The Archdiocese of Boston's Pro-Life Office, in collaboration with the Daughters of Mary of Nazareth and the Men of Divine Mercy Prayer Group, are excited to invite you to this special conference as we honor the sanctity and the beauty of life from the womb to the tomb and embrace the virtue of hope in all circumstances of every age and stage of life.

THANK YOU!

JIM FLANNAGAN

Jim Flanagan Accepts New Position in Franklin

Jim Flanagan, who has served as our Coordinator of Youth Ministry and Faith Formation for grades six and higher since September 2022, has accepted a new position as Director of Faith Formation for Saint Mary Parish in Franklin. Jim's last day in our parishes will be Sunday, August 24th.

We give thanks to God for his three-year ministry here and ask God to bless him in this new position. We also thank Jim for the past three years of youth ministry, preparing young people for the Sacrament of Confirmation, leading faith formation for grades six through eight, supporting the implementation of family faith formation, and starting the process of moving the Sacrament of Confirmation from grade ten to grade eight.

Fr. Scott and Fr. Hung have started to consult with staff, key volunteers who have worked with Jim, and our members in grades six through twelve and their families, to make plans to provide faith formation (formerly called CCD or religious education) for grades six and seven, preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation for grades eight and nine, and a comprehensive youth ministry for grades six and higher. Rest assured, that our goal in ministering to our young people and their families is to draw them closer to Christ and His Church.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jer 38:4-6, 8-10 | Heb 12:1-4 | Lk 12:49-53

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today's readings acknowledge the real challenges of living our faith. Following Christ will sometimes put us at odds with others – an uncomfortable reality that many will face in our broken and divided world. Yet we can find strength knowing that Jesus understands the constant opposition (both inward and outward) that we face. The second reading says, "Consider how he endured such opposition from sinners." Jesus knows what it's like to face opposition, but he endured it "for the sake of the joy that lay before him." That is our calling too. We are made to know the joy that awaits us beyond our crosses. We find the strength to persevere through our trials by "keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus." Keeping Christ as our focus, we will be able to overcome any obstacle we may face and run toward the goal of heaven.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In today's Gospel, Jesus said, "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing." Jesus' desire is that the whole world be set aflame with his love, and yet, he knows that this will not come easily. The good news is that Jesus is with us in the midst of the struggle. He too knows the deep longing and even anguish (the Gospel today uses that word!) that we experience as we work so that others may come to know God's love. We can take comfort in the fact that as much as we want to see others come to faith, God desires it even more than we do, and he is also pouring out his grace continually upon us. In the midst of any discouragement we may feel about those who seem opposed to God and to faith, may we remember the burning love that Christ has and his immense desire to draw all people to himself.

PRAY

Pray for those whom you may know who seem closed to the Gospel, or who are away from the Church. Invite the Holy Spirit to touch your heart with a particular love and zeal to pray for them, that those who may seem the most opposed to faith might come, one day, to embrace it.

*I have come to set the earth on fire, and how
I wish it were already blazing!*
