

Inter Community Sisters Retreat for Women Religious

June 20 – 27, 2025

As Certain as the Dawn

Retreat Master
Sr. Carol Quinlivan, CSJ
Fr. Larry Gosselin, OFM

In our faith we believe that our God will continuously come to our aid. Hosea gives us the assurance that our God's coming "is a certain as the dawn." However, there are times in our lives when skies are bleak, and we cannot detect the light—the dawn. In both the Old and the New Testaments, we are reminded of God's promise to remain with us, "I will never leave you orphans." How do we remind ourselves in "orphan times" that our God is Emmanuel—God with us—even when the dawn is hidden from sight. This retreat explores the archetypal energy of the orphan through prayer, poetry, ritual, and silence to remind us that our God remains through all the storms of our lives.
