Strength for the Journey

A grief ministry for parents whose children have died

Coping with the death of a child can be very difficult and feel isolating. SFTJ is a group of parents who have children that have died under many different circumstances and will walk this grief journey with you, whether your loss is recent or in the past.

Pamphlets are in the back of church. For more information about SFTJ ministry please visit

Weekly Reflection ~ April 16 Second Sunday of Easter

*The early Christian communities lived in a community where they shared all things in common and divided everything on the basis of each one's needs. They worked, ate and prayed together. For most of us, this is not a practical model nor is it very appealing. Still the message of their life-style is worth thinking about. How aware are you of the needs of those around you?
How willing are you to share what you have?
Do you take advantage of opportunities to pray with others and talk about your faith with them? Consider how you can reflect these basic Christian values today.*

As the Father has sent me, so I send you.

- John 20:21
