AMERICAN SAINT OF THE MONTH OF MAY: ST. DAMIEN OF MOLOKAI

6 Things You Should Know about St. Damien of Molokai

1. He was only 23 when he set sail for Hawaii.
2. Damien volunteered to serve on an island from which he could never return.
3. When Damien arrived on Molokai, there were 800 lepers on the island.
4. Damien provided critical infrastructure on Molokai, even engineering his own irrigation system for the island.
5. In 1884, Damien developed leprosy himself.
6. He is the patron of those with Hansen's disease (the modern name for leprosy) and HIV/ AIDS.

An Announcement from Seminarian Alden Bronson: An Unwitting Departure

Throughout the course of this year, I have been looking forward to returning to Hull and Cohasset as a deacon. While at Seminary, I have been preparing for a series of talks [and theatrical productions] called How to Get to Heaven, which would touch on various aspects of the Faith that interest me. These productions would also make use of Lazer the Dog's acting skills, which I think have yet gone unrecognized.

As is typically the case, however, God's plan is not so predictable. The Archbishop has invited me to take advantage of another opportunity to do hospital ministry. Therefore, I will not be able to return as expected. I am very happy to have gotten to know those of you with whom I had the chance, and perhaps I will be able to visit in the future.

Yours,
A.B.

Prayer For Pope Leo XIV

O God, shepherd and ruler of all the faithful,
look favorably on your servant
Leo, whom you have set at the head of your Church as her shepherd; grant, we pray, that by word and example
he may be of service to those over whom he presides
so that, together with the flock entrusted to his care,
he may come to everlasting life.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

When the needs of ministry became overwhelming, the Apostles did not say they would sleep less or pray less in order to have more time to serve others. Instead, they appointed leaders from the community to help so they could continue to devote themselves to prayer and preaching. This reminds me of a story I read about Saint Teresa of Calcutta, in which the sisters of the Missionaries of Charity asked to be excused from the mandatory daily Holy Hour because the needs of the poor were so overwhelming. Saint Teresa is said to have responded that the sisters should then spend not one, but two hours in prayer each day. She knew that the foundation of a life of service was a life of prayer. We are asked in all that we do to rely not on our own abilities, but to humbly recognize that all we have to give comes from God.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The cornerstone of our lives – the piece that gives strength to everything else that grows within us – is our relationship with God. The works of our vocation are meant to flow from that relationship. And so coming to know Jesus through prayer is at the core of serving others. In my vocation as a wife and mother, I sometimes get consumed in completing tasks and only realize at the end of the day that I have not prayed. But even Christ, the Son of God, tells us in the Gospel that "the Father who dwells in me is doing his works." Life in the Trinity means that the love of the Father flows through the Son. If Jesus does not rely on his own being to preach and serve, I certainly cannot respond to God's call to love my family apart from him. As we complete the daily tasks of our vocations, we must remember that the ultimate call of a life of holiness is to allow God's love to flow forth through us.

PRAY

This week, consider how you can develop or strengthen a habit of prayer as the first act of your day. You might be able to pray in silence, or you might choose to incorporate prayer into the activity of your morning. However you are able to establish this routine, be intentional about how you recognize prayer as the cornerstone of all that you do.
