PREPARATION

- Hospitality Ministers should be recruited to welcome the assembly as they arrive and to distribute worship aids.
- At least two readers should be appointed to proclaim the reading(s), to read the Examination of Conscience, and to lead the Litany. They are to be seated in the assembly.
- Musician(s) and cantor(s) should lead the assembly in song. Instrumental music may be played during individual confession. (A list of music suggestions is included herein.)
- A Lectionary or the Order of Penance should be readied with the appropriate readings.
- Lighting may be subdued. Candle(s) should be lit at the ambo.
- Stations for confessors should be prepared. Priests might stand or sit in isolated areas around the main body of the church to receive penitents. In this way, the communal nature of the rite is maintained. Candles may light these stations.
- For the sake of simplicity, the presider alone or the presider and preacher could participate in the procession. Other priests could be seated in the sanctuary or in a reserved area before the liturgy begins.

THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

LITURGICAL SONG

When the faithful have gathered, and as the Priest enters the church, if appropriate, a psalm, antiphon, or appropriate song may be sung. (See music suggestions herein.)

SIGN OF THE CROSS

GREETING

Presider: Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

All: And with your spirit.

INTRODUCTION

Sample

Presider: In this Lenten season we are all called to reflect on our own baptism and to remember that we are claimed for Christ. In the proclamation of the word and the grace of the sacraments, we are given ample opportunities grow as Christ's disciples.

But let us acknowledge that, too often, we fail to do so. We listen to culture instead of Christ's call. We pursue our own interests instead of serving the needs of others. We tear down instead of building up those whom we should protect. We shy away from public confrontation instead of standing up for justice and peace.

We gather tonight [today] to seek God's forgiveness for our sins. We acknowledge what we have done, but we must also recognize what we have failed to do.

Let us beg God's mercy and resolve to do better. And as we are forgiven, may we be more eager to forgive others and to bring God's peace to this fractured world.

Christ asks no less of those who belong to him.

PRAYER

Presider: Let us pray, brothers and sisters, (brethren)
that God, who calls us to conversion,
will grant us the grace of true and fruitful repentance.

Silent prayer

Graciously hear the prayers of those who call upon you,
we ask, O Lord,
and forgive the sins of those who confess to you,
granting us in your kindness both pardon and peace.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE WORD OF GOD

The following are suggested readings. Alternative readings may be selected.

“If there are several readings, a Psalm or other appropriate liturgical song or even a period of silence should intervene between them, so that the word of God may be understood more deeply by everyone and heartfelt assent be given to it. If there is only one reading, it is desirable that it be taken from the Gospel” (Order of Penance 51).

The readings are printed elsewhere in this booklet, for ease of rehearsal.

*Today I have set before you life and prosperity,
death and doom.*

HOMILY

BIBLICAL READINGS

In the Order of Penance, Chapter IV provides “Various Texts to be Used in the Celebration of Reconciliation.” Besides beautiful options for greetings, invitations, and prayers, the chapter lists the following Scripture passages which may be used “For the Reconciliation of Several Penitents.” The text offers multiple options from the Old Testament (32); Psalms (15); New Testament Letters (28); and Gospels (26). “The readings proposed here have been selected for the benefit of pastors and the faithful. For diversity, and according to the special nature of the assembly, other readings may be chosen” (OP 101).

calling to mind the kindness of God our Father, let us confess our sins, that we may obtain his mercy.

All: I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

as Christ himself commanded us,
that as we forgive one another our trespasses,
he will forgive us our sins:

All: Our Father, ...

PRAYER

Presider: O God, who have prepared helps suited to our weakness, grant, we pray,
that we may receive their healing effects with joy
and reflect them in a holy way of life.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

INDIVIDUAL CONFESSION OF SIN AND ABSOLUTION

The presider or other minister might tell the assembly where the confessors will be located. Some brief words regarding the manner of confessions should be given. The people may be encouraged to accept one of the penances which are found in the worship aid or the confessors may give a penance suited to the individual. The assembly may be advised to remain in church if there is to be a common ending. Quiet instrumental music might be played during this time.

