True Freedom

O As we celebrate Independence Day this week, we naturally give thanks for the many freedoms we enjoy as Americans. Our nation was founded on the conviction that liberty is a gift worth protecting. Patrick Henry famously declared, "Give me liberty or give me death," recognizing that a life without freedom is not truly life at all.

But Independence Day also invites us to ask a deeper question: What is true freedom?

R Our culture often defines freedom as the ability to do whatever we want, whenever we want. We hear phrases like, "It's a free country," or "I can do whatever makes me happy." While freedom certainly involves the ability to choose, that alone is not enough. If every choice made us freer, then addictions, broken relationships, and sin would never exist.

N Jesus reveals a much richer understanding of freedom. He tells us, "The truth will set you free" (John 8:32). Authentic freedom is not the ability to choose anything; it is the ability to choose what is good. The more we choose what is true, beautiful, and good, the freer we become. Virtue strengthens us to live as God created us to live. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches: "The more one does what is good, the freer one becomes" (CCC 1733). Every act of kindness, honesty, purity, forgiveness, and generosity forms us into the people God created us to be.

E The good news is that Christ came precisely to set us free. Through His Cross and Resurrection, He breaks the chains of sin and opens the way to new life. Whenever we turn to Him in prayer, receive His mercy in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and encounter Him in the Eucharist, He restores the freedom that sin has taken from us.

R As we celebrate our nation's independence, let us also thank God for the greater freedom Christ offers—a freedom no government can grant and no earthly power can take away. May we choose the good each day, grow in virtue, and live as sons and daughters of God. That is true freedom!

La Verdadera Libertad

Al celebrar esta semana el Día de la Independencia, damos gracias de manera especial por las muchas libertades que disfrutamos como estadounidenses. Nuestra nación fue fundada sobre la convicción de que la libertad es un don que vale la pena proteger. Patrick Henry declaró célebremente: «¡Denme libertad o denme la muerte!», reconociendo que una vida sin libertad no es verdaderamente una vida.

Pero el Día de la Independencia también nos invita a hacernos una pregunta más profunda: ¿Qué es la verdadera libertad?

Nuestra cultura suele definir la libertad como la capacidad de hacer lo que queramos, cuando queramos. Escuchamos frases como: «Es un país libre» o «Puedo hacer lo que me haga feliz». Si bien la libertad ciertamente implica la capacidad de elegir, eso por sí solo no es suficiente. Si cada decisión que tomáramos nos hiciera más libres, entonces no existirían las adicciones, las relaciones rotas ni el pecado.

Jesús nos revela una comprensión mucho más profunda de la libertad. Él nos dice: «La verdad los hará libres» (Juan 8,32). La libertad auténtica no consiste en poder elegir cualquier cosa, sino en poder elegir el bien. Cuanto más elegimos lo que es verdadero, bello y bueno, más libres llegamos a ser. La virtud nos fortalece para vivir como Dios nos creó para vivir. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica enseña: «Cuanto más se hace el bien, más libre se llega a ser» (CIC 1733). Cada acto de bondad, honestidad, pureza, perdón y generosidad nos va formando para convertirnos en las personas que Dios nos creó para ser.

La buena noticia es que Cristo vino precisamente para hacernos libres. Por medio de su Cruz y Resurrección, rompe las cadenas del pecado y nos abre el camino hacia una vida nueva. Cada vez que acudimos a Él en la oración, recibimos su misericordia en el Sacramento de la Reconciliación y lo encontramos en la Eucaristía, Él restaura la libertad que el pecado nos ha quitado.

Al celebrar la independencia de nuestra nación, demos también gracias a Dios por la libertad más grande que Cristo nos ofrece: una libertad que ningún gobierno puede conceder y que ningún poder de este mundo puede arrebatarlos. Que cada día elijamos el bien, crezcamos en la virtud y vivamos como hijos e hijas de Dios. ¡Esa es la verdadera libertad!

Fondo de Solidaridad Pastoral para la Iglesia en África 11 y 12 de julio

A través del Fondo de Solidaridad Pastoral para la Iglesia en África, el Subcomité para la Iglesia en África otorga subvenciones para financiar proyectos pastorales que apoyan el mantenimiento y el crecimiento de la Iglesia en África. Los proyectos financiados incluyen programas de extensión comunitaria, escuelas, evangelización y la formación de clérigos y ministros laicos.

El grupo de manos amorosas de St. Mark

Que hacen rosarios en honor de Nuestra Señora para distribución local y mundial, tendrán su próxima reunion mensual el Martes, 7 de Julio. Los invitamos a unirse con nosotros en la Biblioteca de la Parroquia en el Salon 105 del Smyth Pastoral Center a las 6:30 de la tarde. No es necesario tener experiencia. Le enseñaremos a cualquiera que quiera aprender. Si sabe de alguna necesidad de rosarios, comuníquese con Rita Johnson: (817) 781-1393.

Iniciación Cristiana

¿Estás buscando...?

- ¿Una relación más profunda con Dios?
- ¿Un sentido de pertenencia a una comunidad de fe?
- ¿Una mejor comprensión de tu propósito y misión en la vida?

¿Alguna vez te has preguntado...?

- ¿Cuál es la diferencia entre la Biblia católica y la protestante?
- ¿Por qué los católicos honran a María y a los santos?
- ¿Qué enseña la Iglesia Católica y por qué?

Ven y descubre la riqueza de la fe católica en un ambiente acogedor y de apoyo. Ya sea que estés explorando el cristianismo, considerando hacerte católico o simplemente buscando respuestas, te invitamos a acompañarnos. ¡No tienes que recorrer este camino solo! Para más información o para saber cómo comenzar, comunícate con Ruth Sánchez 972-423-5600 ext. 225, rsanchez@stmarkplano.org

Anuncio especial: Tras tres años de servicio en el Ministerio Juvenil de St. Mark, yo, Tim Schlich, emprendo una nueva oportunidad profesional para apoyar a mi creciente familia. Estoy profundamente agradecido por todo el amor y el apoyo que he recibido del personal de la parroquia y de toda la comunidad eclesial. Seguiré rezando por ustedes, ¡y les pido que, por favor, también nos tengan presentes en sus oraciones a mí y a mi familia!
