Missionaries of Gratitude

GOSPEL

Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Then he told them a parable. "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest... But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?'" (Lk 12: 14-21)

COMMENTARY

We must renew our faith in eternal life. It is a very important truth, one of the key points of our religion. It alone gives us the true measure of things and helps us to relativize so many problems to which we give excessive importance. It is with this eternal dimension that we can confront our present difficulties, without losing peace and hope. Everything in this world will pass away; however, the world to come, eternity with God, will never pass away. With this perspective, we must also be charitable to our neighbor in need.

Although the first reason for our love of God and neighbor is gratitude to the Lord, who has loved us so much, we must not forget the other reason, which the Lord reminds us of in this Sunday's parable: the reward for good works. Christ warns us that there is a hereafter, crossing through the narrow door of death, in which we will be judged by the love we have had in our earthly life. If we had that measure, that judgment, before us, we would not hesitate to serve the poor, because we would consider it a magnificent investment for the future, an investment that will provide us with the highest interest rates just when we need it the most.

Therefore, first out of gratitude, and secondly in order to receive from God the gift of eternal life, let us take care to guard against all kinds of greed. It is obvious that we have material needs and that it is advisable to be prudent and to save for possible future bad times. But do we have to save so much, while others can't even make it to tomorrow?

PURPOSE

Purpose: Demonstrate your gratitude to God with good works. Give generously of your time or money to those in need.

PRAYER

Jesus, I trust in you.

I know that whatever happens to me is a fruit of your love.

Jesus, I love you.

You are first in my heart.

Jesus, I adore you.

You are more important than my job, my money or any other thing.

Jesus, I GIVE YOU THANKS

For having created me, for having become man,
for having died and risen from the dead,
for the Eucharist and Confession, for the Church, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the saints, for the things that I have had,
for the things that I have, because I am able to help others, and for the affection that I receive.

Jesus, I ask for your forgiveness.

For the evil that I have committed and for the good I have failed to do.

Jesus, I ask for your help.

I ask for spiritual graces,
such as the overcoming of my defects
and for material help, for me,
for others and for society.

Jesus, I offer myself to you.

You can count on me for whatever you want.

LIKE MARY.

With the tenderness of your mother and through Her way of living by living the virtues.
