IMPORTANT UPDATE:

Please note that our prayer list for the sick was growing very lengthy, and some names have been on the list for a significant amount of time. As a result, any names that have been on the list for more than a year have now been removed. If any families would like any of the names reinstated, please contact the Parish Office via phone or e-mail. Parishioners are kindly asked to help us keep this list up-to-date by notifying the Office in timely fashion if any names need to be added or removed.

Please pray that the Healing Hand of the Lord touches all our sick, bringing consolation to the aged, peace of soul to the terminally ill, and strength to those who are young and all those in our Parish and families who are suffering. May all of them know God's healing love. We pray for all the sick not listed and those in hospitals.

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Here's your checklist for a Spiritually Fruitful Lent

Not sure what to do this Lent? Here are a few ideas to get you started on the right track.

Lent is not a season that most Catholics look forward to during the liturgical year. It's not like Advent, which signals the coming of Christmas and is a time of joyous expectation.

Instead, Lent might be seen as an arduous season of waiting before the glorious feast of Jesus' resurrection on Easter.

It's one of the reasons why relatively few Catholics embrace it, as its length and focus on sacrifice tend to dissuade many from even trying to enter into the spirit of the season.

Yet, Lent is one of the most important seasons of the year as the Church invites us to follow in Jesus' footsteps, going through his Passion before reaping the fruits of the resurrection.

We often forget that Jesus didn't simply rise from the dead. He suffered a grueling death and then invited us to follow after him. If we want to enter into the glory of Easter, we need to go through Good Friday.

Here are a few tips that you can ponder as you prepare for the 40 days of Lent.

Choose your Lenten sacrifice

It's not a requirement of the Catholic Church, but most Catholics are familiar with the tradition of the Lenten sacrifice. Essentially you pick at least one thing to "give up." Typically this is something good and not sinful (i.e. giving up looking at porn is not a Lenten sacrifice as that is something you should be working to give up at all times, as it is sin). Sin should always be given up.

Instead, what Catholics are invited to do during Lent is to give up something that they enjoy, such as chocolate, or even Netflix, and to spend that time on some other good activity, especially in service of God. It's a sacrifice that unites us more closely to Jesus.

2. Find a good spiritual book

If you are not in the habit of reading a spiritual book, Lent is the perfect time to pick one up. Catholic publishers have a variety of easy to read spiritual classics that can be read during the 40 days of Lent.

Choosing a book written by a saint is always a good choice, while you certainly can pick something by a modern writer, since it may be easier to digest.

3. Give away some of your money

Part of the practices of Lent is to dedicate some of our money to almsgiving. This could be as simple as giving money to your parish or to those in need in your local community. Whatever you do, try to give a little bit more during Lent.

4. Pray every day

Lent is a great time to revitalize your prayer life. Plan now when you will pray during Lent. Often if we don't schedule prayer, it simply will never happen. Check out your parish bulletin for special Lenten prayer services, retreats, or opportunities for Confession. Make prayer a priority and make the sacrifices necessary to make room in your busy schedule.

Encountering THE SEASON

LENT for the FAMILY

THE SECOND WEEK of LENT

Do you remember your baptism? Many people are very young—just babies!—when they are baptized. During our baptism, the priest poured water over our heads and blessed us with sacred chrism oil, sealing us with the gifts of the Holy Spirit and cleansing us of our sin. When Christ was baptized, the Lord revealed something important to us about himself: Christ’s divine nature. Both at Jesus’ baptism and later at the Transfiguration, the Father revealed that Christ is his beloved Son and part of the Holy Trinity. This special moment encourages us to recognize the significance of the Sacrament of Baptism, particularly our own baptism. Through Baptism, God invites us into this same union of the Trinity so that we may actively live with his divine grace and be members of his family.

Through our baptism, we are given our identity in Christ. We become God’s beloved sons and daughters, and we are called to follow him. Although it is sometimes difficult, God gives us the tools to help us through challenging times. With prayer, we are able to draw ourselves closer to him and ask for his guidance. Let’s spend time in prayer this week and thank God for our baptism and new life in him!

Challenge of the Week

This week, reflect on the Sunday Gospel reading (Matthew 17:1-9). Consider how God is calling you to look at the Transfiguration. Either draw or write down your thoughts and share them when you’re gathered for dinner or before a nighttime prayer.

Prayer of the Week

Lord, help us to renew our baptismal vows with you so that we may come to better know and understand your endless love for us. Help guide us during this time of Lent so that we may remain in union with your will. Instill in us the importance of our identities as your beloved sons and daughters. We ask this through your guidance. Amen.

Bible Verse

“He was still speaking, when behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, ‘This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.’ When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces, and were filled with awe. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, ‘Rise, and have no fear’”
(Matthew 17:5-7).

