Twenty-Ninth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

“You do not know what you are asking.”

James and John are anxious to have more power without worrying about how much it will cost them. They ask for powerful positions without thinking about the consequences. They end up without powerful positions but with suffering and death. We may not like to admit it but most of us have a desire to be more important. To have the power to have things our way is often at the enter of our motivation. Jesus came into our world human just like us and divine. Jesus came to earth as a man so that we might learn how to think and act as God wants us to think and act. Jesus took the law and the prophets and summed these up in two commands: to love GOD and love our neighbor. Jesus tells us that to be the servant of all is to be great in GOD's kingdom. Jesus came to show us all that GOD loves us and wants what is best for us. As we work to help others GOD works to help us. Trusting in God is not a simple thing and Jesus never told us that our lives would be simple. All He has asked us to do is to share GOD's love with our neighbor and His Father will take care of the rest, to love more without worrying about what it will cost us.

“No saben lo que pidiendo.”

Jaime y Juan están ansiosos por tener mas poder sin importarles cuanto les costara. Piden posiciones poderosas sin pensar en las consecuencias. Terminan con posiciones poderosas pero con sufrimiento y muerte. Tal vez no nos gusta admitirlo pero la mayoría de nosotros deseamos ser mas importantes. Tener el poder de que las cosas sean a nuestra manera es frecuentemente el centro de nuestra motivación. Jesús vino al mundo humano como nosotros y divino. Jesús vino a la tierra como hombre para que aprendiéramos a pensar y actuar como Dios quería que pensáramos y actuáramos. Jesús tomo la ley y a los profetas y los resumió en dos comandos: Amar a Dios y amar a tu prójimo. Jesús nos dice que ser serviciales en todo es grandioso en el reino de Dios. Jesús vino a mostrarnos a todos que Dios nos ama y quiere lo mejor para nosotros. Mientras trabajamos en ayudar a otros Dios trabaja para ayudarnos. Tener confianza en Dios no era una cosa simple y Jesús siempre nos dijo que nuestras vidas serian simples. Todo lo que El nos pedía hacer era compartir el amor de Dios con nuestro prójimo y Su Padre se encargaría del resto, amar mas sin preocuparnos sobre lo que nos costaría.
