AUT MALI, AUT MALE, AUT MALA

In the Sermon on the Mount, among other things, Jesus teaches the disciples how to be effective in prayer. “Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.” He wants them to ask with confidence, using the example of a human father responding to his son: “Or what man among you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!” (Matthew 7:7-11).

This seems easy and straightforward. And yet, sometimes we are frustrated by the response, or what seems to be a lack of response, to our request. Although prayer is infallible, we who pray are not! Saint Augustine diagnoses the problem in his famous tome, City of God. He suggests that our prayer is not heard because we ask “aut mali, aut male, aut mala,” as bad persons, or in a bad way, or for bad things.

Mali (“bad persons”). The prayer of one who lives a sinful and unrepentant life is presumptuous and offensive to God. Saint James teaches us in his epistle that “The fervent prayer of a righteous person is very powerful” (Jas 5:16). God is not moved by the words of our prayer but rather by what he sees in our hearts and from our lives. Under the heading Jesus teaches us to pray, the Catechism of the Catholic Church states that, “From the Sermon on the Mount onwards, Jesus insists on conversion of heart” (#2608). We see time and again in the Bible that God readily responds to the prayers of those who are faithful to him. If we want to be heard, we must seek to live in accord with God’s will.

Male (“badly”). Prayer must be offered in the right way and with the right attitude. Jesus says, “In praying, do not babble like the pagans, who think that they will be heard because of their many words” (Mat 6:7). Our confidence must be rooted in faith. We must rely on God’s graciousness, not on our good works or pretended merit. To pray well is to pray from a place of humility, which is the foundation of all prayer (Catechism #2559). In referring to communal prayer, Saint Paul says that “everything must be done properly and in order” (1 Cor 14:40). I think this is true when we are praying privately as well. The pattern for effective prayer is given to us by Jesus in the Our Father. We are to approach God as his children and seek that his Name be exalted. We are to ask that his kingdom come among us, in our personal lives, in our Church, and in our world. We are to seek for what is most important, that is, “our daily bread.” We are to ask forgiveness on condition that we forgive others, and we are to plead that we be strengthened against temptation so that we might be victorious in the final trial. In other words, by our prayer, in one way or another, we ought to ask for perseverance in faith, hope and love.

Mala (“bad things”). Effective prayer must center on what is good. “You ask but you do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions” (Jas 4:3). Above all, we must ask to receive the Holy Spirit, whom the Father is always pleased to give, as Jesus teaches in the Gospel of Luke: “how much more the Father in heaven will give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him.” (Lk 11:13). Moreover, sometimes the very thing we want will, in fact, not be good for us. A loving Father, therefore, must withhold it from us. Only God has the wisdom and foreknowledge to know what we really need, and he has promised that “all things work for good for those who love God” (Rom 8:28). For this reason, in every prayer we must ask for the Holy Spirit, who prays in us with “inexpressible groanings” (Rom 8:26).

FIRST READING EX 20:1-17

In those days, God delivered all these commandments: "I, the LORD, am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me. You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth; you shall not bow down before them or worship them. For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishment for their fathers' wickedness on the children of those who hate me, down to the third and fourth generation; but bestowing mercy down to the thousandth generation on the children of those who love me and keep my commandments. "You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes his name in vain. "Remember to keep holy the sabbath day. Six days you may labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD, your God. No work may be done then either by you, or your son or daughter, or your male or female slave, or your beast, or by the alien who lives with you. In six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them; but on the seventh day he rested. That is why the LORD has blessed the sabbath day and made it holy. "Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you. You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him."

SECOND READING 1 COR 1:22-25

Brothers and sisters: Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL JN 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken. While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Cre - ate in me a clean heart, O God, a clean heart, O God, cre - ate in me.

- O God, in your goodness have mercy on me.
In your compassion wipe out my offense.
Thoroughly wash me from my guilt,
and cleanse me from my sins.

and my sin is always before me;
against only you have I sinned,
and done what is evil in your eyes.

a steadfast spirit renew in me.
Cast me not out from your presence,
O God.
Take not your Holy Spirit from me.

