Father's Corner

This week's scriptures heard at Mass have two themes: unity and reform. Neither is easy, but both are necessary to enter the kingdom of heaven. Let me begin by quoting St. Paul in his Letter to the Corinthians. "By the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ, I appeal to all of you, my friends, to agree in what you say, so that there will be no divisions among you. Be completely united, with only one thought and one purpose."

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, I ask you to pray for two things. Actually I ask you to pray for many things more, but I will limit it to two for this bulletin. First, pray for Christian unity. Our Lord prayed that "They all be one in thought and purpose," and let us make the same prayer. Christ is not divided and neither should we be. Second, even in parishes there can be a sense of division. For example, what ministries are offered, how often and who uses what space can cause division. When one group feels superior to others, conflicts will arise. Should more money be spent on the youth than adult ministries? The list can go on and on. If we are about Jesus, then all our ministries should bring us together and never separate us. What we do in the parish is never about who is doing what in what space, but rather how are we serving the Lord. Men, women, young adults and children all can serve Our Lord, each with their own capabilities. If we truly serve our Lord, then let there be no divisions amongst us. It can never be "us" and "them" but rather always "we."

This leads me to our second theme this weekend, "Reform your lives! The kingdom of heaven is at hand." These words of Jesus warn us against sleeping our lives away, against spiritual laziness. Like headlines about a disaster on the front page of the newspaper, the words and actions of Jesus are urgent and often unsettling. Our Lord makes it clear that we cannot afford confusion about where we are heading. We must realize that our words and actions of each day, of every moment, have eternal significance.

Our faith should be more precious than all things. We should pray that our lives are a gift that we return to the Lord in even greater generosity as we follow our call to heroic holiness. If we cannot say this is true, then we are not the Christians our Lord calls us to be. If we realize the stakes are eternal, then the words of Christ will not be lost upon us. We will take his words and teachings to heart, as spirit and life. "Reform your lives."

All Catholics Should Be Confirmed

A concern of mine is all too often parents allow teens to drop out of the CCD program before being confirmed. This saddens me greatly. Decisions we make in life often have consequences. Confirmation is saying yes to Jesus and the Holy Spirit. Do we allow our kids to say no to that? At baptism we enter into the covenant with Christ. Part of the covenant is that parents promise to see that their children are confirmed. If you or your child have dropped out of CCD before being confirmed, please come and see me to talk about it.

God's Blessings,

Father Jim Trempe

St. Max's Spiritual Adopt-A-Baby Program

Forty-four years ago a court decision was rendered which legalized abortion throughout the entire nine months of pregnancy. This decision, Roe v. Wade, is the reason over 1 million abortions have been committed in the U.S. each year. To help stop the anti-life push around the world, the late Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen encouraged the spiritual adoption of an unborn child. This is done by praying that the one particular but unknown child's life be spared from abortion and be allowed to continue to live. To help accomplish this, it was recommended an individual say the following daily prayer for a period of nine months:

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of [baby's name] the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

- Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Your prayers CAN make a difference between whether a baby will be born...or aborted. Our prayers can also be a form of spiritual support for both of the parents. Please share the love of life given to you by the Lord of all life and join in spiritually adopting a baby.

Sign up to spiritually adopt a baby today!
