Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mary Katharine Deeley

A fourth-century legend from Catholics in the Eastern part of the Roman Empire tells us the name of the woman in today's Gospel is Beronike. A woman of great faith, she knew that the Law considered her unclean because she had a flow of blood and no one could touch her. When she saw Jesus, she didn't ask him to touch or even speak to her. She didn't want him to feel what she felt—outcast and isolated. She simply believed that touching his garment would bring her relief.

A couple of weeks ago, St. Paul told us that we walk by faith, not by sight. Faith was all this woman had to go on; everything else had failed. What she heard about Jesus stirred something in her soul, and she followed her convictions. She wasn't disappointed. The power of Christ, who heals us of whatever deeply wounds us, went out immediately to her who dared to hope. When he called out to see who touched him, her fear didn't keep her away. She was saved by faith.

Being saved doesn't always mean miraculous cures, but it does involve standing before Christ as we are—bleeding, broken, sinful—and trusting that he is our answer. We don't know for sure what happened to the woman. But her legend continued.

When Jesus carried his cross to his crucifixion, a woman stepped out to stop the flow of blood and sweat streaking his face. We know her by the Latin translation of Beronike—Veronica—which carries with it an additional meaning: "true icon," in reference to the facial image that Jesus left on her cloth.

DOES GOD CARE WHAT I WEAR TO CHURCH?

Summer activities and vacations can make getting to Mass each week seem like a juggling act. Harder still is finding the time to dress properly and prepare, as we would like. But approaching all aspects of the Eucharist carefully can deepen our Communion with Christ. What we wear can help.

Use this guideline. When deciding what to wear in Church, think about this: If it's something you would wear to a picnic, to play a sport, or to clean out the garage or the house, don't wear it to church—even during the summer!

SUMMER RETREATS

Summer offers us an opportunity for rest and relaxation. It is an ideal time to give attention to the spiritual needs that often go unnoticed among the busy schedules that fill our lives. This summer Our Lady Queen of Peace is offering some spiritual vacations for mind, body and spirit:

August 7-9—Women's Silent Retreat

Retreat follows the theme: Invitation to Joy with all conferences and prayer services and the added attraction of silence throughout the weekend.

August 14-16—Dreams and Spiritual Growth with Sr. Janice Bachman, OP

Working with our dreams can be a great way to deepen our relationship with God. This retreat weekend will discuss classical elements of Jungian dream work and the connection with spiritual growth and prayer. This is a FIRST at Our Lady Queen of Peace. It is open to persons of any or no religious denomination.
