IMPORTANT UPDATE:

Please note that our prayer list for the sick was growing very lengthy, and some names have been on the list for a significant amount of time. As a result, any names that have been on the list for more than a year have now been removed. If any families would like any of the names reinstated, please contact the Parish Office via phone or e-mail. Parishioners are kindly asked to help us keep this list up-to-date by notifying the Office in timely fashion if any names need to be added or removed.

Please pray that the Healing Hand of the Lord touches all our sick, bringing consolation to the aged, peace of soul to the terminally ill, and strength to those who are young and all those in our Parish and families who are suffering. May all of them know God's healing love. We pray for all the sick not listed and those in hospitals.

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Make the Sermon on the Mount your Lenten Programme

The Sermon on the Mount is a perfect preparation for Lent, because it's a guide to real personal change.

Jesus went up the mountain, sat down, and told us all about Lent. The Sermon on the Mount is a perfect preparation for Lent, because it's a guide to real personal change.

Picture yourself at Jesus' feet and listen.

On one side there's a giant blue sky and a sweeping vista of the Holy Land; on the other, Jesus Christ, this remarkable, mesmerizing man is just as impressive as the view, because he is also the Son of God.

Looking at him, and at the view, you can easily imagine the kingdom of heaven he says the meek will inherit.

First, he says you will be Blessed with great things if you follow him — and then he says you will be a great blessing to the world, like salt or light. But then he explains that this doesn't happen automatically. You have to commit to a program of personal change. A program like Lent.

What Jesus suggests is what psychologists say is our only real shot at change.

Research says people can change — but only by changing their “context.” Typically, this happens due to a major life event, like a loss or an illness or a move. But it is also possible to change your context interiorly by habitual practices.

In his book The Righteous Mind, Jonathan Haidt says moral thinkers have tended to think of our battle to do the right thing as our reason controlling our passions. If the passions were an elephant, our reason was its wise rider, directing it where to go.

But then he shows, through ingenious experiments, that that's not how it works. In fact, the emotional part of our brain, the elephant, ends up basically doing what it wants — and the rider's job is relegated to making up reasons to justify what it did.

That means the only way to change your life is to change your elephant; to change your heart.

Jesus describes how you can train your elephant: by reforming your heart.

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus tells us to surpass the righteousness of the Pharisees, by moving beyond white knuckling our fidelity to a list of rules, and developing a new moral taste for the right things instead.

He tells us that the commandments say to stop hurting people — stop committing murder or adultery. “But I say to you,” something different, he says — don't even think of others as fools or objects of pleasure.

Don't just change how you act, change how you love: change yourself not from the outside in, but from the inside out.

This is what fasting, prayer, and almsgiving are for.

Jesus says, “The lamp of the body is the eye. If your eye is sound, your whole body will be filled with light.” So fast from those things that darken your life — clickbait, social media, shopping sites, and too much entertainment.

Jesus says, “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven.” He will say “I never knew you” to those he turns away. So return to Jesus' side every day, to learn the Father's will and truly know Jesus in personal prayer.

“Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be,” Jesus says, so take money and time from the things you need to value less, and give them to what you need to value more — works of mercy and service.

If Lent works the way it should, it will leave you on firmer ground this Easter.

“Everyone who listens to these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock,” Jesus says.

St. John Chrysostom explains what happens in the life of a Christian who follows the Sermon on the Mount and builds a house on rock:

“In the ebb and flow of the life's events he enjoys a great calm. The truly marvelous thing being that not in fair weather, but when the storm is vehement, and the turmoil great, and the temptations continual, he cannot be shaken even a little.”

So spend time at Jesus' side, with your Bible open to Matthew chapters 5-7, and Lenten reform can re-form your heart.

IN MEMORIAM +Mrs. Celeste Broderick

Our St. Ignatius Church family extends our sincerest condolences and loving support to Mr. Patrick Broderick and his family, on the passing of his beloved wife and our sister, +Mrs. Celeste Broderick, who died this past week.

Celeste was a cornerstone of our Parish. She was the host of social events for many visiting and resident Clergy and special guests of our Parish. Over many decades, she also successfully fundraised to support our Parish's Youth Ministry Programs and trips for many years.

Her Funeral Mass will be on Saturday, March 14 at 10:30am at St. Ignatius Church.

May her soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in eternal peace.

LENT for the FAMILY

THE THIRD WEEK
of LENT

*H*ave you ever felt rejected? Maybe you didn't make the varsity team or didn't get picked first for a gym-class game. In these moments, we often feel as though no one wants us or that we aren't "good enough." But God calls us to a deeper truth: We are desired by God! In the Gospel story about the woman at the well, we meet a Samaritan woman who is rejected because of her current living situation. Even though she is rejected, Christ comes to her in this moment, seeking her out and making her feel seen. Jesus saw all of her hurts, desires, and rejections, and he took that upon himself so that she could accept the Good News and share it with others.

God sees you. He calls you. Christ is constantly chasing us in love. He sees us at our worst moments, and he still desires us and wants what's best for us. By giving us the gift of the sacraments, Jesus reminds us that we are called to be pursuers—disciples—of Christ. Our ultimate goal and destination in life is heaven, and to obtain that goal, we need to direct ourselves toward Jesus every day through our prayer and our actions.

Challenge of the Week

Offer your chores up to God. Chores can sometimes be seen as a nuisance and frustrating, but before you begin each chore, offer a small prayer to God to redirect your thoughts.

