Eucharistic Revival

Second Tuesday of the month, 7-8:30pm

C A R G O ' S

O

When someone makes a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, it's more than just a trip—it's an encounter with the living roots of our faith. Walking where Jesus was born in Bethlehem, grew up in Nazareth, began his public ministry in Galilee, and gave his life in Jerusalem leaves a lasting impression. These holy sites open our hearts to the mysteries of our faith in a powerful and personal way.

R

But there's something many people don't realize: when Christians travel to the Holy Land, they're also supporting the Christian community that still lives there. Today, there are only about 190,000 Christians in Israel and Palestine—less than 2% of the population. Most of them are Arab Christians, and they often find themselves caught in the middle of ongoing violence between Israel and militant Muslim groups.

N

These Christian families simply want to live in peace, worship Jesus, work, raise their children, and pass on their faith in the very land where Jesus walked. Sadly, their numbers have sharply declined. Just a few decades ago, Christians made up more than 10% of the population in the Holy Land. Now, war, conflict, and economic hardship have caused many to leave. Yet many others choose to stay—because they believe it's important for Christianity to remain alive in the land where it all began.

E

In areas under Palestinian control, work is scarce—especially for Christians. Tourism was once a main source of income, but with the current instability in the region, pilgrimages have dropped dramatically.

R

That's why a ministry called the Bethlehem Nativity Group was formed. This group helps Christian families by providing them with sustainable work. They employ artisans in Bethlehem to craft beautiful religious items from olive wood. These carvings are then sold in parishes around the world, and a portion of the proceeds goes directly to support Christian families in the Holy Land.

Next Weekend, July 26 and 27, after Mass in the breezeway, you'll have a chance to see and purchase some of these olive wood carvings. Your support will do more than bring a piece of the Holy Land into your home—it will help our brothers and sisters in Christ hold onto their faith and their future in the land where our faith began.

Thank you for your generosity.

O

Cuando una persona hace una peregrinación a Tierra Santa, no es solo un viaje, es un encuentro con las raíces vivas de nuestra fe. Caminar por los lugares donde nació Jesús en Belén, creció en Nazaret, comenzó su ministerio público en Galilea y entregó su vida en Jerusalén deja una huella profunda en el alma. Es una experiencia que toca el corazón y fortalece la fe de una manera muy personal.

R

Pero algo que muchos no saben es que cuando los cristianos visitan Tierra Santa, también están apoyando directamente a la comunidad cristiana que aún vive ahí. Actualmente, hay aproximadamente 190,000 cristianos en Israel y Palestina—menos del 2% de la población. La gran mayoría son cristianos árabes, y a menudo se ven atrapados en medio de los conflictos entre Israel y grupos musulmanes militantes.

N

Estas familias cristianas desean vivir en paz, adorar a Jesús, trabajar, educar a sus hijos y transmitirles la fe en la misma tierra donde caminó nuestro Señor. Tristemente, su número ha disminuido drásticamente. Hace solo unas décadas, los cristianos representaban más del 10% de la población en Tierra Santa. Hoy, debido a la guerra, el conflicto y las dificultades económicas, muchos se han visto obligados a emigrar. Sin embargo, otros han decidido quedarse para asegurar que el cristianismo siga vivo en la tierra donde comenzó.

E

En las zonas controladas por Palestina, conseguir trabajo es muy difícil, especialmente para los cristianos. Antes, el turismo era una fuente importante de ingresos, pero con la situación actual, las peregrinaciones han disminuido considerablemente.

R

Por eso se creó un ministerio llamado Bethlehem Nativity Group. Este grupo ayuda a familias cristianas proporcionándoles empleo digno y sostenible. Ellos emplean a artesanos cristianos en Belén para hacer hermosas figuras religiosas talladas en madera de olivo. Estas piezas se venden en parroquias de todo el mundo, y una parte de lo recaudado va directamente a apoyar a las familias cristianas en Tierra Santa.

El próximo fin de semana (26 y 27 de Julio), después de la Misa en el pasillo techado, tendrás la oportunidad de ver y adquirir algunas de estas artesanías en madera de olivo. Al comprar una, no solo estarás llevando a casa un recuerdo bello, sino que también estarás ayudando a que nuestros hermanos y hermanas en la fe puedan mantenerse firmes en la tierra donde nació nuestra fe.

Muchísimas gracias por tu generosidad.

Capacitación en Ambiente Seguro Cambio de fecha

Aunque todos estamos en medio de las actividades del verano con nuestras familias, vamos a ofrecer una clase en Español para renovaciones de ambiente seguro. Será el 27 de Julio a las 3 de la tarde en el McGivney Hall. Favor de unirse con nosotros.

22-23 de julio – Capilla Cerrada / Cambios en el Horario

Debido al cierre de la capilla el martes y miércoles, 22 y 23 de julio, la adoración se llevará a cabo en la Sala de la Novia. No habrá confesiones el martes o Misa a las 12:15 p.m. el martes y miércoles.

Alpha

¿Quieres un lugar para hablar sobre la vida, la fe y Dios sin presión? Este septiembre, comenzamos Alpha—una serie de conversaciones sobre lo básico del cristianismo.

No es una clase—es un espacio para compartir, hacer preguntas y ver cómo el Espíritu Santo obra en tu vida. Cada noche incluye una comida gratuita, un video breve y diálogo abierto.

Tengas curiosidad, seas nuevo en la iglesia o católico de toda la vida—Alpha es para ti. Pasa por el nártex después de Misa o visita nuestro sitio web parroquial para más información.

Colecta de Emergencia – 19 y 20 de julio

Apoya a las Víctimas de las Inundaciones en el Centro de Texas. El próximo fin de semana se realizará una segunda colecta especial para quienes deseen apoyar a los afectados por las inundaciones en la región montañosa (Hill Country). Todo el dinero recaudado será entregado a Caridades Católicas de la Arquidiócesis de San Antonio. Si prefiere dar su donativo en línea, use el código QR

Camión de Comida de Caridades Católicas

La distribución del camión de comida de Caridades Católicas será el sábado 2 de agosto en el estacionamiento del salón comunitario de San Marcos. Reúnase a las 8:30 a.m. para descargar el camión y empacar los alimentos para su distribución. El horario de atención será aproximadamente de 9 a 11 a.m., o hasta que se acaben los alimentos, lo que ocurra primero. ¡Esperamos que pueda acompañarnos!
