St. Roch: Pilgrim of Faith and Mercy

St. Roch, lived as a pilgrim, a life where he abandoned his comfort and ease. Trusting in God's Providence, St. Roch's journey took him into places of sickness, suffering, and even loneliness.

St. Roch reminds us that the Christian life is not about avoiding hardship, but meeting it with a heart rooted in Christ. When he encountered plague-stricken towns, he did not turn away. He entered into their pain, bringing healing, prayer, and the sign of the cross. When he himself became ill, he accepted even that trial as a chance to unite himself to the suffering Christ. Alone in the forest, he was sustained by a dog that brought him bread each day, a loving sign that God never abandons those who seek Him.

In our own lives, we will meet our share of difficulties: illness, grief, loss, and moments when God feels far away. St. Roch teaches us to remain steadfast, to trust that God's care can reach us in ways we cannot imagine, and to keep our hearts open to serving others, even when we ourselves are hurting.

As we celebrate St. Roch's Feast Day, let us ask where is God inviting me to trust in Him on my pilgrimage? Who around me needs the mercy and courage that Christ longs to give through my hands? May the intercession of St. Roch, as a faithful disciple of Christ, strengthen each and every one of us in our parish to care for our brothers and sisters in need till so that we by faith may all arrive at our eternal home.

St. Roch, pray for us.

Congratulations to Our Confirmandi

This Sunday, August 17, at St. Anthony, Carter Berger, Greg Fitzgerald, Hannah Glueck, Laura Henneke, Jacob Muzny, and Parker Pilat will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, sealing them with the gifts of the Holy Spirit and strengthening them in their journey of faith. We rejoice with them and their families on this special day and pray they will always be open to the Spirit's guidance.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. May these young disciples, strengthened by Your gifts, boldly live their faith and joyfully witness to Christ in all they do. Amen.