Parish Finances

Thank you for your ongoing support of the parish in these challenging times!

Collection for February 28, 2021	$17,794
Includes $6,600 estimated E-Giving -46% participation
Budgeted Wkly Collection 2020/2021	$14,231
Actual Average Wkly Collection 2020/21	$14,322

For the 2021 fiscal year our budgeted Offertory income goal is $740,000. This is less than we need to balance the overall parish budget. We plan to make up that deficit from the Annual Parish Appeal. This week about seventy-seven percent of our regular weekly donors contributed. As a result, our Offertory income for February 28 was $3,563 more than the budgeted Offertory income. Please keep up your good work until all our weekly donors return to Mass.

Parish Appeal Update

The 2021 Parish Appeal is off to a good start thanks to you. In the first four months of the campaign we have commitments from two hundred and fifty-one families for more than $124,500 with $107,399 received. The first $125,000 will go toward parish expenses; the remainder will go to the emergency fund for unbudgeted, major expenses for the church; e.g., the ultimate replacement of the church roof.

Ways to Donate to Offertory and Parish Appeal

The Finance Council and Father Scott thank you for your generosity to the parish. There are multiple ways to donate to the Offertory and Parish Appeal:

SOLEMNITY OF SAINT JOSEPH

During the Holy Year of Saint Joseph

Friday, March 19th

7:00 PM MASS - ABVM CHURCH

Immediately following Mass, we will have a CONSECRATION TO SAINT JOSEPH.

What does it mean for a person to be consecrated to St. Joseph? It means that you acknowledge that he is your spiritual father, and you want to be like him. To show it, you entrust yourself entirely to his paternal care so that he can help you acquire his virtues and become holy. Consecration to St. Joseph means you make a formal act of filial entrustment to your spiritual father so that he can take care of your spiritual well-being and lead you to God. The person who consecrates himself to St. Joseph wants to be as close to their spiritual father as possible, to the point of resembling him in virtue and holiness. Saint Joseph, in turn, will give those consecrated to him his loving attention, protection, and guidance.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE™

From February 17th to March 28th, our community will take part in 40 Days for Life...a groundbreaking, coordinated international mobilization. 18,003 lives have been saved from abortion since 2007. We pray that, with God's help, this will mark the beginning of the end of abortion in our community and beyond. The ABVM Respect Life Group has committed to give witness in front of West Chester's Planned Parenthood on Thursday, March 11th from 7 am to 7 pm. Would you like to be part of a small group that spends 1 hour in prayer at Planned Parenthood on those days? For information or questions, please contact Stephanie at tobinfamily8@gmail.com, call 484-467-6675, or visit website www.40daysforlife.com.

ABVM Youth Group Sunday, March 7th

ABVM is so excited to be able to restart our youth group for our middle school and high school students. I have had many people reach out to ask what do we do in youth group. And what is it all about? Youth group is a chance for your child to be among other children their age. They form friendships and are taught ways to strengthen their own understanding and relationship with God.

Our program consists of music, group discussions, games, crafts, service projects and a place for them to socialize. This is not a group that teaches religious education, but instead an understanding of our Catholic faith and how it pertains to your child. We are living in stressful and uncertain times with COVID, leaving our youth feeling disconnected and missing the old "normal". This time is the most important time for our youth to find solace and a home in their own parish community. Each week there is a theme or topic we discuss in an effort to understand how God works in their lives and how they can find that relationship and strengthen it. All the youth wear masks, and we follow COVID guidelines in order to provide a safe environment. Youth are invited each Sunday evening from 6:30-8:30 pm and are encouraged to bring a friend whether they are a part of our parish or not. For questions or concerns, please reach out to our Youth Group Leader, Molly Clark, at mollycclark11@gmail.com.

Religious Education News

On Thursday, March 18, 2021, there will be an important Reconciliation & First Holy Communion Meeting for Parents at 6:30 pm in the Assumption BVM Church. For questions, please contact Janine Kramer at the ABVM Religious Education Office at abvmfaithformation@gmail.com or call 610-869-8575.