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Encountering the Word

with Jeff Cavins

Second Sunday of Lent (A)

Genesis 12:1–4a • Psalm 33:4–5, 18–19, 20, 22
2 Timothy 1:8b–10 • Matthew 17:1–9

The New Exodus

The Gospel account of the Transfiguration is one of the most striking moments in the life of Christ. Jesus takes Peter, James, and John up a high mountain, and before their eyes he is transfigured—his face shining like the sun, his garments radiant as light. Moses and Elijah appear beside him, representing the Law and the Prophets, and the Father’s voice declares, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him” (Matthew 17:5).

To grasp the full meaning of this moment, we must see how it fulfills and surpasses the Old Testament. Just as Moses ascended Mount Sinai to receive the Law and lead Israel out of Egypt, so Jesus ascends the mountain to reveal his glory and to begin a greater Exodus, not from political slavery, but from the bondage of sin and death. In Luke’s account, we learn that Moses and Elijah spoke with Jesus about his “exodus” that would take place in Jerusalem: his passion, death, and resurrection (9:30–31).

For us, the Transfiguration is not only a past event but a present reality. Each time we participate in the Mass, we ascend the mountain of the Lord. In the Eucharist, we encounter the real presence of Christ in his glory, not only to behold him, but to receive him. Then, strengthened by grace, we are sent forth into the world to live what we have seen and experienced, carrying the light of Christ into the valleys of daily life. The Mass is our share in the new Exodus, leading us from sin into freedom and from death into life.

Mount Tabor, Lower Galilee, Israel

Living the Gospel

The Transfiguration reminds us that the glory of Christ is revealed not only on the mountain, but in the sacrifice of the Cross and in the gift of the Eucharist. This week, approach Mass with renewed awareness that you are ascending the mountain of the Lord. Receive the Body of Christ with faith and adoration, and then descend the “mountain” to bring his light into your family, your work, and your community. Live as one who has encountered the glory of God, and allow others to see Christ shining through you.

75TH ANNIVERSARY PRAYER

Prayer

Gracious Father,

We praise and thank You for the joy of celebrating 75 years of the Roman Catholic Church in the Cayman Islands.

The seeds of faith that were planted in our Islands by the Jesuits of Jamaica have grown from a small mission of a handful of Catholics into a vibrant Roman Catholic Communion.

We thank You Lord for Your grace in calling us to be Your people, for Your love revealed to us in Christ Your Son, and for Your gift of the Holy Spirit and the joy of salvation.

We pray that Your Holy Spirit will continue to unite us in the bonds of love, and guide and direct us toward what lies ahead.

Bless all who have been generous stewards in building our faith community, and grant us the grace to be bold missionary disciples.

Bless our Parish in the Cayman Islands by raising up good and holy families, loving husbands, wives and devoted parents and children. Raise up dedicated and generous leaders from our families and friends who will serve Your people as Priests, Brothers, Deacons, Sisters, and Lay Ministers.

May this Anniversary yield greater impact and deeper purpose rooted in Christ, that all will be for the greater glory of God.

We entrust our Parish to you, Most Holy Lord, and pray for Your continued blessings on our Churches and School.

Amen.

PARKING SAFETY

When you attend Mass on Sundays or visit the Church/Chapel or Parish offices during the week, be mindful of all parking lot safety precautions that you would take in other parking spaces on island.

- Be mindful of how you're parking your car, using the spaces as you should.
- Only park in designated parking spaces at all times.
- Do not block the areas that are coned off as they are for everyone's safety.
- Do not leave handbags, electronics and other valuables in your car. In case your car is broken into, your possessions will be securely with you.
- Lock all your car doors as you leave the car.

PLEASE KEEP OUR CHURCH TIDY!

Thank you for helping to keep our church tidy! Please take a moment after Mass to ensure that all hymnbooks and United in Christ Missals are neatly placed in the racks so that the church is ready for the next Mass.

BAPTISMS

Baptisms are scheduled on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month.

Parents and Godparents MUST do the online course AND attend the Pre-Baptismal classes prior to the Baptism.

The next scheduled Baptisms are on April 12, 2026 after the 11:30 am Mass.

Contact the Parish Office well in advance for full details, to sign up for classes, and to book a date for the Baptism.

Dates will only be confirmed after all documents are submitted.

March 01, 2026
2nd Sunday of Lent
Stewards Go Forward

"Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you." GENESIS 12:1

God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness and greed. Yet, God promises to show His Stewards a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful."

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Reminder that any announcements for the Parish Bulletin should be submitted electronically to Ignatius@candw.ky by Wednesdays, 12 noon each week.

Mass requests must be made in person and paid for in the Parish Office by Wednesdays, 12 noon each week. A minimum $10 stipend is acceptable, per Canon Law.

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS!

We welcome all those families and individuals who have recently joined our Parish! If you have not yet officially registered please visit our website at <https://ignatius.ky/forms>.

PRAYER FOR LIFE

Lord Jesus Christ,
You are the Author of Life,
Who died and now lives forevermore.
May we who work and pray
That children in the womb may be protected
Always draw strength, confidence, and joy
From Your victory over death,
For you are Lord forever and ever.
Amen.
