Our annual Altar Society "Bake-Less" Bake Sale is happening this weekend, July 26th and 27th! You'll find collection envelopes in the Narthex; just place them in the collection basket when you're ready.

- Candles: altar, vigil, sanctuary, and Paschal candles
- Eucharistic Elements: hosts and wine
- Liturgical Supplies: incense, vestments, cassocks and surplices for altar servers, altar cloths, and missals
- Decor and Devotional Items: flowers, St. Roch medals, and holy cards
- Maintenance: cleaning supplies

- Maintenance: cleaning supplies

Thank you so much for your generous donations, which directly support these vital provisions and the ongoing beauty of our church!

At each celebration of the Holy Mass, the Church calls us not only to unity of mind and heart, but also to a sacred unity in posture and gesture. These physical expressions are not accidental—they communicate profound theological truths and reflect our proper roles in the liturgy.

You may have noticed that some of the faithful also assume this posture during the Our Father. While done with sincere devotion, it is important to understand that the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM)—which governs how Mass is to be celebrated—does not prescribe this gesture for the laity during this part of the liturgy. In fact, this posture is reserved to the priest as part of his liturgical role. The laity are encouraged instead to adopt the customary posture of standing with hands folded in prayerful reverence.

In summary:

- Let us continue to grow in our love for the Holy Mass by honoring both the spirit and the form of the Church's liturgy as we celebrate it together.

Thank you and God bless you through your generosity!
