The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

According to tradition, the True Cross—the very cross upon which Jesus died—was discovered in the year 326 by St. Helen, the mother of Emperor Constantine. Moved by faith and devotion, she traveled to Jerusalem in search of the sacred relics of our Lord's Passion. On September 14, she is said to have found the True Cross, along with other holy artifacts.

To honor the discovery, St. Helen built several churches in the Holy Land: the Church of the Holy Sepulchre at the site of the Crucifixion and Resurrection, a church on the Mount of Olives marking the Ascension, and another in Bethlehem where Jesus was born. She also constructed a great church in Rome to house the relics of the True Cross—this church is known as the Basilica of the Holy Cross in Jerusalem.

Since then, the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross has been celebrated each year on September 14 by both the Catholic and Orthodox Churches. On this day, we remember that the Cross is the instrument God used to bring about the salvation of the world. Through His death on the Cross, Jesus bore the weight of our sin and conquered its ultimate consequence—eternal death. Because of Christ's sacrifice, the Cross is no longer a symbol of death, but a sign of victory, a sign of life, and a sign of our faith.

The Cross is deeply woven into our sacred memory. We begin our prayers with the Sign of the Cross, calling on the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. We mark the foreheads of our loved ones with the Cross, claiming them for Christ. We meditate on the Passion through the Stations of the Cross. On Good Friday, we venerate the Cross with love and reverence—not for the wood itself, but for the One who hung upon it.

Every Catholic home should have a crucifix prominently displayed. If you've recently moved or you don't yet have one in your home, consider making a small, prayerful ceremony of placing a crucifix on your wall. Let that moment be a public declaration: This house belongs to Jesus Christ.

La Exaltación de la Santa Cruz

Según la tradición, la Verdadera Cruz, el mismo madero donde murió Jesús, fue descubierta en el año 326 por Santa Elena, madre del emperador Constantino. Movida por su fe y devoción, ella viajó a Jerusalén en busca de las reliquias sagradas de la Pasión del Señor. Se dice que el 14 de septiembre encontró la Santa Cruz, junto con otros objetos santos.

Para honrar este hallazgo, Santa Elena mandó construir varias iglesias en Tierra Santa: la Basílica del Santo Sepulcro, en el lugar de la Crucifixión y Resurrección; una iglesia en el Monte de los Olivos, donde ocurrió la Ascensión; y otra en Belén, donde nació Jesús. También construyó una gran iglesia en Roma para resguardar las reliquias de la Cruz: la Basílica de la Santa Cruz en Jerusalén.

Desde entonces, la fiesta de la Exaltación de la Santa Cruz se celebra cada año el 14 de septiembre tanto en la Iglesia Católica como en la Ortodoxa. En este día recordamos que la Cruz fue el instrumento que Dios usó para salvar al mundo. En ella, Cristo cargó con nuestros pecados y venció su consecuencia más grave: la muerte eterna. Gracias al sacrificio de Jesús, la Cruz ya no es un símbolo de muerte, sino de victoria, de vida y de fe.

La Cruz forma parte de nuestra memoria sagrada. Hacemos la señal de la cruz al comenzar nuestras oraciones, invocando al Padre, al Hijo y al Espíritu Santo. Marcamos la frente de nuestros seres queridos con la Cruz, reclamándolos para Cristo. Meditamos la Pasión con las Estaciones del Vía Crucis, y en el Viernes Santo veneramos la Cruz con amor y reverencia. No veneramos la madera, sino al que fue crucificado por amor.

Todo hogar católico debe tener un crucifijo en un lugar visible. Si te has mudado recientemente o aún no tienes un crucifijo en tu casa, te invito a hacer una pequeña ceremonia para colocarlo. Que ese momento sea una declaración pública: Esta casa le pertenece a Jesucristo.
