JUBILEE OF CONSECRATED LIFE

October 11-12

Has a religious brother or sister made a difference in your life?

Many forms of consecrated life exist in the Catholic Church. Those in consecrated life deepen their baptism by making three vows - poverty, chastity, and obedience. The most common form is religious life: religious brothers (sometimes referred to as monks or friars) and religious sisters (sometimes referred to as nuns).

Other forms of consecrated life in the Catholic Church include the eremitical life, secular institutes, societies of apostolic life, and consecrated virgins and widows.

Has a religious brother or sister made a difference in your life? Tell us about him or her! Send their name and a brief story or remembrance to Fr. Scott. Bonus points if you have a picture of them that you can share!

BOX OF JOY

Pick Up a Box This Weekend!
Return November 1st-2nd

Christ by the Sea Collaborative will be teaming up for the third year with Cross Catholic Outreach in their "Box of Joy" Ministry. We will supply Christmas gifts for desperately poor children in Haiti, Guatemala, and other developing countries. Fill as many standard-size shoe boxes (provided by Cross Catholic Outreach) as possible with small gifts that will then be delivered to children in need in time for Christmas. Last year, we filled 221 boxes! The boxes, an information brochure, a suggested gift list, and a sign-up list will be available for pickup beginning on October 4th in the Gathering Space at St. Mary's and the main foyer at St. Anthony's. Boxes will be returned by the weekend of November 1-2 for shipping.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples: "When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'" I think what Jesus is drawing us to see is the humility we need as his disciples. It's easy to get puffed up, thinking, "Well, I've done this" or "I've done that" in service of God. We can even start to feel that God owes us. But we are called to love God for God's own sake, not for the accolades or even the reward that comes from faithfully serving him. St. Ignatius of Loyola penned a beautiful prayer called the Prayer for Generosity that expresses the sentiment that I feel is at the heart of our Scriptures today: "Eternal Word, only begotten Son of God, teach me true generosity. Teach me to serve you as you deserve. To give without counting the cost ... to sacrifice myself without thought of any reward save the knowledge that I have done your will." Let's ask God to help us to serve him with generous hearts.

PRAY

Take a moment to examine your own heart. Is your discipleship fueled more by a hope of reward (heaven), or, by pure love of God? Take some time to pray with St. Ignatius of Loyola's Prayer for Generosity (the full text can be found online), asking the Lord to increase your generosity in serving him.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In his second letter to Timothy, Paul calls us to "bear [our] share of the hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God." Serving the Lord requires that we rely on the gift of the Spirit within us who empowers us to serve courageously and generously. The good news, Paul tells us, is that "God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." In our efforts to serve God and to share our faith with others, let's remember that it is God's grace that is at work within us, equipping us and strengthening us. Let's remember Jesus' promise that even if we only have faith the size of a tiny mustard seed, we can still do great things for God. Indeed, through the gift of faith and the gift of his Holy Spirit, God has truly given us immense spiritual power.
