Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gathering

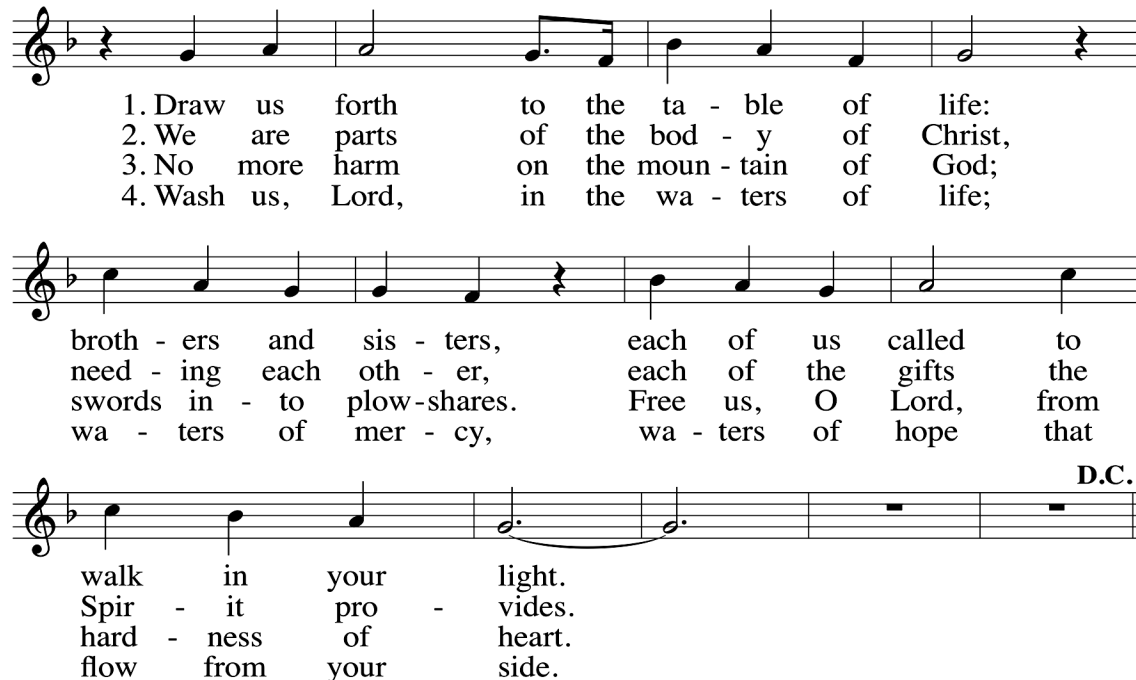

GATHER YOUR PEOPLE

Refrain

Gath-er your peo-ple, O Lord. Gath-er your peo-ple, O Lord. One bread, one bod-y, one spir-it of love. Gath-er your peo-ple, O Lord.

Verses

1. Draw us forth to the ta-ble of life:
 2. We are parts of the bod-y of Christ,
 3. No more harm on the moun-tain of God;
 4. Wash us, Lord, in the wa-ters of life;

broth-ers and sis-ters, each of us called to need-ing each oth-er, each of the gifts the swords in-to plow-shares. Free us, O Lord, from wa-ters of mer-cy, wa-ters of hope that

Glory to God

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you. We give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God heavenly King. O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son. Lord God Lamb of God, Son of the Father. You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father. Have mercy, have mercy, on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the most high Jesus Christ. With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen, amen.