PRAYER OF ABSOLUTION

Confessor: God, the Father of mercies,
through the Death and Resurrection of his Son has reconciled the world to himself and poured out the Holy Spirit for the forgiveness of sins;
through the ministry of the Church,
may God grant you pardon and peace.
AND I ABSOLVE YOU FROM YOUR SINS, IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND OF THE SON, ✠ AND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT.

Penitent: Amen.

PROCLAMATION OF PRAISE FOR GOD'S MERCY

"When the individual confessions have been completed, the Priest who is presiding over the celebration, with the other Priests near him, invites all present to offer thanks and encourages them to do good works by which the grace of repentance in the life of each one and of the entire community will be shown. It is therefore appropriate for all to sing a Psalm or hymn or to say a litany to acknowledge God's power and mercy, for example, the Canticle of the Blessed Virgin Mary or Psalm 136 (135):1-9, 13-14, 16, 24-26" (OP 56).

See the enclosed music suggestions or use one of the Scripture citations below.

CONCLUDING PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Presider: Almighty and merciful God,
 who wonderfully created human nature,
 and still more wonderfully restored it,
 you do not abandon sinners,
 but pursue them with a father's love;
 you sent your Son into the world to destroy sin and death by his Passion and restore life and joy to us by the Resurrection;
 you poured the Holy Spirit into our hearts
 that we might be your children and heirs;
 you constantly renew us by the Sacraments of salvation,
 that we may be freed from slavery to sin
 and be transformed more fully day by day into the image of your beloved Son.

We give you thanks for the wonders of your mercy and praise you with the whole Church, singing to you a new song
with voice, heart, and deed.
To you be glory, through Christ, in the Holy Spirit,
now and for ever.

All: Amen.

READINGS

FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 30:15-20

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

Moses said to the people:

“Today I have set before you
life and prosperity, death and gloom.

If you obey the commandments of the LORD, your God,
which I enjoin on you today,
loving him, and walking in his ways,
and keeping his commandments, statutes and decrees,
you will live and grow numerous,
and the LORD, your God,
will bless you in the land you are entering to occupy.

If, however, you turn away your hearts and will not listen,
but are led astray and adore and serve other gods,
I tell you now that you will certainly perish;
you will not have a long life
on the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and occupy.

I call heaven and earth today to witness against you:
I have set before you life and death,
the blessing and the curse.

Choose life, then,
that you and your descendants may live,
by loving the LORD, your God,
heeding his voice, and holding fast to him.

For that will mean life for you,
a long life for you to live on the land that the LORD swore he would give to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.”

The word of the Lord.

R. (7bc) With the Lord there is mercy, in him is plentiful redemption.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD;
Lord, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive
to the sound of my pleadings.

With the Lord there is mercy, in him is plentiful redemption.

If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities,
Lord, who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness,
that you may be revered.

With the Lord there is mercy, in him is plentiful redemption.

I long for you, O LORD,
my soul longs for his word.
My soul awaits the Lord
more than watchmen for daybreak.

With the Lord there is mercy, in him is plentiful redemption.

More than watchmen for daybreak,
let Israel hope for the LORD.
For with the LORD there is mercy,
in him is plentiful redemption.
It is he who will redeem Israel
from all its iniquities.

With the Lord there is mercy, in him is plentiful redemption.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians

I, then, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner
worthy of the call you have received,
with all humility and gentleness,
with patience,
bearing with one another through love,
striving to preserve the unity of the spirit
through the bond of peace:

So I declare and testify in the Lord
that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do,
in the futility of their minds;
darkened in understanding,
alienated from the life of God because of their ignorance,
because of their hardness of heart,
they have become callous
and have handed themselves over to licentiousness
for the practice of every kind of impurity to excess.

