C A R G O ' S

O

Christ is Risen! Truly, He is Risen!

This Sunday, the eighth day of Easter, we also celebrate the Solemnity of Divine Mercy.

R

This devotion has been close to my heart for many years. From the very beginning of my return to the Catholic Faith, I had a deep sense that I was — and still am — in need of God’s great mercy. I remember praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy while waiting tables. Even in a busy restaurant, I found moments to turn to the Lord’s mercy.

N

Later, as a missionary in Canada, I got really sick. I was far from home. But I remember a simple image of Divine Mercy on the wall and I would look at it and just kinda repeat, “Jesus, I trust in you.” How much comfort that image brought me in my suffering!

E

My love for this devotion only deepened when I was in seminary, studying for the priesthood. I had the privilege of visiting the Shrine of Divine Mercy in Kraków, Poland. It struck me deeply that God revealed His mercy to St. Faustina just a few years before — and only a few miles away from — one of the darkest places in human history: Auschwitz.

R

It’s a powerful contrast. Sin is always repugnant to God, but His mercy is always greater. And that mercy is available to each of us.

Pope Francis puts it beautifully:

“The first area where we see God showing excess in his ever-increasing mercy is that of encounter. He gives himself completely and in such a way that every encounter leads to rejoicing. In the parable of the Merciful Father we are astounded by the man who runs, deeply moved, to his son, and throws his arms around him... Mercy restores everything; it restores dignity to each person. ... Jesus comes to redeem us, to send us out, to transform us from being poor and blind, imprisoned and oppressed, to become ministers of mercy and consolation.”

This Sunday, let’s open our hearts again to that mercy. Let’s receive it — and let’s live it.

Christ is Risen! Truly, He is Risen!

C A R G O ' S

¡Cristo ha resucitado! ¡En verdad, ha resucitado!

Este domingo, el octavo día de Pascua, también celebramos la Solemnidad de la Divina Misericordia.

Esta devoción ha estado cerca de mi corazón durante muchos años. Desde el comienzo de mi regreso a la fe católica, tuve una profunda sensación de que necesitaba —y aún necesito— la gran misericordia de Dios. Recuerdo rezar la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia mientras trabajaba como mesero. Incluso en un restaurante ocupado, encontraba momentos para acudir a la misericordia del Señor.

Más tarde, como misionero en Canadá, me enfermé gravemente. Estaba lejos de casa. Pero recuerdo una sencilla imagen de la Divina Misericordia en la pared; la miraba y repetía una y otra vez: “Jesús, en ti confío”. ¡Cuánto consuelo me brindó esa imagen en medio de mi sufrimiento!

Mi amor por esta devoción solo se profundizó cuando estaba en el seminario, estudiando para el sacerdocio. Tuve el privilegio de visitar el Santuario de la Divina Misericordia en Cracovia, Polonia. Me impactó profundamente que Dios revelara su misericordia a Santa Faustina solo unos años antes —y a pocos kilómetros— de uno de los lugares más oscuros de la historia humana: Auschwitz.

Es un contraste poderoso. El pecado siempre es repugnante para Dios, pero su misericordia siempre es mayor. Y esa misericordia está disponible para cada uno de nosotros.

El Papa Francisco lo expresa bellamente:

“La primera área donde vemos a Dios mostrar en exceso su misericordia siempre creciente es la del encuentro. Él se entrega completamente y de tal manera que cada encuentro conduce al gozo. En la parábola del Padre misericordioso nos asombra el hombre que corre, profundamente conmovido, hacia su hijo y lo abraza... La misericordia lo restaura todo; devuelve la dignidad a cada persona. ... Jesús viene a redimirnos, a enviarnos, a transformarnos de pobres y ciegos, presos y oprimidos, en ministros de misericordia y consuelo.”

Este domingo, abramos nuevamente nuestro corazón a esa misericordia. Recibámosla —y vivámosla.

¡Cristo ha resucitado! ¡En verdad, ha resucitado!
