

Prophetic Words given in preparation for the 2020 NC Regional Gathering

From one of our sisters

"I will run the way of your commands, for you will enlarge my heart"

Psalm 119:32

I stumbled across this beautiful poem/prayer by a saint I was not familiar with. It seems to stress the same thing as that verse. - We are totally dependent on God even to enable us to receive all the good things He wishes to bestow.

*O Lord my God,
Teach my heart this day where and how to see you,
Where and how to find you.
You have made me and remade me,
And you have bestowed on me
All the good things I possess,
And still I do not know you.
I have not yet done that
For which I was made.
Teach me to seek you,
For I cannot seek you
Unless you teach me,
Or find you
Unless you show yourself to me.
Let me seek you in my desire,
Let me desire you in my seeking.
Let me find you by loving you,
Let me love you when I find you.*

St. Anselm (1033-1109)

From one of our brothers

"I want to bring My children close to My heart, into communion with My Son and the Holy Spirit. In this holy place you will know how I see things, how I long for souls to be with you there. I am sending you out to touch and heal, to preach and teach, to give and receive. My power is present in humble love, and in the touch of encouragement and peace. Sing My song of victory and truth, and let ears hear it and turn to Me for what they need. Pray with confidence, and I will answer with joyful help and a Father's heart for His children."

Shortly after this, the Lord put Revelation 3:21 on my heart, which I had to look up:

"To the one who is victorious, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I was victorious and sat down with my Father on his throne."

This strikes me as an invitation to persevere right now ("to the one who is victorious"), and a promise of an eternal unity and intimacy with the Lord - "sit with me on my throne" ... I guess we can squeeze in there right next to him. Sounds like family to me!

From one of our sisters

"The Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and make you remember all that I have told you".

John 14:26

From one of our sisters

When I asked Our Father what his will is for our Regional Gathering this is what I heard:

I desire to reveal my heart to you. I desire to pour out my love and graces in abundance like oil flowing down Aaron's beard. Abundance, grace, liberty, freedom, rest for wearied souls, deliverance from bondage, joy where there is sadness, hope where there is despair. Freedom for my people. I declare a day of liberation, a day of freedom. Enter into the promised land of my mercy. Enter into the promised land of my joy. Enter into the promised land of my Presence.

You have been sealed with the Holy Spirit and my grace is sufficient for you. Stretch out your hand. Open your hearts. My deliverance is here. My mercy is here. My freedom is here.

Is there anyone else who can deliver you? Is there any other Rock, but I your Lord?

Trust in me. Oh people pour out your hearts to me, for in a time of trouble I will save you. I have redeemed you. I have called you by name. You are mine. You are my chosen beloved. Live in my peace. Live in the unity of the Spirit you have been given. My grace is sufficient for you. My peace is sufficient for you. My mercy knows no end. My love has no limits. My grace is falling on you right now.

STAND UP! Your deliverer is at hand! Open wide your mouth and I will fill it. Open wide your hearts and I will free them. For I am he who has come to set you free and to draw you to Our Father. Receive my peace children. Come into the heart of Our Father who is waiting with open arms. He is calling you home to His heart.

From one of our brothers

All of my graces are free, and freely poured out on you every day. Don't block these blessings or rationalize them away. I paid the price on the Cross to freely pour out these gifts on the world.

My Father wants you to receive the joy and light of my Kingdom in every breath of every day. Victory has been won and the fate of evil has been decided. While it still presents itself in dying gasps, it holds no power over those consecrated to me.

Fully live this truth and boldly go in my Name to touch and heal and release the captives around you. My work is far from done in this world, and your hands and feet are mine to bring love and healing everywhere.

Don't settle for comfort and false peace, but seek my peace in the work I have for you. Listen with trust as I lead you!
