Father's Corner

A little boy was riding his wagon on a sidewalk. Suddenly, one of the wheels fell off. The little boy jumped out of the wagon and said, "I'll be damned!" A priest happened to be walking by, and he said, "Son, you ought not to use words like that! That's a bad word. When something happens, just say, 'Praise the Lord.'" So the little boy grumbled and put the wheel back on the wagon and started on down the sidewalk. About 10 yards farther, the wheel fell off again. The little boy said, "Praise the Lord!" Suddenly, the wheel jumped up off the ground and put itself right back on the wagon. The priest saw it all and said, "I'll be damned." We are a lot like that priest. We believe in God's miraculous, glorious power, but we don't expect it to happen to us. We know in our hearts we need God. We need His power. We need His awesome presence. Each of us can look down the road of our lives and see some crisis awaiting us - perhaps it's a family crisis, or maybe it's a crisis in your job, or with your health, or with a loved one. We can all see the crisis and although we know God loves us, we also know that in order to stand up to the moment and face what's coming, we need to connect again with the power and presence of God.

Many years ago our Lord Jesus had exactly that kind of moment. He went up on a mountain. Jesus took Peter, James and John and was "transfigured" before them. In other words, He showed them who He really was and is-- God. Jesus is God. We don't know what God actually looks like, but we get a glimpse this weekend. He became a "dazzling white, whiter than any bleacher could make it." He knew He was in the last weeks of His life. He could look out from the mountain toward Jerusalem and see the crisis that awaited Him. He knew in Jerusalem He would experience betrayal and denial. He would be arrested. He would be put on trial. A crown of thorns would be thrust on His head to pierce His brow, and nails would be driven into His hands. He knew all of that, and He knew God loved Him. Now in these moments on the mountain, He needed to connect again with the Father in heaven. During this Lent, we too need to connect with Our Father in heaven. I once offered Mass at the place of the Transfiguration. I'll share the story this weekend with you during my homily.

How can we connect with our Heavenly Father? Pray with the little black book-not just read it, but pray it, read/pray the daily scriptures, read and pray the Book of Mercy by Bishop Callahan, read/pray your Rediscover Jesus or Resisting Happiness book, pray the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary. On Tuesday evenings, attend Mass, Adult Faith Formation, Holy Hour, Stations of the Cross. Say your meal prayers as well as prayers in the morning and night. Make a good confession.

Procession: During Lent there is no opening song. The servers, cross-bearer, book bearer, MC and priest will process in silence during tolling of bells. The congregation is asked to kneel (for those who are able). Out of respect for those who are in a praying, if you arrive after the procession has begun, please be courteous and wait for the congregation to stand before taking a seat in the church.

Lent is a good time to get in contact with our faith. Part of that is through the Sacred Liturgy. We will chant the traditional Kyrie (Greek – Lord Have Mercy, Christ Have Mercy, Lord Have Mercy), Agnus Die (Latin – Lamb of God) and Sanctus (Latin – Holy Holy) during the season of Lent.

Annual Appeal Update: Thank you to all those who have pledged to the Diocesan Annual Appeal. Normally I push to finish the appeal big time in the month of March. If you have not made your pledge, please do so by the end of March. If everyone who has not made their pledge, pledges what they did last year, we'll make our goal. Remember, all dollars that go over our target come back to the parish "tax free."

RCIA: The night before Easter, called the Easter Vigil, somewhere between one half and two million people will be received into the Catholic Church. During the season of Lent, let us keep in our prayers our catechumens who will be baptized and our candidates who will be confirmed and will receive our Lord's Body and Blood for the first time. This year St. Max will welcome Clarissa Hintz, Taylor Helmuth and Paul Przebelski into full communion in the Catholic Church. God's Blessings, -Father Trempe

What's Happening in Your Neighborhood?

Mike Biadasz Farm Safety & Education Fundraiser Saturday, March 18th at 1pm At the Rosholt Fairgrounds

There will be polka music by Steve Burclaw and Friends from 2-6pm. Music by Grand Union will be from 7:30-11pm. There will be food, drinks, basket raffles, 50/50 raffles and a silent auction. Kid's activities include a corn toss contest and pedal tractor races (ages 4-8). All proceeds go to the Memorial Fund.

St. Therese Foundation African Water Project

The Gilchrist Family will be here next weekend to speak at the Masses about the African Water Project. Our past contributions have helped to fund 17 new wells, which provide clean water to about 6,000 people! We again will have a wonderful opportunity to continue to help the St. Therese Foundation in their efforts to bring clean water to those who are in need of it. Thank you for your generosity!

St. Max's Blood Drive

St Max will be sponsoring a blood drive with the Community Blood Center on March 26th from 8:30 to 11:30 at the church. What a generous way of helping a loved one, friend or neighbor during this season of Lent. The signup sheet will be available in the church entry way. Any questions call Ann or Scott Peterson 715-824-3444.