Prayer of the Week

Oh God, you call us even when we sin. You seek us out in our moments of rejection and feelings of destitution. Help guide us out of these times of darkness and help us to see our worth that is defined by you. Reveal to us the beauty of the sacraments and instill in us an understanding of the importance of your will. We ask this in your name, Our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Bible Verse

"Jesus said to her, 'Every one who drinks of this water will thirst again, but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst; the water that I shall give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life'" (John 4:13-14).

Third Sunday of Lent (A)

Exodus 17:3-7 • Psalm 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9
Romans 5:1-2, 5-8 • John 4:5-42

Living Water for a Thirsty World

The Third Sunday of Lent finds us in the midst of our spiritual journey. Like the Israelites in the desert, we may feel weary and tempted to grumble, especially when our hearts thirst for something more. In the wilderness, God met Israel's complaints with mercy, drawing water from the rock to sustain them. That rock, St. Paul reminds us, pointed forward to Christ himself, the true source of living water.

In today's Gospel, we meet the Samaritan woman at the well—one who was searching, not complaining, yet still deeply thirsty. Jesus meets her in her ordinary need for water, but he does not stop there. He offers her something greater: the spring of water gushing up to eternal life (John 4:14). Her desire for water becomes an invitation to discover her deepest longing for God himself.

St. John Paul II called this encounter a model for the New Evangelization. Christ satisfies our thirst at the deepest level, but he also sends us out to bear witness. The Samaritan woman left her jar behind and ran to share what she had received. Because of her testimony, many in her village came to believe in Jesus. So too in our Lenten journey, what we receive from Christ is not meant to be hoarded, but to overflow to others.

Lent is a time to ask: Where am I still thirsting? Where have I settled for something natural when Christ is offering me something supernatural? The living water we receive in Christ heals, restores, and fills us with joy—and it cannot remain hidden.

Living the Gospel

Every soul is thirsty, but only Christ can satisfy that thirst. This week, come to him in prayer and in the sacraments and ask for his living water to well up within you. Then, take a step of evangelization: share with a friend, coworker, or family member a concrete way God has met you in your need. Your story may become the spark that helps another discover Christ, the source of living water.

Ponder and Pray

» Where in your life do you feel the thirst of the Israelites in the desert—places of grumbling, discouragement, or longing? How can you turn those desires into prayer, asking Christ to quench them with his living water?

» The Samaritan woman discovered that only Jesus could meet her deepest needs. What desires or pursuits in your life may be pointing to a greater, supernatural longing for intimacy with God?

“ But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us. ”
—Romans 5:8

» Like the woman at the well, you are called not only to receive but also to share. How can your testimony draw others to believe in Jesus this Lent?

75TH ANNIVERSARY PRAYER

Prayer

Gracious Father,

We praise and thank You for the joy of celebrating 75 years of the Roman Catholic Church in the Cayman Islands.

The seeds of faith that were planted in our Islands by the Jesuits of Jamaica have grown from a small mission of a handful of Catholics into a vibrant Roman Catholic Communion.

We thank You Lord for Your grace in calling us to be Your people, for Your love revealed to us in Christ Your Son, and for Your gift of the Holy Spirit and the joy of salvation.

We pray that Your Holy Spirit will continue to unite us in the bonds of love, and guide and direct us toward what lies ahead.

Bless all who have been generous stewards in building our faith community, and grant us the grace to be bold missionary disciples.

Bless our Parish in the Cayman Islands by raising up good and holy families, loving husbands, wives and devoted parents and children. Raise up dedicated and generous leaders from our families and friends who will serve Your people as Priests, Brothers, Deacons, Sisters, and Lay Ministers.

May this Anniversary yield greater impact and deeper purpose rooted in Christ, that all will be for the greater glory of God.

We entrust our Parish to you, Most Holy Lord, and pray for Your continued blessings on our Churches and School.

Amen.

PARKING SAFETY

When you attend Mass on Sundays or visit the Church/Chapel or Parish offices during the week, be mindful of all parking lot safety precautions that you would take in other parking spaces on island.

- Be mindful of how you're parking your car, using the spaces as you should.
- Only park in designated parking spaces at all times.
- Do not block the areas that are coned off as they are for everyone's safety.
- Do not leave handbags, electronics and other valuables in your car. In case your car is broken into, your possessions will be securely with you.
- Lock all your car doors as you leave the car.

PLEASE KEEP OUR CHURCH TIDY!

Thank you for helping to keep our church tidy! Please take a moment after Mass to ensure that all hymnbooks and United in Christ Missals are neatly placed in the racks so that the church is ready for the next Mass.

3rd Sunday of Lent
God-Centered Stewards

"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again." JOHN 4:13

Jesus reminds us that material things, even something as basic as water, can never satisfy us over the long run. When we build our lives around material possessions we will always want more, and no amount will ever satisfy our desire. True joy and peace only come when we follow Jesus - when we as His Stewards become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

How to Lent

Lent is right around the corner. In How To Lent, you will be guided by priests and religious in the disciplines of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving so that you can make this your best Lent yet.

St. Frances

Join the Tierney family as they celebrate the feast of Saint Frances of Rome, patroness of homemaking! Learn about practicing the corporal works of mercy in the home, the very Catholic Lenten history of pretzels and beer, and watch Kendra and three-year-old Barbara make something they like to call "trash can soup." PRAYER FOR LIFE

Lord Jesus Christ,
You are the Author of Life,
Who died and now lives forevermore.
May we who work and pray
That children in the womb may be protected
Always draw strength, confidence, and joy
From Your victory over death,
For you are Lord forever and ever.
Amen.
