Weekly Reflection ~ January 31
Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time

*Paul's first letter to the Corinthians has often been used as an argument for the superiority of a celibate life. But Paul's focus was really on leasing the Lord who would be returning very soon. What your state in life was - single, married, rich, poor, free or slave - was of little importance. What mattered was how you were living your life. Sharing what you had, encouraging others, and treating everyone with love and respect are the things that really matter. In that way, you would be ready when the Lord returned.
Doing God's will should be our goal and any distractions should be unwelcome. What keeps you from focusing on the Lord? Consider how you could make your life become more pleasing to God?*

"Come, let us bow down in worship; Let us kneel before the Lord"

Psalm 95:6
