STEWARDSHIP AND READINGS

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

ZEP 2:3 – 3: 12-13; PS 146: 6-10; 1 COR 1: 26-31; MT 5: 1-12A

The Gospel Reading for today is what is popularly called the Sermon on the Mount. Many think it is the absolute epitome of Jesus’ teachings. To be sure it tells us how we are to live our lives, the attitudes we are to have. We must remember that those who were waiting and hoping for the Messiah expected a military leader, one who would lead them in battle against their oppressors.

In His Sermon on the Mount Jesus gives a more accurate perspective of Who He is. He begins what we call the Beatitudes (the word means “blessings”) with “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” In a sense we are all “poor in spirit.” Without the guidance and strength provided us by the Lord there is no way we can escape this poverty of spirit, of spirituality, if you will.

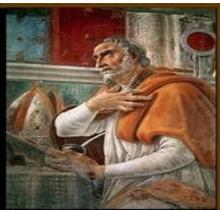

That is why we often say that living God-centered lives is at the very core of stewardship. Being a disciple of Christ translates into being a steward of our many gifts and blessings. Some scholars believe that Jesus may have given this sermon often during His ministry. Those who followed Jesus and became the earliest Christians, the first members of the Church, were fond of quoting and referring to what the Lord said on this occasion. As stated, Jesus provides us with the secret of living a good life. If we rely on Him and follow Him, we will be blessed.

A group of faithful Catholics from our Diocese joined in this year's March for Life in Washington, D.C. January 21st-24th. This year's theme was "Life is a Gift" which invites everyone to embrace life as something to be cherished and celebrated from the very beginning, and reminds us that life is worthy of protection, no matter what the circumstances.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

January 25–January 31

National Catholic Schools Week is the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States, observed since 1974. It aims to recognize the unique role Catholic schools play in the education of students.

St. Gabriel Classical Academy's mission is to assist parents in their sacred duty as the primary educators of their children. Our goal is not only academic excellence, but to form children as joyful and virtuous disciples of Christ.

We are now enrolling PK-8th grade for 2026-2027.

If you are interested in Classical Catholic Education, please call for a tour!
