St. Anthony First Dedication of Public Use

October 17, 1964 marked the first public use of the current St. Anthony of Padua Church, though the official dedication of the church didn't take place until July 17, 1965. Arthur and (Nancy) Leah Pompeo were the first couple to marry in the new church. They married on October 19, 1964. This past weekend at the Saturday 5:30 p.m. mass the couple and their family gathered for a blessing on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary and to acknowledge the 60th anniversary of the first public use of the current St. Anthony of Padua Church.