That is not how you learned Christ,
assuming that you have heard of him
and were taught in him,
as truth is in Jesus,
that you should put away the old self of your former way of life,
corrupted through deceitful desires,
and be renewed in the spirit of your minds,
and put on the new self,
created in God's way in righteousness and holiness of truth.

Therefore, putting away falsehood,
speak the truth,
each one to his neighbor,
for we are members one of another.

Be angry but do not sin;
do not let the sun set on your anger,
and do not leave room for the Devil.

The thief must no longer steal,
but rather labor,
doing honest work with his own hands,
so that he may have something to share with one in need.

No foul language should come out of your mouths,
but only such as is good for needed edification,
that it may impart grace to those who hear.

And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God,
with which you were sealed for the day of redemption.

All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling
must be removed from you,
along with all malice.

And be kind to one another, compassionate,
forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ.

The word of the Lord.

VERSE BEFORE THE GOSPEL

John 13:34

I give you a new commandment:
love one another as I have loved you.

GOSPEL

Matthew 25: 31-46

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said to his disciples:

“When the Son of Man comes in his glory,
and all the angels with him,
he will sit upon his glorious throne,
and all the nations will be assembled before him.

And he will separate them one from another,
as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

Then the king will say to those on his right,

‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father.

Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

For I was hungry and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
a stranger and you welcomed me,
naked and you clothed me,
ill and you cared for me,
in prison and you visited me.'

Then the righteous will answer him and say,
'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you,
or thirsty and give you drink?

When did we see you a stranger and welcome you,
or naked and clothe you?

When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?'

And the king will say to them in reply,
'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.'

Then he will say to those on his left,
'Depart from me, you accursed,
into the eternal fire prepared for the Devil and his angels.

For I was hungry and you gave me no food,
I was thirsty and you gave me no drink,
a stranger and you gave me no welcome,
naked and you gave me no clothing,
ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.'

Then they will answer and say,
'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty
or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison,
and not minister to your needs?'

Then he will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you,
what you did not do for one of these least ones,
you did not do for me.'

And these will go off to eternal punishment,
but the righteous to eternal life."

The Gospel of the Lord.

SAMPLE PENANCES

Choose one of the following penances to atone for sins and accept God's mercy.

FOR ADULTS

- Think of someone you have been uncharitable towards and pray for them each day for a week.
- Make a call to someone who is ill or alone. Plan a visit and bring a meal.
- During the next week, spend an hour in prayer for those who are the victims of war.
- Make a commitment to bring food to the parish food pantry.
- Think of one thing that you are eating or drinking that is bad for your health. Eliminate it for one month and donate that money to a soup kitchen.
- Identify a person whom you have offended by your unkind words and pray for them each day for a week.
- Reflect on the Corporal Works of Mercy. Act on one of them -- feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, visit those in prisons, bury the dead, or give alms to the poor.
- Reflect on one of the following Lenten readings from Year A:

Romans 5:12-19	John 4:5-42
2 Timothy 1:8b-10	Ephesians 5:8-14
Matthew 17:1-9	Romans 8:8-11
Romans 5:1-2, 5-8	Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18

FOR YOUTH

- Eliminate TV for one night. Read from the Bible or your religion text.
- Reach out to a lonely person in class and encourage one other person to do the same. Have lunch together.
- Donate your next babysitting wages to the poor.
- For one whole week, do the dishes or set the table without being asked.
- Donate the money you would have spent on a fast food meal to your parish outreach ministry. Send it anonymously.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. WHAT IS THE PROPER TIME FOR EASTER VIGIL?

