Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
"Do whatever he tells you"

Sound advice from the Mother of God. How much do we listen to our mothers? Of course in today's Gospel this is not the point. Today Jesus is the obedient 30 year old son of Mary of Nazareth. Mary is the wise mother as usual. The idea to focus on today is the imagery of "the wedding". A wedding is a new song, a new creation marking the start of a deeply intimate relationship. That is why so much wedding imagery in Scripture points to the relationship God wants with us.

A wedding ceremony, like an icon, can be a window into a divine reality. Even in unlikely circumstances, God's will to love us can break open our narrow world and cast a powerful light into our shadows.

Today we are not the servant expecting an inferior wine we are a people anxious to live good lives with work and sacrifice so that we may be a Church ready to welcome our groom.

Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
"Hagan lo que él les diga"

Buen consejo de la Madre de Dios. ¿Cuánto escuchamos a nuestras madres? Por supuesto, en el Evangelio de hoy, este no es el punto. Hoy Jesús es el hijo obediente de 30 años de María de Nazaret. María es la madre sabia como siempre. La idea de centrarse en la actualidad es la imagen de 'boda'. Una boda es una nueva canción, una nueva creación que marca el inicio de una relación profundamente íntima. Es por eso que tantas imágenes de bodas en las Escrituras apuntan a la relación que Dios quiere con nosotros.

Una ceremonia de boda, como un icono, puede ser una ventana a una realidad divina. Incluso en circunstancias improbables, la voluntad de Dios de amarnos puede abrir nuestro estrecho mundo y proyectar una luz poderosa en nuestras sombras.

Hoy no somos el sirviente que espera un vino inferior, somos un pueblo ansioso por vivir una buena vida con trabajo y sacrificio para que podamos ser una Iglesia lista para recibir a nuestro novio.
