Weekly Reflection ~ March 20 Third Sunday of Lent

*It is always tempting to look at what others do and evaluate our own behavior in that light. It can make us feel very good and satisfied with ourselves. The problem is that we are using the wrong yardstick. We are not to compare ourselves with others. The yardstick we are to use is Jesus.
He has told us how to behave and showed us by example. According to that measure, there is always room for improvement. Lest we become discouraged, Jesus has also told us that the Spirit will be with us. Pray for the grace to see yourself clearly and for the courage to grow and change.*

“Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. He pardons all your iniquities, he heals all your ills.”

- Psalm 103:2-3
