GOSPEL

"The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth?" (Lk 16:10-13)

COMMENTARY

There is an experience that priests usually have when they hear confessions: some penitents say that they do not have sins, despite the fact that they have not gone to confession for many years. Of course, they are referring to certain sins: not killing, not stealing large amounts, not cheating on their spouse etc. However, there is an infinite number of venial sins that many commit without giving them any importance. And, more importantly, there are many more sins of omission which we should also take into account. The Lord does not want us to be His fair-weather friends but to be His totally and completely. He wants us to be faithful in great matters, of course, but also in the small ones, in the daily ones, in those in which we can more easily show Him our love.

Furthermore, and following the teaching thread of this Gospel account: if we are not capable of being faithful in small matters, how will we be faithful in the great? Theoretically, we should be willing to be faithful to Christ even if it means torture and martyrdom; however, this difficult goal may be impossible if we are not trained to do what God asks of us in infinitely less harsh conditions. We have so many excuses for not doing God's will and for not fulfilling our obligations: it is too hot; it is raining; we are tired; we have already helped on another occasion etc. And so, life passes us by, with good intentions that reassure our conscience, but with achievements that, in our hands, are imperfect.

PURPOSE

Do what you have to do well, without looking for excuses. Help others in need, without caring that your help does not fully solve their problem.

PRAYER

Jesus, I trust in you.

I know that whatever happens to me is a fruit of your love.

Jesus, I love you.

You are first in my heart.

Jesus, I adore you.

You are more important than my job, my money or any other thing.

Jesus, I GIVE YOU THANKS

For having created me, for having become man,
for having died and risen from the dead,
for the Eucharist and Confession, for the Church, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the saints, for the things that I have had,
for the things that I have, because I am able to help others, and for the affection that I receive.

Jesus, I ask for your forgiveness.

For the evil that I have committed and for the good I have failed to do.

Jesus, I ask for your help.

I ask for spiritual graces,
such as the overcoming of my defects
and for material help, for me,
for others and for society.

Jesus, I offer myself to you.

You can count on me for whatever you want.

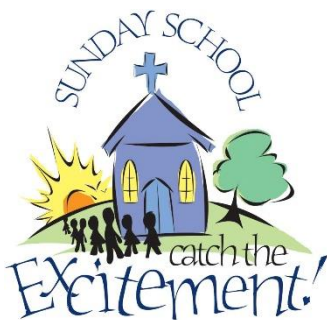

LIKE MARY.

With the tenderness of your mother and through Her way of living by living the virtues.

40 HOURS DEVOTION

In preparation for the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary

Come, See and Give Thanks!

Greetings in Christ,

The Feast Day of Our Lady of the Rosary, our Patronal Feast Day, is coming very soon. It is a tradition of the Church to spend the days before the Patron Feast Day in prayer and Adoration. Beginning on Wednesday, the 5th of October, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed upon the Altar in the Church. Adoration will continue until Friday evening, when the Parish will celebrate the Feast Day of Our Lady of the Rosary at 6:00 p.m., followed by a reception!

This is an opportunity to gather as a community, offering thanks to almighty God for the gift of the Parish, the gift of our Faith, and the gift of the Most Holy Eucharist. It is also an opportunity to pray for our Parish, our families, our friends and ourselves. Finally, it is an opportunity to grown in devotion to Christ in the most Blessed Sacrament.

May God bless you all!
