesus would expect those of us who feel at home in our church to make an effort to bring new members into our circle. "So how much does Jesus expect of me?" The answer could be in how well you know Jesus.

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Why Adoration Is An Essential Type of Prayer

Adoration reminds us that we are creatures and that God is our Creator, deserving all of our attention and love.

Adoration is a foundational type of prayer that should be part of every Christian's spiritual life.

This does not refer to only Eucharistic adoration, but to all types of powerful adoration, both inside a church and at home.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church gives a brief summary of adoration in its section on prayer:

Adoration is the first attitude of man acknowledging that he is a creature before his Creator. It exalts the greatness of the Lord who made us and the almighty power of the Savior who sets us free from evil. (CCC 2628)

This is an important type of prayer, as it reminds us of our place in the world and helps prevent us from being too prideful.

Sometimes we are tempted to think that we are "god," but adoration corrects that temptation and forces us to look upon the Creator of all.

The Catechism continues its commentary on adoration: Adoration is homage of the spirit to the "King of Glory," respectful silence in the presence of the "ever greater" God. Adoration of the thrice-holy and sovereign God of love blends with humility and gives assurance to our supplications. (CCC 2628)

Whether we are at home or kneeling inside a chapel, we are challenged to adore God and marvel at his divine majesty.

Why adoration is an essential type of prayer

Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come. (Matthew 24:42)

POPE LEO'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR AUGUST 2025

For mutual coexistence

Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

Christ the Redeemer Church Windows & Door Project

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to the individuals and families who donated the new windows for Christ the Redeemer Church. These windows have been installed, and recognition plaques displaying the names of the donors are now in place.

Additionally, we are deeply grateful to the parishioner who anonymously donated a new iron door for Christ the Redeemer Church. This door has also been installed. Please see the picture below.

THANK YOU!

Celebrating 75 Years of Faith and Community – We Need Your Help!

Dear Parishioners,

As we prepare to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Catholic Church in the Cayman Islands, we invite you to participate actively in marking this special milestone for St. Ignatius Parish.

Over the decades, our parish has grown from humble beginnings into a vibrant and diverse faith community, now comprising the Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel, Christ the Redeemer Church in West Bay, and Stella Maris Church in Cayman Brac. This journey is one we've all been part of — and now, we want to share that story.

We are putting together a commemorative booklet (both printed and digital), filled with photos, memories, and highlights of our parish's rich history. We would love for you to contribute:

- Photos from past parish events, ministries, sacraments, or community activities — recent or historic.
- Short reflections on what St. Ignatius Parish has meant to you and how it has shaped your faith and life.

Your contributions will help capture the spirit and legacy of our parish for generations to come.

If you own a business or would like to support this project by sponsoring an ad or providing a congratulatory message in the booklet, we would be grateful for your partnership. For details on sponsorship opportunities, don't hesitate to get in touch with Wil Pineau directly at 925-8980 or email wilpineau@yahoo.com

If you're interested in helping with the anniversary planning, don't hesitate to get in touch with the Parish Office at 949-6797 or email ignatius@candw.ky

JESUS

THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE

Presented by MARCELLINO D'AMBROSIO,
JEFF CAVINS, and EDWARD SRI

THE DEFINITIVE STUDY OF JESUS CHRIST

The marvelous treasures of the Catholic Faith—the Eucharist, Mary, the saints, and the Creed—are all centered on a single figure: Jesus Christ. Jesus is more than a historical or theological figure. He is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord, and our God. While many of us know a lot about him already, how well can we say that we really know him?

JESUS: THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE is a new and fresh look at Jesus—who he is, what he is really like, what he taught, and what he did for our salvation. This encounter with Christ will inspire and empower you to center your entire life around him as you come to know and love him in an ever deeper and more intimate way.

Amen.

Life for Life: Maximilian Kolbe

After escaping from Auschwitz, a man hears the tragic news about ten random inmates sentenced by the Nazis to death as a punishment for his escape—one of whom is Fr. Maximilian Kolbe.

Clare and Francis

This outstanding movie is unique among films about St. Francis because of the historical accuracy of the story and its authentic spirit of joy and piety so characteristic of Francis, as well as the major role played by Clare. Both founded major religious orders, and together they inspired many to follow their radical call to live the Gospel.

The Assumption of Mary

The Assumption of Mary, body and soul in Heavenly glory, highlights the power of God and Christ's victory over sin and death for Mary's soul. Learn about this great mystery in Mysteries of the Rosary.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The wonderful diversity of life and worship among Roman Catholics of East and West is an example of God writing straight with crooked lines. The steady hand of the villainous Emperor Diocletian drew a line across Europe and Africa that split the empire in two, and for the most part determined how Christians would worship two thousand years later.

Italy's heel and the far northern city of Trieste fell on the Eastern side, and have had a form of Eastern liturgy ever since. Constantinople, which soon became the seat of the Roman Empire, became a base for Christianizing the East up to Russia and Poland. Poland was on the Eastern side, but a series of wars and medieval mayhem pushed the religious boundary back to the Ukraine, and Poland remains an outpost of the Latin Church to this day.

An old rule of thumb declared that whatever religion was observed by the local prince, the people had to follow. This gave rise to persecution and migration as people sought toleration for their expressions of faith. In the United States, we are accustomed to peaceful collaboration among Christians of East and West, a situation that challenges churches that still feel the pinch of age-old division.
