APOLOGETICS CORNER: This question is a commonly posed one by our Protestant brethren. How would you respond should you be asked?

Q: In Romans, chapter 3, it says that none is righteous and that all have sinned, but the Catholic Church teaches that Mary is without sin...could you explain that in light of Romans chapter 3?

A: Romans 3, verse 10 says, "...as it is written: 'None is righteous, no, not one.'" Yet, James 5:16 says that the prayer of a righteous man availeth much. If absolutely no one is righteous, then who is James talking about? Luke chapter 1 says that Elizabeth and Zechariah were righteous before God. If absolutely no one is righteous, then how can that be? Is Scripture contradicting itself? No, the folks who interpret Romans as saying absolutely, without exception, no one is righteous, are misinterpreting that passage. They are failing to realize that the key to understanding Romans 3:10 is the phrase, It is written.

Here in Romans, Paul is quoting from the O.T., Psalm 14 to be exact. In Psalm 14 it says, "The fool says in his heart, 'There is no God. They are corrupt...there is none that does good.'" But then that same psalm goes on to talk about the "righteous." Well, if none has done good, who are these righteous the psalm is talking about? Obviously, when the psalmist says that none has done good, he is talking about the fools who say there is no God. He is not talking about absolutely everyone.

Just so Paul when he quotes from this psalm. Paul is not saying absolutely no one is righteous, if he was, then how do you explain all the Old and New Testament passages that refer to the righteous? In Romans 3:11 it says that no one seeks for God. Does that mean that absolutely no one is seeking God? No, to interpret it that way would be ludicrous!

Just so verse 23 which says that "all have sinned." Babies haven't sinned, have they? Little children haven't sinned, have they? No! This is not an absolute. There are exceptions. What about John the Baptist? Did he sin? Scripture says that he was filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb. Can someone who is filled with the Holy Spirit his entire life ever sin? It's something to think about.

So, it is perfectly legitimate to say that these passages from Romans, when interpreted in context, in no way conflict with the Church's teaching on Mary being without sin. (copied from Two-minute Apologetics https://www.biblechristiansociety.com/apologetics/two_minute#4)

For any questions, or about future apologetics classes, call/text Barbara Furnari @ 816-878-2838, FurnariFlock@aol.com

St. Pius X High School recently began work at the site of their future Athletic Complex at 3700 NE Davidson Rd. The school is expanding their athletic facilities on a 45 acre site about 1/2 mile south of their campus. These improvements are part of the Warrior Pride Capital Campaign, which also includes the renovation of a former convent on school property. The new site will create home facilities for softball, baseball, soccer, tennis and cross country.

Work will continue as the school raises funds for the project. The Campaign has reached nearly $5 million in donations. "This project has the potential to happen very quickly if we can meet our fundraising goal," commented Principal Joe Monachino, Jr., "We are very grateful to all of the donors who have helped us get this far and are hoping more members of our Catholic community will donate as they see this exciting progress." For more information on the campaign or to make a donation, please visit: www.stpiusxhs-kc.com/campaign or call Melanie Martin at 816-453-3450 x115.

Help Needed with Weekend Masses

Now that we have five weekend Masses we need more volunteers to help out. We are in dire need of more Ushers and Greeters at all Masses, especially at Saturday 5:30 and Sunday 6:30. Since the 5:30 Mass is new we also need Extraordinary Ministers and Lectors to help. Please consider serving at may-be just one 5:30 Mass a month so that the same people do not have to serve every week. If willing to serve please email or call Ginny at: rctvlt64@sbcglobal.net or 453-7377.

Sacristans Needed! As St. Andrew's is expanding the number of Masses each week, we are in need of sacristans for the 5:30 pm Saturday evening Mass and the 6:00 pm weekday Masses on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Sacristans arrive about 30 minutes before Mass to set up for the celebrant, and remain about 15 minutes after Mass to clean up. Free training is provided! Please call Dan Grelinger at (816) 455-6164 if interested in serving St. Andrew's parishioners in this way.

BIBLE STUDY

FOLLOW ME: Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John

We have just finished the Passion, Crucifixion, and Resurrection of Jesus the Christ. Much of the narrative throughout this period came from the Gospel according to John. For eight sessions beginning April 18, Tuesday, at 9 AM or 7 PM, we will dive into that Gospel and find the path to meeting and following Jesus as described by "the disciple whom he loved." Class is free. Bible is required. Workbook is not required but is highly recommended ($17 payable at first session).

Saint Paul's Outreach®

Upcoming Events: Prayer Breakfast

Register today for the Saint Paul's Outreach City-Wide Prayer Breakfast on May 1! Help us celebrate "A Light in the Darkness" by praying for the young adults of Kansas City. Special guests include Archbishop Naumann, Archbishop Emeritus Keleher, and Bishop Johnston.

All funds raised from this prayer breakfast are tax deductible and go toward our mission of building Catholic communities that awaken faith on campus and within young adult environments in Kansas City. Saint Paul's Outreach is a Catholic ministry that recruits, trains, and financially supports young men and women to become missionaries in the Kansas City area to our local young adults and college students. They currently have chapters at Johnson County Community College, UMKC, Benedictine College, and among post-college young professionals in the five-county metro (SPO also serves at Donnelly College and Emporia State). Last year, over 1500 local young adults were reached out to by Saint Paul's Outreach missionaries. They are supported by both local dioceses and are experiencing dramatic growth.
