DEACON'S BENCH

Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands but yours, no feet but yours. Yours are the eyes through which Christ's compassion is to look out to the world. Yours are the feet with which Christ is to go about doing good. Yours are the hands with which Christ is to bless all people now.

2025 Jubilee: The Holy Year OCTOBER 8 – 16TH, 2025 (9 DAYS)

Pope Francis has announced that 2025 will be a Jubilee Year, something which happens every 25 years. The theme for Jubilee 2025 is "Pilgrims of Hope," and it will be a year of hope for a world suffering the impacts of war, the ongoing effects of COVID-19 pandemic, and the climate crisis. "Jubilee" is the name given to a particular year. A time to re-establish a proper relationship with God, with one another, and with all of Creation.

Come join us on a pilgrimage to Rome and discover why Italy is a bastion of Catholicism as you visit Rome's Seven Pilgrim Churches and the Catacombs. Attend the weekly Papal audience and receive the blessing given by the Pope. Spend time at the Basilica of St. Francis in Assisi, the beloved saint's hometown. Discover Michelangelo's Last Judgment mural and explore St. Peter's Basilica. See the world's most inspirational sites and relics in Rome and Assisi amid the Roman Catholic Church's Year of Jubilee.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

"Give it your all! Leave it all on the field! Trust in your training/preparation/coaches." We've all heard a version of this type of exhortation. It requires a great amount of confidence and trust - faith, if you will - to let go of our doubt and fears. The two widows of today's readings had such confidence, as they offer us heroic examples of faith. The widow of Zarephath uses her only remaining food to cook for Elijah. She did this after receiving God's promise that, "The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry." The widow had the assurance that God would sustain her, and she lived by it - trusting she could give her all, because with God's help there would be more. Likewise, the widow in the Gospel could make an offering to the temple treasury because of her limitless confidence in God: she gave "her whole livelihood." From that moment, she would have nothing to sustain her but God's providential care. By their unreserved acts of generosity, both women consented to rely on God in the most absolute sense. And in so doing, they silently proclaimed their faith in the personal and unconditional love that God had for each of them.

REFLECT Choose one aspect of your life you can mentally "reframe" in order to see it not as a lack but as an opportunity to cast yourself more fully on God. Spend 15 minutes this week speaking to God about this. If you can, thank him for the chance to draw closer to him. If it is too difficult to thank him for your trial, ask him to help you see and appreciate how he is leading you along this path of greater intimacy with him.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

So deeply did these two women believe in God's goodness that they were able to act without fear. Confident in his love, they could give to the point of having nothing left. They, literally, "gave it all that they had." Rather than being burdensome, however, their surrender was the basis of their relationship with God and therefore, it was a much greater treasure than material goods. This message is clearly at odds with the notion that possessions and wealth are the basis of happiness. By rejecting this idea, giving generously of ourselves and trusting God to sustain us, we gain more than we could ever give up. Like the widow whose jar never runs dry, when we fill our lives with what God offers and not what the world offers, we live with abundance.