A. On Saturday evening, April 4, the sun will set in our diocese at _____. The end of civil twilight (nightfall) will occur at _____. Ideally, the Easter Vigil celebration should not begin before _____. Please check the website of the Naval Observatory for the exact time of nightfall in your area. https://aa.usno.navy.mil/data/RS_OneDay

“According to a most ancient tradition, this night is one of vigil for the Lord, and the Vigil celebrated during it, to commemorate that holy night when the Lord rose from the dead, is regarded as the mother of all holy vigils. For in that night, the Church keeps vigil, waiting for the resurrection of the Lord, and celebrates the sacraments of Christian initiation” (Paschale Solemnitatis: Circular Letter Concerning the Preparation and Celebration of the Easter Feasts, no. 77. Congregation for Divine Worship, January 16, 1988, [quoting Exodus 12:42; St. Augustine, Sermon 219; and the Ceremonial of Bishops].

“‘The entire celebration of the Easter Vigil takes place at night. It should not begin before nightfall; it should end before daybreak on Sunday.’ This rule is to be taken according to its strictest sense. Reprehensible are those abuses and practices that have crept into many places in violation of this ruling, whereby the Easter Vigil is celebrated at the same time of day that it is customary to celebrate anticipated Sunday Masses” (Ibid; no.78, quoting the Roman Missal).

Q. THE WORD “TRIDUUM” MEANS “THREE DAYS.” HOW DO WE CELEBRATE OVER THREE DAYS?

A. “The Paschal Triduum of the Passion and Resurrection of the Lord begins with the evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper, has its center in the Easter Vigil, and closes with Vespers (Evening Prayer) of the Sunday of the Resurrection” (Universal Norms for the Liturgical Year and the General Roman Calendar, 19). Sunday also begins the Easter season.

This seventy-two hour period is the most important celebration of our entire liturgical calendar. The Sacred Paschal Triduum is actually ONE liturgy over three days. We may go home and come back again, but we do not actually “begin” and “end” our daily celebrations.

Q. WHAT IS THE PROPER PLACE FOR THE PASCHAL CANDLE?

The paschal candle is a symbol for Christ, “May the light of Christ rising in glory, dispel the darkness of our hearts and minds” (RM, Easter Vigil). It is to be a genuine candle, and its design and size should be in proportion to the sanctuary in which it will be placed.

During the Easter Vigil and throughout the Easter Season, the paschal candle is to be placed in the sanctuary, near the altar or the ambo. Placed at the ambo, it is as if Christ is teaching us and the neophytes (A. Nocent, The Liturgical Year).

After the Easter Season it is moved to a place of honor in the baptistery, for use in the celebration of baptism. (Often, in newer construction, receptacles for the candle are imbedded near the font.) In the celebration of a funeral, the paschal candle is placed near the coffin to indicate that the death of a Christian is one’s own passover. The paschal candle should not otherwise be lit nor placed inside the sanctuary outside the Easter season (Paschale Solemnitatis, 99).

Q. SHOULD OUR PARISH CELEBRATE A TENEBRAE SERVICE?

A. Tenebrae was service of the canonical hours during Holy Week which was suppressed in the revision of Holy Week (1955-1956). The celebration of the Hours is still encouraged, but not in this dramatic format.

In his book, Glory in the Cross, Fr. Paul Turner notes: “The Circular Letter recommends the common celebration of the Office of Readings and Morning Prayer on this day [Friday] and on Holy Saturday. It says that this office was formerly called Tenebrae, but the former practices of methodically extinguishing candles and beating hymnals on pews in the dark are no longer part of the Liturgy of the Hours. These liturgical offices incorporate the singing of hymns and psalms.”

“The most appropriate form is Morning Prayer from the Liturgy of the Hours. You could precede or replace it with the Office of Readings. Part IV of the General Instruction of the Liturgy of the Hours encourages the Office of Readings, which replaces the former Tenebrae” (Rev. Paul Turner, Blog, on March 17, 2018).

