Weekly Reflection ~ December 27th
Holy Family

Once again we are reminded of the importance of forgiving one another. When we have been deeply hurt, it is hard to even think about forgiving the person who hurt us. Consider the times when you hurt someone you cared about and were forgiven. We always pray for God's forgiveness; but, do you believe God has forgiven you? Perhaps hardest of all, do you forgive yourself? Christ died on a cross for our sins - we have been forgiven. How does that affect your understanding of how you should forgive others? When you find it hard to forgive, ask the Lord to show you how.

Leaning on God

If this is to be a Happy New Year, a year of usefulness, in which we live to make this earth better, we must rely on God to direct our pathway. As he walks steadily before us, let us follow closely in obedience and anticipation of the sites He has to show us. How glorious 2016 will be if we remember to lean on Him!

A Prayer for our Priests
Lord Jesus, we your people pray to you for our priests. Let them see You face to face in the breaking of the Eucharistic Bread.
Amen

Prayer To The Holy Family

JESUS, Son of God and Son of Mary, bless our family. Graciously inspire in us the unity, peace, and mutual love that you found in your own family in the little town of Nazareth.

MARY, Mother of Jesus and our Mother, nourish our family with your faith and your love. Keep us close to your Son, Jesus, in all our sorrows and joys.

JOSEPH, Foster-father to Jesus, guardian and spouse of Mary, keep our family safe from harm. Help us in all times of discouragement or anxiety.

HOLY FAMILY OF NAZARETH, make our family one with you. Help us to be instruments of peace. Grant that love, strengthened by grace, may prove mightier than all the weaknesses and trials through which our families sometimes pass. May we always have God at the center of our hearts and homes until we are all one family, happy and at peace in our true home with you. Amen.

Rejoice in the Lord always

Prayer to Mary, Mother of God

O Mary, Mother of God As you are above all creatures in Heaven and Earth, more glorious than the Cherubim, more noble than any here below, Christ has given You to His people, firm bulwark and Protectress, to shield and save sinners who fly unto You. Therefore O Lady, all embracing refuge, we solemnly recall Your sweet protection, and beg Christ forever for His mercy.
Amen