Gospel: Luke 10:11:1-13

The Nicene Creed

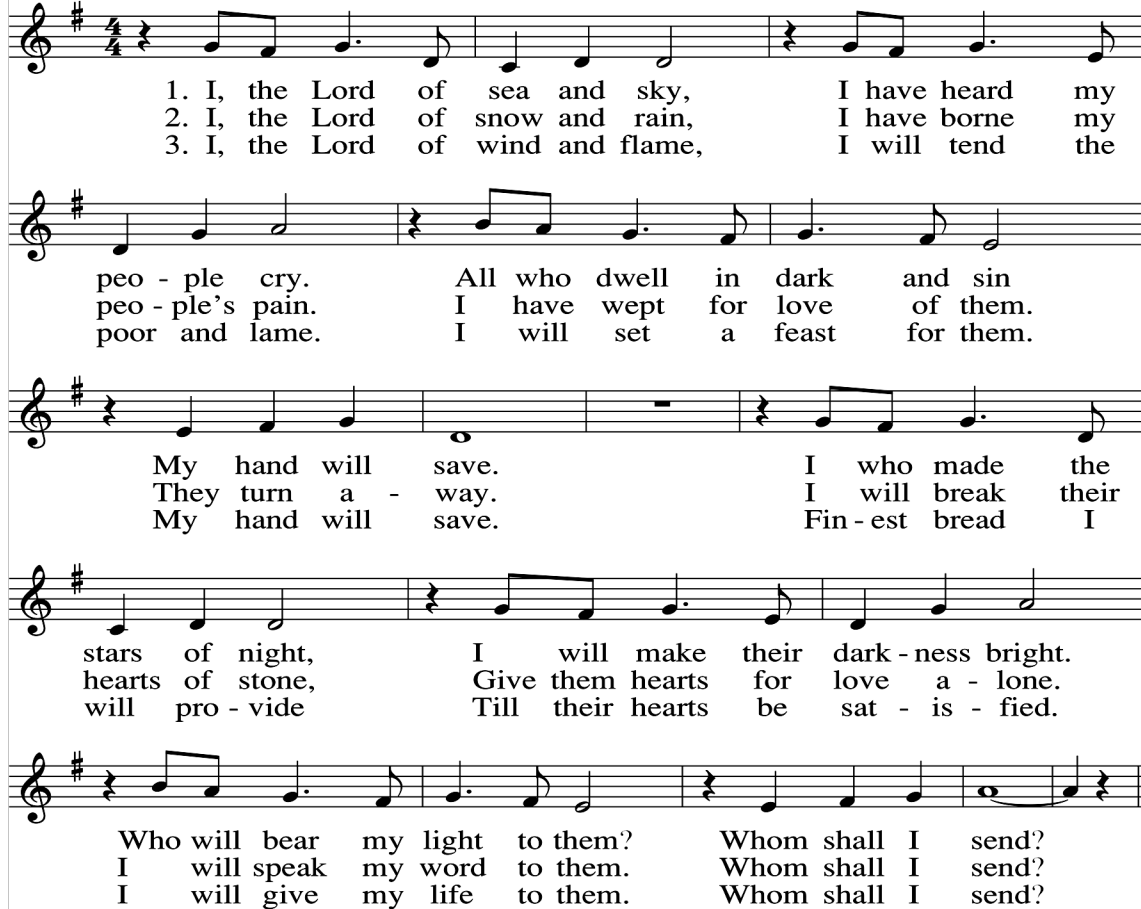

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Saint of the Week

Saint Juliana (Giuliana) of Mataró, was born in the 3rd century in Mataró, near Barcelona, Spain and was the blood sister of another esteemed saint, Semproniana. Both grew up in a devout Christian family, where they learned the values of faith and witnessed the persecution of Christians during the reign of the Roman Emperor Diocletian. Juliana's spiritual journey began when she was baptized by Saint Cugat del Valles, a revered spiritual leader and missionary of the region. Juliana entered the religious life, embracing the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. She became known for her kindness and compassion toward the sick, the poor, and those in need. When Saint Cugat was martyred for his faith, Juliana tried to ensure him a proper burial, believing his body should be honored and respected. However, she was arrested and imprisoned by authorities for her actions. Despite undergoing torture to renounce her faith, Juliana remained steadfast in her devotion to God. Her final hours were spent in prison, awaiting her martyrdom. Her unwavering faith and courage inspired many of her fellow prisoners and those who learned of her story. Eventually, on July 27, 304, Juliana was executed for her refusal to renounce her faith.

Santo de la Semana

Santa Juliana (Giuliana) de Mataró nació en el siglo III en Mataró, cerca de Barcelona, y hermana de sangre de otra santa venerada, Semproniana. Ambas crecieron en una familia cristiana devota, donde aprendieron los valores de la fe y fueron testigos de la persecución de los cristianos durante el reinado del emperador romano Diocleciano. El camino espiritual de Juliana comenzó cuando fue bautizada por san Cugat del Vallés, venerado líder espiritual y misionero de la región. Juliana entró en la vida religiosa, abrazando los votos de pobreza, castidad y obediencia. Se hizo conocida por su bondad y compasión hacia los enfermos, los pobres y los necesitados. Cuando san Cugat fue martirizado por su fe, Juliana intentó asegurarle un entierro digno, creyendo que su cuerpo debía ser honrado y respetado. Sin embargo, fue arrestada y encarcelada por las autoridades por sus acciones. A pesar de sufrir torturas para que renunciara a su fe, Juliana se mantuvo firme en su devoción a Dios. Pasó sus últimas horas en prisión, esperando su martirio. Su fe inquebrantable y su valentía inspiraron a muchos de sus compañeros de prisión y a quienes conocieron su historia. Finalmente, el 27 de julio del año 304, Juliana fue ejecutada por negarse a renunciar a su fe.
