Dear St. Andrew's family,

I write to you with joy in the middle of my fourth semester of college seminary at St. Gregory the Great in Seward, NE. On behalf of me and all of my brother seminarians from St. Andrew's, I extend my greatest thanks to you all for your overwhelming support; both financially and spiritually. With every new semester comes new challenges, and as I progress in formation, the challenges become greater. But I am motivated more than ever to be open to receiving formation and trusting that Jesus will take care of everything.

This semester I have been particularly engaged in my Medieval Philosophy class. It has been great to learn about the minds of the early Church and how their ideas shaped the future of thought within the Church. We spent the first few weeks of the class focusing on the life and ideas of St. Augustine, who happens to be one of my favorite saints. The rest of my classes I don't find quite as interesting and see them as simply a means to an end for my vocation. But there is still valuable knowledge to be gained from them. So far the highlight of the semester has been traveling to Milwaukee for a seminarian basketball tournament hosted by St. Francis de Sales Seminary. We were received with immense hospitality and the weekend offered great opportunities for fraternity with other seminarians from across the country.

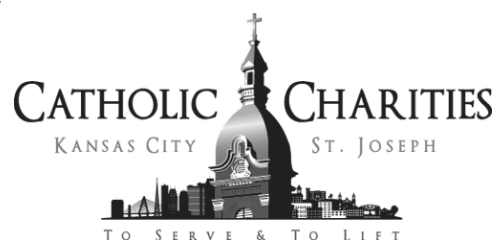

Abiding with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit has been the focus of my formation this school year, and I couldn't be more excited about where the Lord is taking me as I learn to love Him more and more. As the season of Lent approaches, I invite you all to ask for the aid of our Blessed Mother in growing closer to her son Jesus and abiding in His sweet love made known on the cross. Thank you all so much for your continued prayers and support and I look forward to seeing you all again very soon during Holy Week! Know of my persistent prayers for you all!

In Christ through Mary,
Sam Ousley

ADULT FAITH FORMATION with Fred Hack

The Gospel for year A (Jn 4:5-42) is the reason I wanted to learn all I could about the bible. This year's (C) reading has a very enlightening message – do you want a tower to fall on you? Switch to the parable about the fig tree. That really hits home.

Think about the fertilizer (our priests and the "smorgasbord" of prayer and worship opportunities this parish offers); our priests and deacon are bargaining for our souls with the fig tree's owner (God). Heed the bargain they have made. Jesus says, "...if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did." Lent is our perfect chance to help those gardeners fertilize our souls so we do not "perish as they did."

I want to take this opportunity to recognize our "gardeners" and thank them for outstanding and inspiring work to save our souls. Let's take that extra minute to let God know how much we appreciate his priests and recommit ourselves to know, love, and serve Him.

Next week – pink.

Please contact Fred Hack at fhack@sataps.com for questions about this column or bible study classes.

There is a collection envelope in your packet the weekend of March 26 & 27 for the Catholic Relief Service (a.k.a. American Bishops' Overseas Aid). If you wish to donate to this worthy cause, please drop your envelope in the regular collection basket at the entrance to the sanctuary or mail it to the church.

There is a second collection the weekend of April 2 & 3 for the Seminarians and Religious from our parish.

Please put this collection in the separate basket.

You are also welcome to write one check for any of our special collections or for multiple weeks of tithing. Please clearly annotate on the check or the envelope how much money to credit to your tithe and/or the special collection.

Thursday, March 31st after the 6PM Mass, Fr. King and Dr. Rachel Chantos will give a presentation about "The Lord's Passion and the Holy Mass". They will speak on the art, and on the Mass as sacrifice and as a source of grace. Please join us in the Parish hall directly after Mass.

Vocation Come and See Dinners:

Throughout the year, the Vocations Office hosts Vocation Come-and-See Dinners at various parishes throughout the diocese. These informal, no-pressure evenings are meant to be an opportunity for men to prayerful discern their vocation and receive resources and guidance to help in that discernment. The evenings typically begin with the celebration of the Mass, followed by dinner and fraternal community. Priests from nearby deaneries will be in attendance, and all those present will be able to ask the clergy questions on discernment, vocations, seminary, priesthood, faith, and relation with our Lord. The remaining opportunity this academic year is at the Cathedral of St. Joseph on March 25th. More opportunities will be made available later in the Fall. To RSVP, or for more information, please contact the Vocations Office Manager Katie Lucas at lucas@diocesekcsj.org
