WHY we do what we do

This series invites you to explore the meaning behind our Catholic traditions, deepening our worship and understanding of the faith we share as a parish family.

This week's question:

Who are parish trustees and what do they do?

Parish trustees serve an important role in the civil and administrative life of an incorporated Roman Catholic parish. In the Diocese of Albany, parish trustees are appointed by the Bishop and serve within the governance structure established by the Diocese for the good of the local parish community. The trustee role is not a position of personal recognition, but a responsibility of service and stewardship for the overall health, stability, and well-being of the parish communities they serve.

Trustees assist parish leadership in helping ensure that the parish's resources are cared for responsibly, including matters related to property, finances, and administration, always in accordance with Church law, diocesan guidance, and the authority of the Bishop.

We are grateful for the service of our parish trustees:

St. Jude the Apostle Trustees:

Johanna Flanigan and Christopher Harris

St. Michael the Archangel Trustees:

Ann Kowalczyk and Kathy Rosenbaum

For current parish leadership information, please visit our parish website or contact the parish office.

Have You Ever Tried Attending One More Mass Apart from Sunday?

Sunday Mass is the heart of our week. It is where we gather as God's family, hear His Word, and receive the incredible gift of the Eucharist.

But have you ever considered coming to just one additional Mass during the week?

One quiet morning or early afternoon before the busyness begins.

One opportunity to place your family, your worries, your gratitude, and your hopes on the altar.

There is something truly special about weekday Mass. The church is quieter, the pace is slower, and it offers a peaceful moment to encounter the Lord. Yet the greatest gift remains the same: Jesus Christ, truly present in the Holy Eucharist.

Perhaps this week the Lord is extending a gentle invitation:

"Come spend a little more time with Me."

Weekday Mass Schedule

Saint Michael the Archangel

- Monday – 12:10 PM
- Tuesday – 12:10 PM

11:30 AM Eucharistic Adoration (Tues.)

Saint Jude the Apostle

- Wednesday – 8:00 AM

8:30 AM Eucharistic Adoration (Wed.)

- Thursday – 8:00 AM

One extra Mass each week may become the thirty minutes that brings peace, strength, and grace to everything else in your life. We warmly invite you to join us at either Saint Michael the Archangel or Saint Jude the Apostle. Jesus doesn't wait for us only on Sundays—He is here every day, inviting us into His presence.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." — Matthew 11:28
