March 1, 2024

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend, March 9/10, the Diocese of Palm Beach will take up its annual collection for the education of seminarians and formation of priests, which is an essential need in our Church today. The funds raised in this collection are used to defray the cost of tuition, housing, education and pastoral training of our seminarians.

Currently, there are eight seminarians from our Diocese who are dedicating themselves to this important process of understanding their vocation.

Because of your support, our seminarians can journey in faith without being financially burdened. They can devote themselves fully to the task of priestly formation, thus ensuring that the sacraments will be available to our faithful for many years to come.

St. Paul said, "I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Christ Jesus" (Phil 1:6). May the good work forming our seminarians, along with your prayers, pay abundant dividends with an increase in vocations.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

The Deeply
Scandalous
First-Century
Statement:
"I Believe in One God"

*Credo
in unum
Deum*

Once, I heard a story of a woman who lives in the mountains of Colorado. Every day when she drives to work, she sees a beautiful mountain vista. Her backyard looks like a postcard. When her friends and family visit her, they ask, "What is it like to be surrounded by so much beauty?" She responds with a wry smile. "After a while, I don't even notice it. It just becomes the background."

Her scenic surroundings blend into the background of her life.

The message of Christianity often functions the same way in our modern society. The Gospel is so normalized and repeated that we often overlook how incredible it is.

People are losing faith because their faith just became the background of their lives, and they were never reminded to look up.

We pray the Creed, saying, "I believe in one God, the Father almighty..."

But sometimes it doesn't feel like what we're saying is truly cutting to our hearts. The recitation of the Creed can feel robotic.

Keep reading, and you will see how shocking our Faith was – scandalous even – as it was unfolding in the world. You will see your faith with new eyes, like seeing a spectacular landscape for the first time. Each time you pray the Creed, you will be reminded of what you believe.

Think of how unusual it was in the first century to believe in one God, much less the Resurrection.

Con't-

The first statement of the Nicene Creed is "I believe in one God." When this creed was first professed, Christians lived in a polytheistic world. Jews were the outliers, a peculiar people with the seemingly strange notion that only one God existed.

Jews actually made the confession of God's oneness every day. Even in our own day, faithful Jewish men proclaim every morning and evening, "Hear, O Israel: the LORD our God is ONE." (Deuteronomy 6:4).

All the commandments of God, including the Ten Commandments, flow from this reality that God is one. So the first commandment on Sinai was "You shall have no other gods before me" (Exodus 20:3). The greatest commandment in Deuteronomy adds a positive to this negative: since there is only one God, "you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might". (Deuteronomy 6:5)

The oneness of God demands that we worship him alone. This brings focus and coherence to our lives. It unifies our lives around a center that is truly the center of all reality. And it provides a unifying foundation for all people throughout the world.

Idolatry is about worshiping something other than God. Idols are, in fact, often made according to the idol-maker's image and likeness. If you examine the Roman pantheon, for example, you can easily see this. Jupiter, Juno, Mars, Venus, and the other "gods" have all the foibles and passions that we have, only on a much larger, even titanic scale.

Even now, it can be difficult to avoid making idols in our hearts—out of work, others' opinions, fear, money, or relationships. In fact, the world encourages us to place all our value and time in external things. There are idols everywhere.

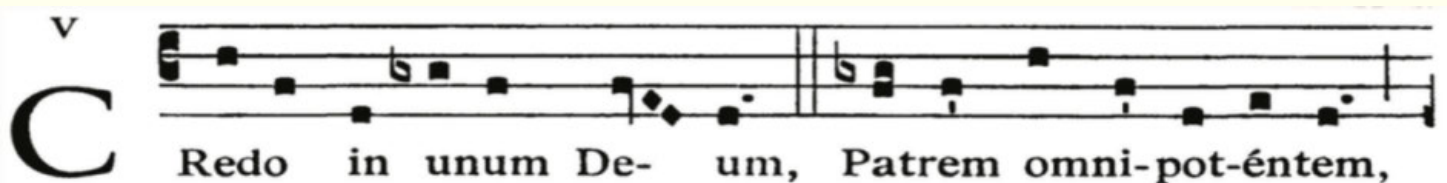

If we're not careful, these things become "gods" in our lives.

One idol usually doesn't satisfy for long, so another is made. Idolatry thus leads to polytheism, a confused pantheon of different gods who are often in conflict. In the story of the Trojan war told in The Iliad, for example, some gods are sponsoring one army and other gods, the other army.

This illustrates how polytheism leads not to unity but to dissolution and dissipation, both in the human heart and in human society. As you can see, in Jesus' time, believing in one God and not having idols was a foreign and almost scandalous profession outside the Jewish faith. This call to confess and worship the one God, and that God alone, is the first thing mentioned in the Creed, which we profess every Sunday at Mass.

Next time you pray the Creed, really think about the words you are saying. Think about this crazy reality of putting all your faith and your identity in our one God, renouncing the little idols in your life each time you pray it.

HASTA EL 24 DE MARZO

La misión y la alegría de Grace Packs Inc. es combatir el hambre y la falta de nutrición que sufren los niños empobrecidos en edad escolar en la Costa del Tesoro. Actualmente servimos a 790 estudiantes de 37 colegios públicos de St. Lucie. Cada semana preparamos los paquetes y los entregamos a cada estudiante los viernes.

Únanse a Saint Lucie para coleccionar alimentos no perecederos para la despensa de Grace Pack, y oremos por la bendición de Dios en este esfuerzo. Les pedimos que SOLO donen los siguientes artículos:

- Paquetes individuales de avena (en la caja)
    - Barras de granola
    - Sopa enlatada (latas de 10 o 12 oz.)