THE EASTER SEASON & THE PERIOD OF MYSTAGOGIA

“Since the distinctive spirit and power of the period of post-baptismal catechesis or mystagogy derive from the new, personal experience of the sacraments and of the community, its main setting is the so-called Masses for Neophytes, that is, the Sunday Masses of the Easter Season. Besides being occasions for the newly baptized to gather with the community and share in the mysteries, these celebrations include particularly suitable readings from the Lectionary...” (OCIA 247).

RITES BELONGING TO THE PERIOD OF PURIFICATION AND ENLIGHTENMENT

“The Period of Purification and Enlightenment of the elect normally coincides with Lent and begins with ‘Election.’ Both in the liturgy and in liturgical catechesis, through remembrance of Baptism or preparation for it, and by penitence, Lent renews the community of the faithful together with the elect and disposes them to recall the Paschal Mystery, which the Sacraments of Initiation apply to individuals. In this period, the elect together with the local community give themselves to spiritual recollection, so that they may prepare themselves for the Paschal Feasts and for Initiation by the Sacraments...” (OCIA 138).

“The time of purification and enlightenment is given to a more intense preparation of spirit and heart, which has the character of recollection rather than of catechesis, and is intended to purify hearts and minds by examination of conscience and penitence. This period is intended as well to enlighten the hearts of the elect with a deeper knowledge of Christ the Savior” (OCIA 139).

“The ‘Scrutinies,’ which are celebrated solemnly on Sundays, have the double purpose of what was mentioned earlier, namely to reveal what is weak, sick, and sinful in the hearts of the elect so that it can be healed; and what is honorable, strong and holy, so that it can be strengthened...” (OCIA 141). In accord with ancient tradition, the readings of Year A are to be used, with the traditional gospels of the Samaritan Woman, the Man Born Blind, and the raising of Lazarus, respectively (cf. OCIA 146).

“The Rites of Handing On of the Creed and of the Lord’s Prayer are to be celebrated after the Scrutinies, if they have not already taken place. In these rites, with the formation of the elect completed or underway for a suitable time, the Church lovingly entrusts to them the texts regarded from antiquity as a summary of its faith and prayer. The ‘Rites of Handing On,’ by which the Church entrusts to the elect ancient texts of faith and prayer, that is, the Creed and the Lord’s Prayer, have the purpose of enlightening them...” (OCIA 147). Ideally, the presentations should be celebrated within Mass, with the faithful present (cf. OCIA 157, 178).

The Rites of Immediate Preparation are celebrated on Holy Saturday. They are celebrated on the day most proximate to the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation and, as a rule, should not be omitted. Among these rites is the Recitation of the Creed. Again, according to ancient custom, the Elect recite (“give back,” reditio) the Creed which they had been given (“handed on,” traditio).

It is very important to remember that these rites are for the catechumens (Elect) only! Those who have been baptized should not take part in rites intended for unbaptized catechumens.

ABOUT THE FEDERATION OF DIOCESAN LITURGICAL COMMISSIONS

The Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions was founded in 1969 by the Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy in order to assist with the implementation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy and the revised liturgical books. Fifty-seven years later, our mission remains the same. The members of our Federation continue to serve Bishops, clergy, and parish liturgists in our roles as directors of Offices of Worship and members of diocesan liturgical commissions.

We hope this free resource will be of benefit to you and to your parish. Other publications, including books, pamphlets, and downloadable bulletin inserts, are available at www.fdlc.org. Most are available in English and Spanish.

We also provide opportunities for liturgical formation. Perhaps you have attended one of our nationwide workshops on the revised Roman Missal, the Order of Celebrating Matrimony, the Misal Romano, or the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Perhaps you have participated in our series of webinars on the liturgical books, the liturgical year, adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, the revised rites of Initiation, or The Order of the Anointing of the Sick and Their Pastoral Care.

Associate Members are entitled to online resources, discounts on publications, and discounts to national meetings. For more information on Associate Membership, please visit www.fdlc.org/membership.

We gratefully acknowledge the generosity of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) and the International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) for their kind permission to reprint copyrighted texts.
