Second Tuesday of the month, 7-8:30pm

C A R G O ' S

O

I was born and raised in a faithful Catholic family. My earliest memories are of my mom teaching me and my brothers how to pray every night before bed. Both of my parents were very involved in my home parish – St. Michael the Archangel in Grand Prairie – so I grew up being at church a lot, and it always felt like home. I was also home-schooled from kindergarten through high school, which provided me with a great Catholic education and an environment that helped me hear God’s voice in prayer. Being an altar server as a kid allowed me to interact with the priests at St. Michael. I saw their joy and the ways that they brought people closer to God and I thought, “I could do that.”

R

N

E

Through participating in youth ministry, the Pines Catholic Camp, and the Dallas Catholic Youth Conference, I began to develop a prayer life that was centered on a personal relationship with the Lord. I discovered the depths of God’s love for me and a real passion in my heart for leading others closer to Jesus. As I continued praying, going to adoration, and receiving Holy Communion, I thought that the best way I could lead others to Jesus was by being a priest. I found a joy and excitement with that idea that nothing else gave me. So, I entered the seminary straight out of high school.

R

The past eight and a half years of seminary formation have been the most formative, challenging, and rewarding years of my life. God has been so faithful and has blessed me in so many ways that I never could have imagined. I am incredibly happy to be assigned here at St. Mark as a deacon, and I look forward to getting to know and serve this community while I prepare for my ordination as a priest on May 23. Thank you all for the warm welcome and please keep me in your prayers.

Deacon Nick Weiss

C A R G O ' S

O

Nací y crecí en una familia católica fiel. Mis primeros recuerdos son de mi madre enseñándonos a mis hermanos y a mí a rezar cada noche antes de dormir. Mis padres estaban muy implicados en mi parroquia – San Miguel Arcángel en Grand Prairie – así que crecí pasando mucho tiempo en la iglesia, y siempre me sentía como en casa. También fui educada en casa desde infantil hasta bachillerato, donde recibí una gran educación católica y un entorno que me ayudó a escuchar la voz de Dios en la oración. Ser monaguillo de niño me permitió interactuar con los sacerdotes de San Miguel. Vi su alegría y la forma en que acercaban a la gente a Dios y pensé: “Yo podría hacer eso.”

R

N

Participando en el ministerio juvenil, el Campamento Católico The Pines y la Conferencia de Jóvenes Católicos de Dallas, comencé a desarrollar una vida de oración centrada en una relación personal con el Señor. Descubrí la profundidad del amor de Dios hacia mí y una verdadera pasión en mi corazón por acercar a los demás a Jesús. Mientras seguía rezando, yendo a la adoración y recibiendo la Sagrada Comunión, pensé que la mejor manera de guiar a otros hacia Jesús era siendo sacerdote. Encontré una alegría y paz con esa idea que nada más me daba. Así que entré en el seminario nada más salir del instituto.

R

Los últimos ocho años y medio de formación en el seminario han sido los más formativos, desafiantes y gratificantes de mi vida. Dios ha sido tan fiel y me ha bendecido de tantas maneras que nunca habría imaginado. Estoy increíblemente feliz de haber sido asignado aquí en St. Mark como diácono, y espero conocer y servir a esta comunidad mientras me preparo para mi ordenación sacerdotal el 23 de mayo. Gracias a todos por la cálida bienvenida y por favor, manténganme en sus oraciones.
